

The Earth, she cries
She weeps for her children
They tear her apart
They tear each other apart Forgotten ancient truths
We are not solitary
We are not separate
We are all connected by the web of love that binds us all binds us to each other binds us to Mother Earth What we do to the Earth is also done to ourselves
We are connected
We are one

Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke, 2008 This study consists of two parts The first part offers an overview of feminism s theory of differences The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism s different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women s experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World

Woman in Sacred Song Eva Munson Smith, 1888 Hölderlin's Dionysiac Poetry Lucas Murrey, 2014-12-08 This book casts new light on the work of the German poet Friedrich H lderlin 1770 1843 and his translations of Greek tragedy It shows H lderlin s poetry is unique within Western literature and art as it retrieves the socio politics of a Dionysiac space time and language to challenge the estrangement of humans from nature and one other In this book author Lucas Murrey presents a new picture of ancient Greece noting that money emerged and rapidly developed there in the sixth century B C

This act of monetization brought with it a concept of tragedy money tyrants struggling against the forces of earth and community who succumb to individual isolation blindness and death As Murrey points out H Iderlin unconsciously retrieves the battle between money nature and community and creatively applies its lessons to our time But H Iderlin s poetry not only adapts tragedy to question the unlimited machine process of a clever race of money tyrants It also draws attention to Greece s warnings about the mortal danger of the eyes in myth cult and theatre This monograph thus introduces an urgently needed vision not only of H Iderlin hymns but also the relevance of disciplines as diverse as Literary Studies Philosophy Psychology Psychoanalysis as well as Religious and Visual Media Studies to our present predicament where a dangerous visual culture through its support of the unlimitedness of money is harming our relation to nature and one another Here triumphs a temperament guided by ancient religion and that excavates in H Iderlin s translations the central god Dionysus of Greek tragedy Lucas Murrey shares with his subject H Iderlin a vision of the Greeks as bringing something vitally important into our poor world a vision of which few classical scholars are now capable Richard Seaford author of Money and the Early Greek Mind and Dionysus Here triumphs a temperament guided by ancient religion and that excavates in H Iderlin s translations the central god Dionysus of Greek tragedy Bernhard B schenstien author of Frucht des Gewitters Zu H Iderlins Dionysos als Gott der Revolution and Paul Celan Der Meridian Lucas Murrey takes the god of tragedy Dionysus finally serious as a manifestation of the ecstatic scream of liberation and visual strategies of dissolution he pleasantly portrays H Iderlin s idiosyncratic poetic sympathy Anton Bierl author of Der Chor in der Alten Kom die Ritual und Performativit t H Iderlin most surely deserved such a book Jean Fran ois Kerv gan author of Que faire de Carl Schmitt fascinating material Noam Chomsky author of Media Control and Nuclear War and Environmental Catastrophe From Here to Diversity Clara Sarmiento,2010-08-11 From Here to Diversity Globalization and Intercultural Dialogues sees interculturalism as movement transit travel and the dynamics between cultures Contemporary intercultural travel is a global journey a circumnavigation at the speed of light that underwrites all the comings and goings the departures and arrivals the transmissions and receptions that are implicit in this title Hence From Here to Diversity examines the motivations characteristics and implications of cultural interactions in their perpetual movement devoid of spatial or temporal borders in a dangerous but stimulating indefinition of limits In the contemporary intercultural dialogue new voices are making themselves heard as valuable sources of study the voices of women non occidentals the non powerful forgotten narratives of a past that was as intercultural as the present after all what is colonialism other than a perverse form of interculturality global entertainment tourism oral literature diaries mythical narratives the cinema ethnography and new teachings among so many others Because this project is also intercultural at its source and subject From Here to Diversity Globalization and Intercultural Dialogues adds to the coherence of the project by including contributions from the most wide ranging backgrounds and nationalities without fear of the alterity that after all we propose to study Wildly different Sarah Lonsdale,2025-03-04 The globe trotting tales of five women who fought for the right to enjoy the wild places of the earth For millennia the wild was a place heroic men went on epic quests Women were prevented from joining them either through physical control or powerful myths about what would happen if they ventured beyond the city wall or village boundary So how did women claim their place in the remote and lovely parts of our planet In Wildly different historian Sarah Lonsdale traces the lives of five women who fought for the right to work in enjoy and help to save the earth s wild places We ll meet Mina Hubbard who outraged the exploration community when she stepped into a canoe in northern Labrador Evelyn Cheesman who became the first female keeper of insects at London Zoo Dorothy Pilley who shocked polite society by donning men s climbing breeches Ethel Haythornthwaite who helped make the Peak District Britain s first National Park And Wangari Maathai who started a movement to plant millions of trees across sub Saharan Africa Drawing on interviews with Sir David Attenborough Wangari Maathai s daughter and others Lonsdale recounts the women s adventures across five continents Evocative and inspiring this book shows how women can be wildly different

Meeting the Other in Norse Myth and Legend John McKinnell, 2005 Close examination of the significant theme of other worldly encounters in Norse myth and legend including giantesses monsters and the Dead A particular recurring feature of Old Norse myths and legends is an encounter between creatures of This World gods and human beings and those of the Other giants giantesses dwarves prophetesses monsters and the dead Concentrating on cross gendered encounters this book analyses these meetings and the different motifs and situations they encompass from the consultation of a prophetess by a king or god to sexual liaisons and return from the dead It considers the evidence for their pre Christian origins discusses how far individual poets and prose writers were free to modify them and suggests that they survived in medieval Christian society because like folk tale they provide a non dogmatic way of resolving social and psychological problems connected with growing up succession from one generation to the next sexual relationships and bereavement

Of Sacred and Secular Desire Nikky-Guninder Kaur Singh, 2012-01-30 The fertile land of the five rivers punj ab in Persian has persistently stirred the imagination of its peoples Its story is the story of invasion In 326 BCE Alexander the Great marched through the Hindu Kush conquered the verdant plains now divided between India and Pakistan and stamped Greek cultural and linguistic influence on the region Over the centuries the lure of the Punjab attracted further waves of outsiders Scythians Sassanians Huns Afghans Turks Mughals and closer to our own times the British Many savage battles were fought But at the same time as different ethnic and religious groups came together and melded the collective psyche of the Punjab was coloured by vibrant new patterns new worldviews and new languages Punjabi poetry is the dynamic result of these cross cultural encounters In her rich and diverse anthology Nikky Guninder Kaur Singh makes a major contribution to interfaith dialogue and comparative literary studies Covering the entire spectrum of writers from the artistic patterns of the first Punjabi poet Baba Farid 1173 1265 to feminist author Amrita Pritam d 2005 the volume serves as an ideal introduction to the three faiths of Sikhism Islam and Hinduism Whether focusing on Sikh gurus or Sufi saints it boldly illuminates the area s unique character linguistic rhythms and celebrations and will have strong appeal to undergraduate students of religion literature and South Asian studies as well as general readers
