Travelling Knowledges

Renate Eigenbrod, 2005-05-25 In the context of decolonization the boundary between an Aboriginal text and the analysis by a non Aboriginal outsider poses particular challenges often constructed as unbridgeable Eigenbrod argues that politically correct silence is not the answer but instead does a disservice to the literature that like all literature depends on being read taught and disseminated in various ways In Travelling Knowledges Eigenbrod suggests decolonizing strategies when approaching Aboriginal texts as an outsider and challenges conventional notions of expertise She concludes that literatures of colonized peoples have to be read ethically not only without colonial impositions of labels but also with the responsibility to read beyond the text or in Lee Maracle s words to become the architect of great social transformation Features the works of Jeannette Armstrong Okanagan Louise Halfe
