Olive Branch On The Family Tree The Arabs In Canada:

An Olive Branch on the Family Tree Baha Abu-Laban, 1980 Olive Branch on the Family Tree - the Arabs in Canada Canada. Multiculturalism Directorate, 1980 An Olive Branch on the Family Tree Baha Abu-Laban, 1980 Arabs in America Michael Suleiman, 2010-06-29 Setting the record straight about Arab American culture Identifying as Arab in Canada Houada Asal, 2020-10-11T00:00:00Z While Arabs now attract considerable attention from media the state and sociological studies their history in Canada remains little known Identifying as Arab in Canada begins to rectify this invisibilization by exploring the migration from Machrek the Middle East to Canada from the late 19th century through the 1970s Houada Asal breathes life into this migratory history and the people who made the journey and examines the public collective existence they created in Canada in order to understand both the identity Arabs have constructed for themselves here and the identity that has been constructed for them by the Canadian state Using archival research media analysis laws and statistics and a series of interviews Asal offers a thorough examination of the institutions these migrants and their descendants built and the various ways they expressed their identity and organized their religious social and political lives Identifying as Arab in Canada offers an impressively researched but accessibly written much needed glimpse into the long history of the Arab population in Canada Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Targeted Transnationals Jenna Hennebry, Bessma Momani, 2013-04-01 Following 9 11 the securitization of state practices and policies has chipped away at the citizenship and personal rights of all Canadians particularly those of Arab descent This book argues that in a securitized global context and through racialized immigration and security policies Arab Canadians have become targeted transnationals Negative media representations have further legitimized their homogenization and racialization With an eye to the implications for human rights multiculturalism and integration the contributors to this book draw on qualitative interviews policy and media analysis to examine state practices towards and media representations of Arab Canadians They also present voices that counter the dominant discourse and trace forms of community resistance to the racialization of Arab Canadians Targeted Transnationals concludes with reflections on the challenges to integration and the relevance of multiculturalism in the context of globalization and transnationalism

The Arab world Abu-Laban,McIrvin Abu-Laban,2021-11-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora ,2009-01-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana,2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf Multiculturalism Question Jack Jedwab,2016-03-14 Canada s policy of multiculturalism has been the object of ongoing debate since it was first introduced in 1971 Decades later Canadians still seem uncertain about the meaning of multiculturalism Detractors insist that government has not succeeded in discouraging immigrants and their descendants from preserving their cultures of origin undercutting a necessary identification with Canada while supporters argue that immigrant groups abilities to influence their adjustments to Canada has strengthened their sense of belonging Beyond what often seems to be a polarized debate is a broad spectrum of opinion around multiculturalism in Canada and what it means to be Canadian The Multiculturalism Question analyzes the policy ideology and message of multiculturalism Several of Canada s leading thinkers provide valuable insights into a crucial debate that will inevitably continue well into the future Muslim Families in North America Earle H. Waugh,Sharon Abu-Laban,Regula Qureshi,1991 This collection explores issues of adaptation between Islam and North American culture including the dynamics of the family strategies for coping the influence of an alien environment upon believers and the role of women in an Islamic setting Ideological Battlegrounds Dana L. Solomon, 2018-12-04 Can entertainment challenge divisive ideologies Can we use theater film games novels and stories disarm the ideologies of fear Ideological Battlegrounds Entertainment to Disarm Divisive Propaganda introduces and develops Ideologically Challenging Entertainment ICE to challenge us versus them narratives ICE counters polarizing perspectives by embracing multiple valid viewpoints without losing sight of facts Additionally this book explores the first ICE production Two Merchants The Merchant of Venice adapted to challenge ideologies related to the Arab Israeli Conflict A mixed methods study of audience responses to this production showed that a significant number of audience members reconsidered their views not only about the Arab Israeli conflict but also about ideological divisions that were more personally relevant Ideological Battlegrounds is unique both in its conceptualization of entertainment as a means to address local and global conflicts and in its provision of evidence for the power of performance as a tool for confronting and influencing ideological change This book offers a new approach to bridging dangerous ideological chasms that without significant intervention will only continue to worsen The Muslim Community in North America Earle H. Waugh, Baha Abu-Laban, Regula Qureshi, 1983 This book consists of fifteen studies addressed to the relatively recent phenomenon of Muslims residing in North America their adaptation to an often alien way of life as well as the problem the larger North American community faces in not only accepting but also benefiting from the existence of this new group Most of the papers were presented at a symposium on Islam in North America held at the University of Alberta from May 27 to 31 1980 In this book the studies are grouped under six major headings Islam and the Modern World Muslims in North America Dynamics of Growth Muslim Immigrant Communities Identity and Adaptation Islam and the Educational Establishment Indigenous Muslims and Statements from within the Tradition It is an excellent introduction to a subject of great interest fraught with problems and needing further in depth research Catalog of the Gerald K. Stone Collection of Judaica Gerald K. Stone, 2021-01-05 Gerald K Stone has collected books about Canadian Jewry since the early 1980s This volume is a descriptive catalog of his Judaica collection comprising nearly 6 000 paper or electronic documentary resources in English French Yiddish and Hebrew Logically organized indexed and selectively annotated the catalog is broad in scope covering Jewish Canadian history biography religion literature the Holocaust antisemitism Israel and the Middle East and more An introduction by Richard Menkis discusses the significance of the Catalog and collecting for the study of the Jewish experience in Canada An informative bibliographical resource this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Canadian and North American Jewish studies Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society Association for Canadian Studies, 1990 Far more than a bibliographic account of the major works in Canadian Studies Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society provides a broad examination of the state of this growing field of study Each chapter stresses the importance of the interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches which have come to characterize Canadian Studies Also in an unprecedented collaborative effort almost all the chapters are jointly authored by anglophone and francophone scholars The works on Quebec and the francophone community respect the distinct nature of this facet of Canada As stated in the introduction this work is a primer in the field and a guide to further pursuits Its users will welcome it as a friendly introduction to an exciting country

Personal Policy Making Eliezer Tauber,2002-02-28 Without the Canadian mediation between the two world blocs in 1947 UN resolution 181 II to partition Palestine would likely have failed to secure the two thirds majority necessary for adoption by the General Assembly In fact the Canadians were among the main initiators of the partition plan and the establishment of a Jewish state Tauber demonstrates that this Canadian involvement was not an official government policy but rather a private initiative of some high ranking Canadian foreign service officials who believed partition to be the only practicable solution for the Palestine question Thus due to humanitarian concerns these officials followed an independent policy against the express will of their prime minister The results would forever change the history of the Middle East Tauber explores this little known aspect of Canadian foreign policy Canada s under secretary of state for external affairs Lester Pearson assisted by other foreign service officials decided on his own accord which policy to follow in this instance Based upon many original Canadian British American UN and Israeli documents this study shows that Pearson s motivation was not the desire to make Canada a middle power involved in international affairs as some scholars of Canadian international affairs have previously argued Instead the impact of the Holocaust drove these officials to break ranks with their superiors at home to support the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine

A History of Islamic Schooling in North America Nadeem A. Memon,2019-09-24 This insightful text challenges popular belief that faith based Islamic schools isolate Muslim learners impose dogmatic religious views and disregard academic excellence This book attempts to paint a starkly different picture Grounded in the premise that not all Islamic schools are the same the historical narratives illustrate varied visions and approaches to Islamic schooling that showcase a richness of educational thought and aspiration A History of Islamic Schooling in North America traces the growth and evolution of elementary and secondary private Islamic schools in Canada and the United States Intersecting narratives between schools established by indigenous African American Muslims as early as the 1930s with those established by immigrant Muslim communities in the 1970s demonstrate how and why Islamic Education is in a constant ongoing process of evolution renewal and adaptation Drawing on the voices perspectives and narratives of pioneers and visionaries who established the earliest Islamic schools chapters articulate why Islamic schools were established what distinguishes them from one another and why they continue to be important This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics teaching professionals in the fields of Islamic education religious studies multicultural education curriculum studies and faith based teacher education research on Middle Eastern diasporas the Routledge Handbook on Middle Eastern Diasporas sheds light on diverse approaches to investigating diaspora groups in different national contexts Asking how diasporans forge connections and means of belonging the analyses provided turn the reader's gaze to the multiple forms of belonging to both peoples and places Rather than seeing diasporans as marginalised groups of people longing to return to a homeland analyses in this volume demonstrate that Middle East diasporans like other diasporas and citizens alike are people who respond to major social change and transformations Those we count as Middle Eastern diasporans both in the region and beyond contribute to transnational social spaces and new forms of cultural expressions Chapters included cover how diasporas have been formed the ways that diasporans make and remake homes the expressive terrains where diasporas are contested how class livelihoods and mobility inflect diasporic practices the emergence of diasporic sensibilities and finally scholarship that draws our attention to the plurilocality of Middle Eastern diasporas Offering a rich compilation of case studies this book will appeal to students of Middle Eastern Studies International Relations and Sociology as well as being of interest to policymakers government departments and NGOs

The Handbook of Ethnic Media in Canada Daniel Ahadi, Sherry S. Yu, Ahmed Al-Rawi, 2023-12-15 Ethnic minority groups in Canada have set up their own communication infrastructure that has evolved over time from the analog to the digital age and continues to remain relevant across generations Offering a reassessment of contemporary media outlets The Handbook of Ethnic Media in Canada asks how ethnic media have changed why they continue to be relevant and what impact this media sector has on ethnocultural communities as well as broader society Building on past studies that highlight particular functions of ethnic media publishing information that is vital to settlement and civic engagement and providing an alternative to mainstream media among others this volume generates insights on new dynamics of the ethnic media sector that are prevalent in the digital age Contributors re-examine theoretical and methodological approaches to ethnic media research explore the practices of ethnic media along cultural linguistic and religious lines and interrogate the policies that affect ethnic media production and consumption At its core the question of how Canadians engage with ethnic media is a question about what this media sector means for the sociocultural economic and political integration of Canadians both majority and minority and Canada's race relations The Handbook of Ethnic Media in Canada provides a rich resource for anyone concerned about the role media plays in the complex relationship between ethnicity race belonging and marginality
