Sacrificing The Self:

Sacrificing the Self Margaret Cormack, 2002-07-18 Acts of martyrdom have been found in nearly all the world's major religious traditions. Though considered by devotees to be perhaps the most potent expression of religious faith, dying for one's god is also one of the most difficult concepts for modern observers of religion to understand. This is especially true in the West where martyrdom has all but disappeared and martyrs in other cultures are often viewed skeptically and dismissed as fanatics. This book seeks to foster a greater understanding of these acts of religious devotion by explaining how martyrdom has historically been viewed in the world's major religions. It provides the first sustained cross-cultural examination of this fascinating aspect of religious life. Margaret Cormack begins with an introduction that sets out a definition of martyrdom that serves as the point of departure for the rest of the volume. Then scholars of Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism, and Islam examine martyrdom in specific religious cultures. Spanning 4000 years of history and ranging from Saul in the Hebrew Bible to Sati immolations in present-day India, this book provides a wealth of insight into an often noted but rarely understood cultural phenomenon.

The Motives of Self-Sacrifice in Korean American Culture, Family, and Marriage Chul Woo Son, 2014-01-24 The concept of self-sacrifice is highly important to Korean Americans. With hierarchy of age, social status, and gender-defined roles taking primacy over equality and justice, self-sacrifice becomes instrumental in maintaining family and social relationships. Unfortunately, in family relationships, sacrifice has more to do with submission and endurance than it does with sacrificial service that is redemptive and mutually beneficial. When self-sacrifice carries hidden motives—coercive responsibility, obligation, shame, guilt, or one's reputation—that self-sacrifice is not self-giving, neither serving nor being of mutual benefit. In this context, it is important to explore the attitudes and motives of self-sacrifice in Korean American families. In unlocking and exploring the dynamics of the theology and practice of self-sacrifice for Korean Americans, this book explores cultural virtues, marital relationships, gender inequality, domestic violence, and their theological implications. The author introduces a new approach and model with a proposal for a healthier and a more judicious understanding of self-sacrifice for Korean American family relationships. The element of equal regard as pertaining to self-sacrifice offers Korean Americans a refreshing hope in the perspective of familial relationships and a liberating casting off of culturally and religiously imposed burdens. The Korean American family ought to be grounded on a love ethic of equal regard and place its value on mutuality, self-sacrifice, and individual fulfillment. When this is done, sacrificial love can be understood as justly appropriated for both husbands and wives, males and females, and parents and children. Thus, Christian teaching and theology may deliver a more transparent message of true agape and its liberating effects for the marginalized, especially women and children.

Women and Identity Constance Margaret Hall, 1990 This book addresses the issue of change through choice, examining ways that women can empower themselves by becoming more aware of their identity, values, and commitments to action. It emphasises priorities and the behavioural consequences of giving primacy to the value of equality. Sacrifice in Modernity: Community, Ritual, Identity, 2016-09-27 In Sacrifice in Modernity Community Ritual Identity it is demonstrated how sacrificial themes remain an essential element in our post modern society Sacrificing the Self Margaret Jean Cormack, 2001 Sacrifice Inge van Nistelrooij, 2015 Caring is a moral practice i.e. a practice in which moral goods are realized This is one of the critical insights of the ethics of care The idea that goods are also sacrificed in caregiving however is less accepted or downright rejected Starting off with real life stories stories from literature and films this book shows that caregiving entails sacrifices even to the extent of sacrificing the self This study argues that concepts surrounding care and sacrifice need to be revised and makes proposals for re conceptualizing the subject's identity the intersubjective relation the socio political community and the role of meaning Using an interdisciplinary approach that draws upon the ethics of care theology phenomenology political theory and hermeneutics this book leads to a reappraisal of self sacrifice as vital to understanding caring Handbook of Self-enhancement and Self-protection Mark D. Johnson,2020-01-14 Meeting the Ethical Challenges of Leadership Casting Light or Shadow explores the ethical demands of leadership and the dark side of leadership The book takes an interdisciplinary approach drawing from many fields of research to help readers make ethical decisions lead with integrity and create an ethical culture Sacrifice and Regeneration Yael Mabat,2022-12 At the dawn of the twentieth century while Lima s aristocrats hotly debated the future of a nation filled with Indians thousands of Aymara and Quechua Indians left the pews of the Catholic Church and were baptized into Seventh day Adventism One of the most staggering Christian phenomena of our time the mass conversion from Catholicism to various forms of Protestantism in Latin America was so successful that Catholic contemporaries became extremely anxious on noticing that parts of the Indigenous population in the Andean plateau had joined a Protestant church In Sacrifice and Regeneration Yael Mabat focuses on the extraordinary success of Seventh day Adventism in the Andean highlands at the beginning of the twentieth century and sheds light on the historical trajectories of Protestantism in Latin America By approaching the religious conversion among Indigenous populations in the Andes as a multifaceted and dynamic interaction between converts missionaries and their social settings and networks Mabat demonstrates how the religious and spiritual needs of converts also brought salvation to the missionaries Conversion had important ramifications on the way social political and economic institutions on the local and national level functioned. At the same time socioeconomic currents had both short term and long term impacts on idiosyncratic religious practices and beliefs that both accelerated and impeded religious change. Mabat's innovative historical perspective on religious transformation allows us to better comprehend the complex and often contradictory way in which Protestantism took shape in Latin America. Handbook of Philosophy of Management Cristina Neesham, Markus

Reihlen, Dennis Schoeneborn, 2022-12-01 The Handbook of Philosophy of Management addresses the philosophical foundations of management in theory and practice. It covers established branches of philosophy such as aesthetics, epistemology, moral philosophy, political and social philosophy, philosophy of education, philosophy of practice, and philosophy of science. The Handbook's broad scope maps out the field and provides a forum where philosophy can be meaningfully applied to the study of management in all its forms. The original peer-reviewed research published here sheds new light on the complexities of management theory and practice beyond what hitherto has been possible with the sole application of the social sciences. As philosophy provides a meta framework for moving beyond paradigm fragmentation within management research and education, this allows researchers and practitioners to find harmony and discord in the perspectives revealed by a philosophical lens. The Standard, 1916 The Imperial Lexicon of the English Language John Boag, 1850 The Calling of the Church in Times of Polarization, 2022-10-31 In many societies all over the world, an increasing polarization between contrasting groups can be observed. Polarization arises when a fear born of difference turns into us versus them thinking and rules out any form of compromise. This volume addresses polarizations within societies as well as within churches and asks the question: given these dynamics, what may be the calling of the church? The authors offer new approaches to polarizing debates on topics such as racism, social justice, sexuality and gender, euthanasia, and ecology and agriculture in various contexts. They engage in profound theological and ecclesiological reflection in particular from the Reformed tradition. Contributors to this volume are Najib George Awad, Henk van den Belt, Nadine Bowers, Du Toit Jaeseung Cha, David Daniels, David Fergusson, Jan Jorrit Hasselaar, Jozef Hehanussa, Allan Janssen, Klaas Willem de Jong, Viktoria Kczi, Philipp Pattberg, Louise Prideaux, Emanuel Gerrit Singgih, Peter Ben Smit, Thandi Soko de Jong, Wim van Vlastuin, Jan Dirk Wassenaar, Elizabeth Welch, Annemarieke van der Woude, and Heleen Zorgdrager. Tragedy and Comedy Mark William Roche, 1998-01-01 The first evaluation and critique of Hegel's theory of tragedy and comedy; this book also develops an original theory of both genres.
