Low Countries And The New Worlds:

Colonization of the New World John Fiske, 1902 The Low Countries and the New World(s) Johanna C. Prins, 2000

The Low Countries and the New World s is a collection of specialized studies in the Netherlandic field covering topics in Dutch Literature Linguistics History and Art History This volume focuses on the tradition of travel exploration and discovery of new worlds by the Low Countries throughout history In the process the Low Countries have reflected on their own character expanded their experience by exploring other cultures and built small outposts of that culture in many places

Colonization of the New world Ferdinand Justi, Sara Yorke Stevenson, Morris Jastrow (Jr.), 1905 The Renaissance and Reformation in Northern Europe Kenneth R. Bartlett, Margaret McGlynn, 2014-10-20 This updated version of Humanism and the Northern Renaissance now includes over 60 documents exploring humanist and Renaissance ideals the zeal of religion and the wealth of the new world Together the sources illuminate the chaos and brilliance of the historical period as well as its failures and inconsistencies The reader has been thoroughly revised to meet the needs of the undergraduate classroom Over 30 historical documents have been added including material by Martin Luther John Calvin John Knox William Shakespeare Christopher Columbus Miguel de Cervantes and Galileo Galilei In the introduction Bartlett and McGlynn identify humanism as the central expression of the European Renaissance and explain how this idea migrated from Italy to northern Europe The editors also emphasize the role of the church and Christianity in northern Europe and detail the events leading up to the Reformation A short essay on how to read historical documents is included Each reading is preceded by a short introduction and ancillary materials can be found on UTP s History Matters website www.utphistorymatters.com

War in the World Jeremy Black, 2017-09-16 War was a central theme in the world history of the late fifteenth and sixteenth centuries with military capability and activity central to its states societies economies and cultures War in the World 1450 1600 provides an account of warfare in the period placing it in global context It offers a corrective to a narrative that has emphasised European developments and obscured the history of non European military systems and cultures of war Highlighting conflict between non Western powers which constituted most of the conflict around the world as well as giving due attention to warfare between Western and non Western powers Black emphasises the breadth and variety of military trajectories and connections This comparative context also provides a framework for considering the idea of a European based Military Revolution A wide ranging account of world military history in a period of substantial development the book will be essential reading for those interested in global history and conflict War in the World 1450 1600 is designed as a companion volume to Jeremy Black s Beyond the Military Revolution Warfare in the Seventeenth Century World Myth in History, History in Myth Society for Netherlandic History (U.S.). International Conference, 2009 In 1975 a group of Dutch and British scholars published a conference volume of collected essays entitled Some Political Mythologies That conference sought to examine the political myth as an object of historical study particularly in the context of the tumultuous and exceptional history of the Low Countries Thirty years later a more diverse group of scholars gathered to re examine the history of Dutch myth making in light of developments in theoretical and methodological approaches to understanding the role of myths in national identity moral geography and community formation The results of their efforts appear in this volume Myth in History History in Myth The essays cover developments in history anthropology cartography philosophy art history and literature as they pertain to how the Dutch historically perceived these myths and how the myths have been treated by previous generations of historians The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan

Chorev,2012-05-15 Since 1948 the World Health Organization WHO has launched numerous programs aimed at improving health conditions around the globe ranging from efforts to eradicate smallpox to education programs about the health risks of smoking In setting global health priorities and carrying out initiatives the WHO bureaucracy has faced the challenge of reconciling the preferences of a small minority of wealthy nations who fund the organization with the demands of poorer member countries who hold the majority of votes In The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan Chorev shows how the WHO bureaucracy has succeeded not only in avoiding having its agenda co opted by either coalition of member states but also in reaching a consensus that fit the bureaucracy s own principles and interests Chorev assesses the response of the WHO bureaucracy to member state pressure in two particularly contentious moments when during the 1970s and early 1980s developing countries forcefully called for a more equal international economic order and when in the 1990s the United States and other wealthy countries demanded international organizations adopt neoliberal economic reforms In analyzing these two periods Chorev demonstrates how strategic maneuvering made it possible for a vulnerable bureaucracy to preserve a relatively autonomous agenda promote a consistent set of values and protect its interests in the face of challenges from developing and developed countries alike New Worlds, Ancient Texts Anthony Grafton,1995-03-15

Describing an era of exploration during the Renaissance that went far beyond geographic bounds this book shows how the evidence of the New World shook the foundations of the old upsetting the authority of the ancient texts that had guided Europeans so far afield Textual Imitation: Making and Seeing in Literature J. Hart,2012-10-30 Textual Imitation offers a new critique of the space between fiction and truth poetry and philosophy In a nimble yet startlingly wide ranging argument esteemed scholar Jonathan Hart argues that recognition and misrecognition are the keys to understanding texts and contexts from the Old World to the New World Events That Formed the Modern World Frank W. Thackeray,John E.

Findling,2012-05-31 This comprehensive five volume set contains readable essays that describe and interpret the most important global events since the European Renaissance some accompanied by related document excerpts and primary source materials What were the effects of the Age of Exploration on today s ethnic groups and social structure How did the development of moveable type pave the way for Facebook and Twitter Why is the Reformation so critical for understanding today s religious controversies This set will help readers answer these questions by exploring the most significant historical events of the modern world This five volume set covers times from the Renaissance to the present Each volume focuses on a specific historic period and examines 12 events within those time frames that changed the world Each entry provides an introduction that lays out factual material in a chronological manner an in depth essay interpreting the event s significance and an annotated bibliography of the most important current works on the topic Select entries are followed by primary sources pertaining to the event under consideration such as diary entries Targeted to both general readers as well as entry level university students this book also directly supports high school and undergraduate curricula allowing students to identify and contextualize events in order to think critically about their causes aftermath and legacy Journal of the
