Women's Issues at IFLA: Equality, Gender and Information on Agenda Leena Siitonen,2015-03-30 No detailed description available for Women s Issues at IFLA Equality Gender and Information on Agenda Education, Training and the Future of Work II Mike Flude,Sandy Sieminski,2013-10-18 This volume focuses on the recent changes in education and training policy mainly in the UK The considerable developments of past years and the ways in which they have affected both education and training are examined The contributors analyse the methods by which we educate our workforce and look closely at the kind of training now offered to those in work The chapters in this reader cover the role of the state how economic factors influence education national education and training policy the political factor Other countries including Germany are looked at and there is reflection on the ways in which the new industry led qualifications such as NVQs have fared There is careful analysis as to how much the political climate of the time influenced developments There is thorough research to back up claims made throughout the book and many practical examples are referred to What emerges is an incisive examination of current trends in education and the workplace Communication for Work Carol Carysforth,1998 This text covers the full range of communication skills necessary for students to flourish on major courses at level 2 and beyond Each unit contains two weeks work and focuses on a different communication theme Spelling grammar and the use of appropriate vocabulary are also featured Youth Unemployment and Joblessness Alfredo Sánchez-Castañeda,Francesca Sperotti,2013-01-16 Youth unemployment and joblessness are major issues for national governments and international organizations across the globe In this respect the school to work transition challenge is increasingly raising the interest of companies education and training institutions families and young people themselves who are often involved in precarious and illegal forms of employment in many countries of the world In the field of industrial and labour relations the school to work perspective seems particularly suitable for policy formulation and assessment the broad and complex range of tools strategies and policies for enabling youth training and their access to the labour market is deserving of a closer analysis at an international level in a time when jobless recovery threatens national economies The ADAPT LABOUR STUDIES BOOK SERIES has in connection been set up with a view to achieving a better understanding of the causes consequences and possible responses to the issue in a global dimension through an interdisciplinary and comparative approach

Competence-based Vocational and Professional Education Martin Mulder,2016-09-08 This book presents a comprehensive overview of extant literature on competence based vocational and professional education since the introduction of the competence concept in the 1950s To structure the field the book distinguishes between three approaches to defining competence based on 1 functional behaviourism 2 integrated occupationalism and 3 situated professionalism It also distinguishes between two ways of operationalizing competence 1 behaviour oriented generic and 2 task oriented specific competence Lastly it identifies three kinds of competencies related to 1 specific activities 2 known jobs and 3 the unknown future Competence for the unknown future must receive more attention as our world is rapidly evolving and there are many global challenges which call for innovation and a profound transformation of policies and practices The book presents a range of different approaches to competence based education and demonstrates that competencebased education is a worldwide innovation which is institutionalized in various ways It presents the major theories and policies specific components of educational systems such as recognition accreditation modelling and assessment and developments in discipline oriented and transversal competence domains The book concludes by synthesizing the different perspectives with the intention to contribute to further improving vocational and professional education policy and practice Joao Santos Deputy Head of Unit C5 Vocational Training and Adult Education Directorate General for Employment Social Affairs and Inclusion European Commission This comprehensive work on competence based education led by Martin Mulder provides an excellent and timely contribution to the current debate on a New Skills Agenda for Europe and the challenge of bridging the employment and education and training worlds closer together This book will influence our work aimed at improving the relevance of vocational education to support initial and continuing vocational education and training policy and practice aimed at strengthening the key competencies for the 21st century Prof Dr Reinhold Weiss Deputy President and Head of the Research Federal Institute for Vocational Education and Training BIBB Bonn Germany This book illustrates that the idea and concept of competence is not only a buzzword in educational debates but key to innovative pedagogical thinking as well as educational practice Prof Dr Johanna Lasonen College of Education University of South Florida Tampa USA Competence based Vocational and Professional Education is one of the most important multi disciplinary book in education and training This path breaking book offers a timely rich and global perspective on the field The book is a good resource for practitioners policymakers and researchers

Motor Industry Management ,2003-02 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Adult apprenticeships Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2012-05-17 The Department for Business Innovation and Skills works with the Skills Funding Agency the Agency and the National Apprenticeship Service the Service to deliver the Apprenticeship Programme Adult apprentices represented 325 500 or 71% of the 457 200 apprentices who started their apprenticeship in the 2010 11 academic year During the 2010 11 financial year the Department spent 451 million on adult apprenticeships The Programme has been a success more than quadrupling the number of adult apprenticeships in the four years to 2010 11 and the proportion of adult apprentices successfully completing their apprenticeship has also risen from around a third in 2004 05 to over three quarters in 2010 11 Further work however needs to be done to maximise its impacts The Department should improve its understanding of which apprenticeships offer the biggest returns The Service should give both employers and individuals better information about the benefits arising from different types of apprenticeship as well as about the quality of the many training providers The Service should do more to increase the number of employers offering apprenticeships and to increase the proportion of advanced skill level apprenticeships achieved moving England closer to the levels delivered in other European countries Importantly around one in five apprenticeships lasted for six months or less The Service accepts concern that apprenticeships lasting for such a short period are of no proper benefit to either individuals or employers The Service says it is tackling the problem but it needs to do more to guarantee the length and quality of training especially the off the job training apprentices receive
