Remembering Jews in Maghrebi and Middle Eastern Media Brahim El Guabli, Mostafa Hussein, 2024-09-10 This volume examines the cultural legacy of Jewish emigration from the Maghreb and the Middle East in the years following 1948 Drawing on the remarkable cinematic and literary output of the last twenty years this collection posits loss as a new conceptual framework in which to understand Jewish Muslim relations Previous studies of Jewish emigration have followed the mass departure of Jews but the contributors to this book choose to remain behind and trace the contours of Jewish absence in Maghrebi and Middle Eastern societies Attuned to loss in this way the cultural memories of Jewish Muslim life transcend the narratives of turmoil taboo and nostalgia that have dominated Muslim and prevalent scholarly perspectives on Jewish emigration Read as a whole the collection affords an uncommon opportunity to mourn and heal through a nuanced reckoning with the absence of Jews from communities in which they had lived for millennia Its wide geographic reach and interdisciplinary nature will speak both to scholars and lay readers in Amazigh studies Arabic studies Middle Eastern studies Jewish studies memory studies and a host of other disciplines In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume are Iskandar Ahmad Abdalla Abdelkader Aoudjit Iker Hepkaner Sarah Irving Stephanie Kraver Lital Levy Nadia Sabri and Lior B Sternfeld

Gerd Sebald, Jatin Wagle, 2015-11-19 Public debates over the last two decades about social memories about how as societies we remember make sense of and even imagine and invent our collective pasts suggest that grand narratives have been abandoned for numerous little stories that contest the unified visions of the past But while focusing on the diversity of social remembering these fragmentary accounts have also revealed the fault lines within the theoretical terrain of memory studies This critical anthology seeks to bridge these rifts and breaks within the contemporary theoretical landscape by addressing the pressing issues of social differentiation and forgetting as also the relatively unexplored futuristic aspect of social memories Arranged in four thematic sections which focus on the concepts temporalities functions and contexts of social memories this book includes essays that range across disciplines and present a variety of theoretical approaches from phenomenological sociology and systems theory to biography research and post colonialism Dwellers of Memory Pilar Riaño Alcalá, 2006 Dwellers of Memory is an ethnographic study of how urban youth in Colombia came to be at the intersection of multiple forms of political drug related and territorial violence in a country undergoing forty years of internal armed conflict It examines the ways in which youth in the city of Medellín reconfigure their lives and cultural worlds in the face of widespread violence This violence has transgressed familiar boundaries and destroyed basic social supports and networks of trust This volume attempts to map and understand its patterns and flows The author explores how Medellín s youth locate themselves and make sense of violence through contradictory and shifting memory practices The violence has not completely taken over their cultural worlds or their subjectivities Practices of remembering and forgetting are key methods by which these youth rework their identities and make sense of the impact of violence on their lives While the experience of violence is rooted in urban space and urban youth the memory dwellers use a sense of place oral histories of death and narratives of fear as survival strategies for inhabiting violent neighborhoods The book also examines fissures in memory the contradictory constructions of young people s subjective selves and practices of gendered violence and terror All have and continue to pose risks to the historical memory and cultural survival of the residents of Medellín Dwellers of Memory offers an alternative ethnographic approach to the study of memory and violence one that calls into question whether the role of the ethnographer of violence is to be a mere witness of terror or to oppose it by writing against it It will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists and students of ethnography Pilar Riao Alcal is assistant professor School of Social Work and Family Studies University of British Columbia Canada

Memory in Science for Society Robert Logie, Nelson Cowan, Susan Gathercole, Randall Engle, Zhisheng Wen, 2023-03-12 Memory is essential for every day life The understanding and study of memory has continued to grow over the years thanks to well controlled laboratory studies and theory development However major challenges arise when attempting to apply theories of memory function to practical problems in society A theory might be robust in explaining experimental data but fail to capture all that is important when taken out of the lab The good news is that the application of memory in science to challenges in society is rapidly expanding and Memory in Science for Society bridges that gap Inspired by the synergy between theory and application in memory research leading international researchers share their passion for combining memory in science with applications of that science to a wide range of challenges in society Chapters demonstrate how that scientific passion has addressed challenges in education life attainment second language learning remembering life events and faces of strangers future planning and decision making lifespan cognitive development and age related cognitive decline following instructions and assessment and rehabilitation of cognitive impairment following brain damage Written and edited by the leading researchers in the field the book will be an important and influential addition to the memory literature providing a new and comprehensive focus on the connection between theory and practice in memory and society

Markers of Allusion in Archaic Greek Poetry Thomas J. Nelson, 2023-05-25 Challenging many established narratives of literary history this book investigates how the earliest known Greek poets seventh to fifth centuries BCE signposted their debts to their predecessors and prior traditions placing markers in their works for audiences to recognise much like the Easter eggs of modern cinema Within antiquity such signposting has often been considered the preserve of later literary cultures closely linked with the development of libraries literacy and writing In this wide ranging new study Thomas Nelson shows that these devices were already deeply ingrained in oral archaic Greek poetry deconstructing the artificial boundary between a supposedly primal archaic literature and a supposedly sophisticated book culture of Hellenistic Alexandria and Rome In three interlocking case studies he highlights how poets from Homer to Pindar employed the language of hearsay memory and time to index their allusive relationships as they variously embraced reworked and challenged their inherited tradition Life of the Transcendental Ego Edward S. heteronomy This study begins by investigating how a number of Anglo Irish writers publicised their characters private versions of truth thereby illustrating what they perceived to be the space of Irishness The book then focuses on Friel s techniques of sharing his character s private views to demonstrate how he adopted and adapted these practices in his own oeuvre As the characters superficial inarticulateness and their vivid inner selves are repeatedly juxtaposed in Friel s texts his oeuvre quintessentially displays a great unease with the concepts of communication and absolute truth
