Buffalo Hide Processing Mira

Donnelly, AI, 2025-03-29 Buffalo Hide Processing explores the intricate relationship between Indigenous peoples and the American bison focusing on the sophisticated and sustainable technology of hide preparation It highlights how processing buffalo hides was not just a practical skill but a deeply cultural and spiritual practice The book reveals that the tanning process involving physical and chemical transformations produced a diverse range of vital products from clothing and shelter to tools and ceremonial objects The book adopts a multidisciplinary approach drawing on ethnographic accounts archaeological findings and historical records to present a holistic view It challenges conventional understandings of technology by showcasing Indigenous ecological knowledge and sustainable resource management Buffalo Hide Processing begins by establishing the historical context and then systematically details each step of hide preparation before exploring the diverse applications and cultural significance of the resulting materials The book emphasizes how the sophisticated methods employed by Indigenous communities reflect a profound understanding of both the environment and material culture The Making of a Postsecular Society Massimo Rosati,2016-03-03 Drawing on the thought of Durkheim this volume focuses on societal changes at the symbolic level to develop a new conceptualisation of the emergence of postsecular societies Neo Durkheimian categories are applied to the case of Turkey which in recent years has shifted from a strong Republican and Kemalist view of secularism to a more Anglo Saxon perspective Turkish society thus constitutes an interesting case that blurs modernist distinctions between the secular and the religious and which could be described as postsecular Presenting three symbolic case studies the enduring image of the founder of the Republic Atatürk the contested site of Ayasofia and the remembering and commemoration of the murdered journalist Hrant Dink The Making of a Postsecular Society analyses the cultural relationship that the modern Republic has always had with Europe considering the possible implications of the Turkish model of secularism for a specifically European self understanding of modernity Based on a rigorous construction of theoretical categories and on a close scrutiny of the common challenges confronting Europe and its Turkish neighbour long considered other with regard to the accommodation of religious difference this book sheds light on the possibilities for Europe to find new ways of arranging the relationship between the secular and the religious As such it will appeal to scholars of social theory the sociology of religion secularisation and religious difference and social change
