Peace Spirituality for Peace Makers Helder Camara (Dom), Pax Christi International, 1983      The Peacemaker's Path
Jerry Zehr, 2021-08-24 Now more than ever people are painfully divided politically religiously and culturally And yet there is a commonality in our faith traditions that can help us turn away from polarization and create a greater sense of community in which our differences are honored The Peacemaker's Path brings together wisdom from the world's major religious traditions including Bah Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Jainism Judaism Native American spiritualities Sikhism Taoism and Zoroastrianism showing that we have much more in common than what divides us Through daily readings that explore the tenets teachings writings and prayers of these diverse faith traditions you will gain new insight understanding and connection with people from different religious backgrounds Each day offers a reflection scripture passages from the world's religions questions to contemplate a call to action and a closing prayer May we realize the tremendous importance of building bridges of peace in our own lives our communities and our world Loving our friends is easy loving the other will bring shalom      Hauerwas the Peacemaker? Nathan Scot Hosler, 2020-04-14 War has been abolished in Christ is a strong claim by theologian Stanley Hauerwas Wars however continue to rage and historic numbers of people are displaced globally Despite critics assessments that Hauerwas contributes to Christians disengaging his work provides certain tools for the work of peacebuilding In this work Hauerwas's contribution to peacemaking as a part of his ecclesiology and broader theological ethical work will be assessed Hauerwas's peacemaking within his work stands within the context of ecclesiology and related themes of witness and Christology The possibilities of his work on peacemaking to extend to peacebuilding practice and foreign policy formation are explored and a critique is leveled regarding his engagement with racial justice Additionally certain practices of reading in theology and training in this language are extrapolated to engage the task of policy formation and analysis in contexts where religion is an active factor This study concludes that Hauerwas's theological ethics of peacemaking makes a valuable contribution but must be extended into specific practices      Peacemakers in Action:

Volume 1 Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding, 2007-01-08 Across the globe there are more than 50 armed conflicts many of which are being perpetrated in the name of religion In these zones of violence there are brave men and women who motivated by their religious beliefs are working to create and sustain peace and reconciliation Yet their stories are unknown This book explores the conflicts and the stories of 15 remarkable individuals identified and studied by the Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding from regions as far flung as West Papua Indonesia the Middle East Northern Ireland Nigeria El Salvador and South Africa The book also captures important lessons learned when these peacemakers convened in Amman Jordan for the 2004 Peacemakers in Action Retreat and discussed their best techniques and greatest obstacles in creating peace on the ground Peacemakers in Action provides guidance to students of religion and future peacemakers      Thomas Merton Peacemaker Dear, John, 2015-04-30      Peacemakers in Action: Volume 2 Joyce S.

Dubensky,2016-10-03 Every day men and women risk their lives to stop violence in religiously charged conflicts around the world You may not know their names but you should Peacemakers in Action Volume 2 provides a window into the triumphs risks failures and lessons learned of eight remarkable religiously motivated peacemakers including A Methodist bishop in the Democratic Republic of the Congo who confronts armed warlords on his front lawn A Christian who travels to Syria to coordinate medical aid and rebuild postwar communities A Muslim woman not knowing how Kabul s imams will react arrives to train them on how to treat women respectfully Volume 2 offers students of religious and grassroots peacebuilding informative techniques and methods for organizing community action establishing trust in conflict and instilling hope amid turmoil The book also features updates of case studies presented in Volume 1 Peacemakers in Action David Little,2007 Peacemakers in Action explores the conflicts and the stories of 15 individuals identified by the Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding from regions as far flung as West Papua Indonesia the Middle East Northern Ireland Nigeria El Salvador and South Africa Strangers on the Shore Albert B. Randall,2006 While the world s major religions differ in their beliefs they share common spiritual values Although Christians and Muslims disagree about the divinity of Jesus the New Testament and the Qur an affirm a common set of spiritual virtues that are also found in Hinduism and Buddhism For Christians the fundamental spiritual virtues are most memorably stated in the Beatitudes that begin the Sermon on the Mount Strangers on the Shore explores the virtues in the Beatitudes as they are expressed in the New Testament the Muslim Qur an the Hindu Bhagavad Gita and the writings and traditions of Buddhism Blessed Peacemakers Kerry Walters,Robin Jarrell,2013-02-12 These are the stories of 365 women men and children worldwide who have acted as peacemakers during the last 2500 years They include human rights and antiwar activists scientists and artists educators and scholars songwriters and poets film directors and authors diplomats and economists environmentalists and mystics prophets and policymakers All sacrificed for the dream of peace some even died for it Blessed Are the Peacemakers Daniel L. Buttry, In the pages of this book you will meet more than 100 heroes but most of them are not the kind of heroes our culture celebrates for muscle beauty and wealth These are peacemakers They circle the planet A few are famous like Gandhi and Bono of U2 But most of them you will discover for the first time in these stories Watch out Reading about their lives may inspire you to step up into their courageous circle Blessed Are the Peacemakers Lisa Sowle Cahill,2019-03-02 This book is a contribution to the Christian ethics of war and peace It advances peacebuilding as a needed challenge to and expansion of the traditional framework of just war theory and pacifism It builds on a critical reading of historical landmarks from the Bible through Augustine Aquinas the Reformers Christian peace movements and key modern figures like Dietrich Bonhoeffer Reinhold Niebuhr and recent popes Similar to just war theory peacebuilding is committed to social change and social justice but includes some theorists and practitioners who accept the use of force in extreme cases of self defense or humanitarian intervention Unlike just war theorists they do not see the justification of war as part of the Christian mission Unlike traditional pacifists they do see social change as necessary and possible and as such requiring Christian participation in public efforts Cahill argues that transformative Christian social participation is demanded by the gospel and the example of Jesus and can produce the avoidance resolution or reduction of conflicts And yet obstacles are significant and expectations must be realistic Decisions to use armed force against injustice even when they meet the criteria of just war will be ambiguous and tragic from a Christian perspective Regarding war and peace the focus of Christian theology ethics and practice should not be on justifying war but on practical and hopeful interreligious peacebuilding Interreligious

Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada,2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria The Peacemakers Hiram Wallace Hayes,1909

Blessed Are the Peacemakers Helen Paynter, 2023-11-07 This volume in Biblical Theology for Life series dives deeply into the topic of human violence Before exploring what the Bible says about violence Old Testament scholar Helen Paynter sets out the contours for the study ahead by addressing the various definitions of violence and the theories of its origins prevalence and purpose What is violence Is there such a thing as natural violence Is violence a human or social construct or can we describe natural phenomena as violent How does the concept of violence relate to the concept of evil Violence is everywhere is it escapable How do we resist violence Having queued up the questions Paynter takes us to the Bible for answers Starting with the creation narratives in Genesis considered in comparison with the ancient Near Eastern myths and moving to the conquest of Canaan the most problematic of biblical narratives she investigates how these deep myths speak to the origins of human violence and its consequences The prevalence of violence through biblical history is inescapable Scripture reveals the hydra like nature of human violence investigating types of violence including but not limited to structural violence verbal violence sexual violence violence as public political act racialised violence including othering Through the voices of the prophets and then in the teaching of Jesus the Bible reveals that the seeds of violence exist within every human heart Even though we see evidence of resistance movements in the Bible such as the responses to attempted genocide in Exodus and Esther it is only on the cross that an absorption of violence by God takes place a defeat of violence by self sacrifice Along the way Paynter considers other relevant biblical themes including the apocalypse crushing the serpent's head and the concept of divine vengeance culminating in the resurrected Christ's lack of vengeance against those who did him to death In light of the New Testament we will consider how the first Christians responded to the structural violence of slavery and patriarchy and how they began to apply Jesus redemptive non vengeful theology to their own day The book concludes by discussing of what this means for Christians today For many of us who live without routine encounters with or threats of violence we must consider our responsibility in a world where our experience is the exception With attention to the multi headed hydra that is violence and the concealed structures of violence in our own Western society Paynter challenges readers to consider their own perhaps inherited privilege and complicity The question of how we regard others both as individuals and as societies is a deeply relevant and urgent one for the church The church can and should be a wholly non othering body So what implications does this have for the church and for example Black Lives Matter or the rampant xenophobia in our society or immigration and global migration issues How do we resist evil What does it mean to turn the other cheek when the cheek that has been slapped is not our own How do we resist the monster without becoming the monster
