Memoirs A Political Autobiography:

Political Memoir George W. Egerton, 1994 Wesley Wark and John Naylor analyse the proliferation of intelligence memoirs and government efforts to protect official secrets from the revelations of the candid memoirist The principal findings reached by the contributors in their study of this problematic but influential genre are set out by the editor in the concluding chapter

Memoirs, a Political Autobiography Jyoti Basu, 1999 Memoirs Of One Of The Leading Figures In Communist Movement In Westbanga And India Political Autobiographies and Memoirs in Antiquity Gabriele Marasco, 2015-11-24 Ancient autobiography has been the object of several studies and meetings However these have focused chiefly on the philosophical and literary aspects This book aims to examine the development of political autobiography and memoirs in the Greek and Roman world stressing instead the relation of a single work with the traditions of the genre and also the influence of the respective aims of the authors on the composition of autobiographies At times these works were written as a means of propaganda in a political struggle or to defend a past action and often to furnish material to historians Nonetheless they still preserve the personal viewpoint and voice of the protagonists in all their vividness even if distorted by the aim of defending their record Political Autobiographies and Memoirs in Antiquity will be a highly valuable and useful reference tool for both scholars and students of Greek and Roman history and literature A Memoir of the New Left Charles Atkinson Haynie, 2009 In Charles Haynie s autobiography we get a rare look into the development of a great social movement through the quietly dramatic experiences of a rank and file member of that movement This is valuable social history but more important Charles Haynie s life is an inspiration for a new generation Howard Zinn Charles Haynie s life as an activist and organizer began while he was a graduate student at Cornell University Young fiercely intelligent and spirited Haynie had a political awakening during the early antinuclear movement in the late 1950s It was the beginning of a long career of tireless fighting for social justice a career that Haynie himself compellingly describes in A Memoir of the New Left From 1963 to 1965 Haynie was field director for a voter registration project in Tennessee In 1967 he worked with Massachusetts Political Action for Peace as an organizer of antiwar delegations in all twelve congressional districts of the state Haynie also ran for a Buffalo Common Council seat in 1979 and helped organize the Buffalo Unity Day rally to ease racial tensions During his most intense period of political activism Haynie helped organize participated in and was arrested during the Freedom Rides in which scores of civil rights protesters rode buses throughout the segregated South Later he participated in a variety of intentional communities designed to educate and support oppressed minorities in rural and urban areas He died in 2001 Unlike other histories of the American left which tend to celebrate famous personalities Haynie s memoir focuses on how ordinary citizens become politicized In the process this account raises questions about the nature of democracy and how political change occurs Written in an engaging reflective often humorous style Haynie examines how his political awakening both disrupted and enriched his personal life Aeron Haynie the daughter of Charles Haynie is associate professor of English at the University of Wisconsin Green Bay She is the coeditor with Pamela Gilbert and Marlene Tromp of Mary Elizabeth Braddon in Context and the coeditor with Regan Gurung and Nancy Chick of Exploring Signature Pedagogies Timothy S Miller lives in Dallas Texas with his wife and daughter He s been a ranch hand waiter contract driver professional clown and spent ten years in global wealth management Douglas Dowd was a longtime professor at Cornell University before his retirement An economic historian and political activist his most recent books include Capitalism and Its Economics A Critical History and Understanding Capitalism Critical Analysis from Karl Marx to Amartya Sen

Political Autobiographies and Memoirs in Antiquity Gabriele Marasco,2011-09-23 Through the examination of political autobiographies and memoirs some preserved in their entirety others known only from fragments this book offers a fascinating picture of the way characters who stand out in history saw and represented themselves and their own political actions

Political Memoirs Aurel Kolnai,1999-01-01 Ranked by many scholars as one of the most important moral philosophers of the twentieth century Aurel Kolnai has been inexplicably neglected in this country until quite recently He is best known for his works of political philosophy recently published under the title The Utopian Mind A Critical Study in Moral and Political Philosophy Here for the first time ever in English is Kolnai s magnum opus his Political Memoirs superbly annotated and edited by Francesca Murphy of the University of Aberdeen Scotland The memoirs recount the author s life from his childhood in the turn of the century Austro Hungarian Empire to his education in Germany and his early professional life in prewar Vienna It was in these formative years that he converted from Judaism to Roman Catholicism and began his career as a writer and philosopher The narrative continues through his years in exile in the United States and Canada where he lived before ultimately settling in Great Britain and being granted citizenship in 1955

A Political Biography of Eliza Haywood Kathryn R King,2015-10-06 While under arrest in 1750 on suspicion of producing a seditious pamphlet Eliza Haywood insisted she never wrote any thing in a political way This study of the life and works the first full length biography of Haywood in nearly a century takes the measure of her duplicity

Life Writing and Translation Mukul Chaturvedi,2025-08-15 The steady rise of auto biographical narrations across various Indian languages including English and translations into English as different forms of life writing marks a moment of social and political ferment This book aims to explore the expansive field of life writing both as a practice and a genre of literature and its intersections with translation Addressing the affinities between life writing and translation and the emancipatory possibilities it offers can shift the focus from individual texts to a space for encounter between languages identities and cultures Focusing on how life writing in India has emerged as a distinct literary and publishing phenomenon in recent times the volume traces the diversity and richness of the various bhasha traditions of life writing and looks at how they have gained recognition both in regional languages and in translation Traversing various languages the book examines memoirs of incarceration and exile narratives of marginality literary memoirs biography and oral songs of protest among others and engages with life writing s affective and political potential in documenting everyday lives and struggles and fostering solidarity among readers Exploring the ways life writing and translation are mutually implicated it deliberates on the ethical political and translational significance of life writing and seeks to spark academic interest and further research in this field This volume will serve as a rich resource for university students researchers and academics of literature history sociology cultural studies translation studies and comparative studies and those who are interested in South Asian literature

A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang, 2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research

A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte, 2018-03-01 A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty first century The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters diaries and online journals This ambitious book is rich in insight Chapters are structured around key subgenres themes texts and practitioners each featuring a guide to recommended further reading The volume s extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published

Situating Josephus' Life within Ancient Autobiography Davina Grojnowski, 2023-06-15 Davina Grojnowski examines Life the autobiographical text written by ancient Jewish historian Flavius Josephus from a literary studies perspective and in relation to genre theory In order to generate a framework of literary practices Josephus Life and other texts within Josephus literary spheres all associated with autobiography are the focus of a detailed literary analysis which compares the texts in terms of established features such as structure topoi and subject This methodological examination enables a better understanding of the literary boundaries of autobiography in antiquity and illustrates Josephus thought process during the composition of Life Grojnowski also offers a comparative study of autobiographical practices in Greek and Roman literature demonstrating the value of passive education supplementing what had been taught actively and its impact on authors and audiences As a result she provides insight into the development of literary practices in reaction to various forms of education and subsequently reflects on the religious self views of authors and audiences Simultaneously Grojnowski reacts to current discourses on ancient literary genres and demonstrates that ancient autobiography existed as a
