Mission Theology Today James J. Stamoolis,2001-11-02 The purpose of the ASM Series is to publish without regard for disciplinary national or denominational boundaries scholarly works of high quality and wide interest on missiological themes from the entire spectrum of scholarly pursuits e g theology history anthropology sociology linguistics health education art political science economics and development to articulate but a partial list Always the focus will be on Christian mission By mission in this context is meant a cross cultural passage over the boundary between faith in Jesus Christ and its absence In this understanding of mission the basic functions of Christian proclamation dialogue witness service fellowship worship and nurture are of special concern How does the transition from one cultural context to another influence the shape and interaction of these dynamic functions Missiologists know that they need the other disciplines And other disciplines we dare to suggest need missiology perhaps more than they sometimes realize Neither the insider's nor the outsider's view is complete in itself The world Christian mission has through two millennia amassed a rich and well documented body of experience to share with other disciplines Interaction will be the hallmark of this Series It desires to be a channel for talking to one another instead of about one another Secular scholars and church related missiologists have too long engaged in a sterile venting of feelings about one another often lacking in full evidence Ignorance of and indifference to one another's work has been no less harmful to good scholarship The promotion of scholarly dialogue among missiologists may at times involve the publication of views and positions that other missiologists cannot accept and with which members of the Editorial Committee do not agree The manuscripts published reflect the opinions of their authors and are not meant to represent the position of the American Society of Missiology or the Editorial Committee of the ASM Series We express our warm thanks to various mission agencies whose financial contributions enabled leaders of vision in the ASM to launch this new venture The future of the ASM series will we feel sure fully justify their confidence and support William J Danker Chairperson ASM Series Editorial Committee with the missionary efforts of the Jesuits in China and ending with the Protestant missions in the 19th century These two milestone encounters brought Western sciences to local Chinese scholars with great success in shaping modern Chinese science Elman studies the interaction between Western and Chinese sciences through philological research and evidence and treats the two encounters not as separate events but as a continuum of creative exchange of scientific knowledge and discourse
