in New York when she had begged her father to take her to see this marvelous 11 yr old boy give a demonstration She loved him so much even though she was only 4 yrs old herself The irony is that she is so beautiful most men would simply die for her But the only man she could love was Thomas Tormented by both wicked and loving thoughts about being with him she knew it was all just a silly pipe dream Covered in blood and working tireless hours her dreams are about to come true Thomas Haydens division led by General Masters will soon be entering her camp Much to the delight of Isobel and the children Thomas was coming home safe and sound Even the painful rumors about Thomas having an affair didnt bother her now As time went on the only major problem was that a gang of outlaws wanted to kill Thomas and held the town up for ransom but Thomas along with Chief Running Elk saved the day When kid grows up he or she wants to be hero And in the old west it was no different young boys want to become a famous gunfighter And that is exactly what Mitchell Hayden wants to be another Vance Cordeau the fastest gun in the west It was decided by Thomas that he will teach Mitchell the system that his father taught him simply because if Mitchell couldnt protect himself then he would probably end up being killed After Mitchell left his reputation grew and became known as much to the chagrin of Thomas Mitch Hayden the fastest gunfighter in the west So would Mitch get killed or become a teacher And would Thomass farsighted hopes and dreams come true Or would he have to move again to avoid oncoming trouble Would the beautiful Emma really become an old maid And how long can Isobel and Hank keep from having a sexual encounter And will Dr Katherine McBrides dream of one day having Thomas as her lover or husband finally come true Read on Many thanks John Yeo
