Empire of the Senses David Howes, 2021-08-05 With groundbreaking contributions by Marshall McLuhan, Oliver Sacks, Italo Calvino and Alain Corbin among others, Empire of the Senses overturns linguistic and textual models of interpretation and places sensory experience at the forefront of cultural analysis. The senses are gateways of knowledge, instruments of power, sources of pleasure and pain, and they are subject to dramatically different constructions in different societies and periods. Empire of the Senses charts the new terrains opened up by the sensual revolution in scholarship as it takes the reader into the sensory worlds of the medieval witch and the postmodern mall, a Japanese tea ceremony and a Boston shelter for the homeless. This compelling revisioning of history and cultural studies sparkles with wit and insight and is destined to become a landmark in the field.

The Filipino Migration Experience Mina Roces, 2021-10-15 Winner of the New South Wales Premier's History Awards General History Prize 2022. The Filipino Migration Experience introduces a new dimension to the usual depiction of migrants as disenfranchised workers or marginal ethnic groups. Mina Roces suggests alternative ways of conceptualizing Filipino migrants as critics of the family and cultural constructions of sexuality, as consumers and investors, as philanthropists, as activists and as historians. They have been able to transform fundamental social institutions and well-entrenched traditional norms as well as alter the business economic and cultural landscapes of both the homeland and the host countries to which they have migrated Mina Roces tells the story of the Filipino migration experience from the perspective of the migrants themselves drawing on underused primary sources from the migrant archives and more than seventy interviews Bringing together migration studies and Filipina o x American studies The Filipino Migration Experience explores how these migrants have profoundly reshaped the status quo State and Finance in the Philippines, 1898-1941 Yoshiko Nagano,2015-04-20 During the First World War ill advised steps by colonial officials in the Philippines who were responsible for the colony s finances created a crisis which lasted from 1919 until 1922 The circumstances shook the foundations of the American colonial state and contributed to Manuel L Quezon s successful effort to replace Sergio Osme a as leader of the politically dominant Nacionalista Party These events have generally been blamed on a corruption scandal at the Philippine National Bank which had been established in 1916 as a multi purpose semi governmental agency whose purpose was to provide loans for the agricultural export industry to do business as a commercial bank to issue bank notes and to serve as a depository for government funds Based on detailed archival research Yoshiko Nagano argues that the crisis in fact resulted from mismanagement of currency reserves and irregularities in foreign exchange operations by American officials and that the notions of a corruption scandal arose from a colonial discourse that masked problems within the banking and currency systems and the U S colonial administration Her analysis of this episode provides a fresh perspective on the political economy of the Philippines under American rule and suggests a need for further scrutiny of historical accounts written on the basis of reports by colonial officials War in the Philippines and Life and Glorious Deeds of Admiral Dewey Joseph L. Stickney,1899 Idology in Transcultural Perspective Aoyagi Hiroshi,Patrick W. Galbraith,Mateja Kovacic,2021-12-10 This edited volume expands on what Aoyagi Hiroshi intended in the first decade of the new millennium to establish as a subfield of symbolic anthropology called ideology It brings together case studies of popular idolatry in Japan but goes further to provide a transcultural perspective to guide anthropological investigations in different places and times In proposing an integrated paradigm for the growing body of literature on idols the volume redirects recurrent questions to more fundamental points of sociocultural inquiry Contributions from scholars conducting ethnographic fieldwork as well as those engaged in theoretical and historical analyses facilitate comparative reading and critical thought Exceeding a narrow focus on human idols the chapters shed new light on virtual idols and YouTubers cartoon characters and voices robot idols and cybernetic systems Science and technology studies thus comes together with theories of animation and anthropological work on life in more than human worlds Psychology in Southeast Asia Grant Rich,Jas Laile Jaafar,David Barron,2020-04-16 Despite diverse rich cultural traditions and abundant economic opportunity there has been a paucity of research on psychology in Southeast Asia This book aims to fill that gap with a series of well written theoretical and empirical chapters by PhD psychologists in SE Asia along with respected international colleagues and co authors from around the globe In particular this book focuses upon critical sociocultural
