Singapore Malay/Muslim Community, 1819-2015 Hussin

Mutalib, Rokiah Mentol, Sundusia Rosdi, 2016-06-29 Singapore's Malay Muslim community constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country. While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years, there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available. This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap. The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive, encompassing the different sources of information print or non print about the many facets of life of the Republic's Malays Muslims such as education, economy, politics, culture, history, health, language, religion, arts and more. The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive if not exhaustive treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere. Scholars and researchers in particular and the public in general should find this Bibliography a highly valuable indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore's Malay Muslim community stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today. The Editors Hussin Mutalib Ph.D. a senior academic with the National University of Singapore, Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi former senior librarians with Singapore's National Library Board are assisted by professional and experienced librarians. The Sociology of Shari'a: Case Studies from around the World Adam Possamai, James T. Richardson, Bryan S. Turner, 2014-12-04 This edited volume offers a collection of papers that present a comparative analysis of the development of Shari'a in countries with Muslim minorities such as America, Australia, Germany and Italy as well as countries with Muslim majorities such as Malaysia, Bangladesh, Turkey and Tunisia. The Sociology of Shari'a provides a global analysis of these important legal transformations and analyzes the topic from a sociological perspective. It explores examples of non-Western countries that have a Muslim minority in their populations including South Africa, China, Singapore and the Philippines. In addition, the third part of the book includes case studies that explore some ground-breaking theories on the sociology of Shari'a such as the application of Black, Chambliss and Eisenstein's sociological perspectives. The Making of Singapore Sociology Tong Chee-Kiong, Lian Kwen-Fee, 2021-11-08 This book presents a collection of essays of how the city-state of Singapore's societal dynamics have evolved from the time of its birth as a nation in 1965 to the present. Key areas of Singapore society are explored contributing to the understanding of the social organisation of the city. This study reveals a shift from the modernisation studies in the 1970s to a more political-economic turn as a consequence of the influence of dependency and world systems theories. Topics covered include urban studies, family, education, medical care, class and social stratification, work, language, ethnic groups, religion and crime and deviance. Siloed Diversity Catherine Gomes, 2018-04-30 This book examines the experiences of transient migrants in the Asia Pacific and in so doing provides new ways of understanding diversity. By focusing on the transient destination hubs of Australia and Singapore, Catherine Gomes shifts our thinking about diversity for two disruptive reasons: the increasingly large and global transient flows of people and our everyday reliance on digital media The unprecedented usage of digital media influences not only communication patterns and information seeking behaviour but has also led to the rapid evolution of the very nature of entertainment and news and directly impacted on our documenting and mapping of self e g posts of photographs opinions and links on social media timelines The book introduces readers to the concept of siloed diversity a phenomenon which occurs when people rely on a hierarchy of identities developed while in transience to make connections and disconnections with others      Readings in General Studies: Peace studies and conflict resolution Bethel C. Uweru, John Oroshejede Ubrurhe, 2000      Tb-Sociology Andersen, 2003-05      Understanding Domestic Violence Rafael Art. Javier, William G. Herron, 2018-08-10 Understanding Domestic Violence not only highlights and reexamines the different challenges that we continue to face in effectively addressing issues of domestic violence but provides innovated approaches to interventions that are more in keeping with the complex nature of domestic violence This book provides a comprehensive and multifaceted examination of conditions and factors involved in domestic violence including psychological sociocultural sociopolitical and socioeconomic issues The authors look at domestic violence through the trauma lens and intersectionality to develop intervention strategies within that context Statistics and clinical examples from the field highlight unique culturally based issues related to domestic violence among Latino African American and Arab Muslim communities issues with woman perpetrators and violence in the LGBTQ community to name a few In the end Understanding Domestic Violence offers opportunities for the reader to engage in further discussion of the poignant issues discussed in the book with the invitation to become part of the solution
