Lost Glory:

Today's Prayer Stephen Kyeyune, 2019-05-30 This book is written to all kinds of people because all of us need to pray. Praying means asking. None of us is exempted from praying because we are all dependants in one way or another. Everything that is not God depends on God. We are inadequate because there is no time we don't have expectations to meet. We have shared human desires. For example, everyone needs to be loved. We are all exclusively dependants on God because the desires of the human heart can only be found in the Lord. Trying to fix things apart from God is the recipe of failure. Praying is the greatest fellowship with God. We pray to the all-sufficient God because we are insufficient by ourselves. Humanity with all human resources cannot save or fulfill itself. Our desires are endless and are constantly changing. For example, our eyes are never satisfied with seeing; we always want to see something new. Our ears are never satisfied with hearing; we always want to hear the current news. Likewise, the soul is never tired of yearning for the transcendent. People take different avenues when seeking for fulfillment, but only those who have discovered the power of prayer experience true fulfillment. We are called to pray unceasingly because there is constantly a feeling of emptiness when we do not communicate with God. Emptiness is the reality of the void that colonized the heart, which was once a sacred space occupied by the Divine. Praying is to be intimate with God; it is having God's ear and eye in order to see the earthly things from the heavenly perspective.

English for Lovers of English S.K. Rana, 2016-07-30 In this book, I have brought together about 1,400 utterances that are faulty. None of these faulty utterances have been produced by me to illustrate incorrect use of English. All the faulty utterances found in this book have been taken from printed material, mostly from the newspapers I read. In order to focus attention on the error, I have shortened some of the faulty utterances. To me, it is very important that the faulty utterances in this book have not been produced by me. Jacques Barzun, the celebrated American scholar and recipient of the Gold Medal for Criticism from the American Academy of Arts and Letters, has something very pertinent to say on genuine faults as opposed to faults that have been produced as sample utterances. This is what Barzun says: In student writing, when the assignments are frequent and well designed, all kinds of error and clumsiness occur that are never found in the sample sentences of manuals and grammar books. These faults have the advantage of being genuine; they represent somebody's way of thought, and finding them faulty is a therapeutic attack on the mind that produced them. Barzun is talking about writing done by university students in America, but what he says about it is applicable to a great deal of Indian writing too. The Last Illumination Johannes Vegba, 2025-10-31 The hope of every Christian is to go to Heaven, but is Heaven real or imaginary? Why must a Christian go there and what will they do once they arrive These questions have grown more pressing in the age of artificial intelligence and space exploration where even satellites have failed to locate Heaven The Last Illumination seeks to answer these enduring mysteries exploring the intersection of faith and science At its heart lies the transfiguration of Jesus Christ His radiant transformation on the mountain witnessed by the sudden appearance of Moses and Elijah Was this merely a miraculous display or did it hold deeper significance for humanity This book traces God's original purpose for mankind and examines the alienation that separated humans from His glory It delves into the nature of that divine glory how it was lost and how it may be reclaimed Through biblical insight and theological reflection the author explores the meaning of the transfiguration and its implications for modern believers Other key topics include the return of Jesus Christ on the last day the symbolism of white garments for eternity the millennial reign and the fate of Heaven and Earth The book also addresses whether Christians can miss the transfiguration and what that might mean Additionally the text considers the activities of Satan during the millennial reign the timeline of future events and the ultimate location and permanence of Heaven Rich in scriptural context and contemporary relevance The Last Illumination invites readers to reflect deeply on the mysteries of salvation the return of Christ and the eternal destiny of humanity In the end readers will come away with a clearer understanding of the transfiguration and its vital importance for every Christian life

The Land & the Orchard of Human Species Babajide M. Ola-Buraimo, 2011-04-12 The analytical views in this book are not in any way serendipity rather they were well thought out and structured as simply received Thus arises the need to initiatively look back at the epoch of our existence on Earth as preceded by the following survival of the fittest search for food where to live sacrifices and rituals to appeal to God brutalism against one another religious sect formation and deforestation due to uncontrollable population increase Improvisation of wooden houses trees of concrete iron and steel have been initiated but in a way they have continually caused global warming to increase very much at a gradual pace as civilization advances through Machine Age mechanized farming industrialization and technological advancements space exploration and globalization of industries and corporate organizations The heat increases at an unusual unprecedented level due to greenhouse gas emission and thus the assumed greenhouse releases a light weight carbon dioxide CO₂ gas into the atmosphere which is speculated to have formed impenetrable blanket The presence of CO₂ is an indicator pointing to a fact that this gas in question had been released in the past and is presently being discharged uncontrollably More so there seems to be no end in sight as the CO₂ continues to be sporadically expunged into the atmosphere The process described above has continued to be expanding through all frontiers with no end in sight where new neighborhoods are being built Suburbs margining together as new Castles are evolving block by block and concrete plazas are enveloping the Earth so are the vegetative forest of trees are disappearing causing global warming to increase exponentially The increase becomes very much intense at an alarming rate in that it has now been considered to be adversely effective when found to be dangerously impacting the essence and every facet of life Analytical research is hereby required to be conducted by the world's best researchers and scientists in their respective professional fields. Necessary wisdom of advice has to be forwarded by religious leaders of all known notable reliable religious groups or denominations. Leaders and heads of governments of all Nations that control every facet of life in every part of the globe must guide and monitor purposely to do proper checks and balances with intuition, ideology, predictions and prophecies contained in this book The Land, the Orchard of Human Species. This is to determine the level of damages caused by humanity thereby putting the Earth's conditions into a scale of ratio prior to civilization and as civilization progresses, i.e. the condition of the Earth from time immemorial as the scientists and archaeologists can determine through lists of records and documentaries. Precisely from premedieval periods to present days and age while projecting into the future of the planet Earth in order for us to be just and find peace among ourselves and on Earth. If humanity cannot find peace on Earth then we cannot find peace elsewhere because human's trait is like a shadow that trails behind you when you take a walk in the light. Source of all lives and the means of energy and growth. The Prophetic Times, 1866 Paul's Letter to the Romans Ben Witherington, 2004-03-02 While Paul's letter to the Romans is the most studied and commented on document from the biblical period, the major exegetical books on Romans from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries have been overwhelmingly shaped by the Reformed tradition. Through a careful survey of work on Romans by both ancient Church Fathers and modern exegetical scholars, Ben Witherington III here argues that the interpretation of Romans since the Reformation has been far too indebted to and at key points led astray by Augustinian readings of the text as filtered through Luther, Calvin and others. In this first full-scale socio-rhetorical commentary on Romans, Witherington gleams fresh insights from reading the text of Paul's epistle in light of early Jewish theology, the historical situation of Rome in the middle of the first century A.D. and Paul's own rhetorical concerns. Giving serious consideration to the social and rhetorical background of Romans allows readers to hear Paul on his own terms, not just through the various voices of his later interpreters. Witherington's groundbreaking work also features a new clear translation of the Greek text and each section of the commentary ends with a brief discussion titled Bridging the Horizons which suggests how the ancient text of Romans may speak to us today. Pre-Nicene Christology in Paschal Contexts Dragoş Giulea, 2013-11-01 In Pre-Nicene Christology in Paschal Contexts, Drago A. Giulea re-examines the earliest texts related to the festival of Easter in light of Second Temple traditions. Commonly portrayed as sacrificial lamb, the key actor of the paschal narrative is here designated as heavenly Kabod, Divine Image, King of the Powers, celestial Anthropos, Demiurge, Son of Man, each of these divine names implying a corresponding soteriological function. Drago A. Giulea indicates as well that the Greek philosophical vocabulary and certain idioms of the mystery religions inspired new categories which reshaped the traditional way of describing the nature of celestial entities and the epistemological capacities able to access these realities. Thus the King of the Powers or the Son of Man is several times described as a noetic Anthropos while initiation and noetic perception become the appropriate methods of accessing the divine. Believers' Transformation Simon S. Lee, 2009 Revision of the author's thesis Th D Harvard University 2008 Paul's Letter to the Romans Colin G. Christosis Ben C. Blackwell, 2011 With increasing interaction between Eastern and Western theologians several recent biblical interpreters have characterised Paul's soteriology as theosis or deification In response to these affirmations Ben C Blackwell explores the anthropological dimension of Paul's soteriology to determine how helpful this characterisation is Utilising the Wirkungsgeschichte of the Pauline letters he first examines two Greek patristic interpreters of Paul Irenaeus and Cyril of Alexandria to clarify what deification entails and to determine which Pauline texts they used to support their soteriological constructions The monograph then focuses on Paul's soteriology expressed in Romans 8 and 2 Corinthians 3-5 with excursus on other passages and explores how believers embody Christ's death and life his suffering and glory through the Spirit Blackwell concludes with a comparison of deification as presented by these two Greek patristic interpreters and Paul's soteriology noting the substantial overlap as well as key differences Commentary on Romans Ernst Kasemann, 1994 Emphasizing theological rather than historical questions Kasemann divides Romans into sections according to what he sees as the key theological concept of the letter the righteousness of God Detailed bibliographies are provided for each section of the text The Enoch-Metatron Tradition Andrei A. Orlov, 2005 Andrei A Orlov examines the tradition about the seventh antediluvian patriarch Enoch tracing its development from its roots in the Mesopotamian lore to the Second Temple apocalyptic texts and later rabbinic and Hekhalot materials where Enoch is often identified as the supreme angel Metatron The first part of the book explores the imagery of the celestial roles and titles of the seventh antediluvian hero in Mesopotamian Enochic and Hekhalot materials The analysis of the celestial roles and titles shows that the transition from the figure of patriarch Enoch to the figure of angel Metatron occurred already in the Second Temple Enochic materials namely in 2 Slavonic Enoch a Jewish work traditionally dated to the first century CE The second part of the book demonstrates that mediatorial polemics with the traditions of the exalted patriarchs and prophets played an important role in facilitating the transition from Enoch to Metatron in the Second Temple period Jihadism Nirode Mohanty, 2018-09-15 Jihad struggle is a holy war to defend Islam against non believers and non Muslims Jihadists are holy warriors The intellectual father of jihadist Islamism Sayyid Qutb who was executed in Cairo in 1966 made the message crystal clear Jihadism jihadist terrorism is a permanent Islamic world revolution aimed at decentering the West to establish Hakimiyyat Allah or God's rule on a global scale This book narrates the evolution of jihadism jihadist terrorism in the past centuries and its impact on the world as an existential threat to the humanity in view of worldwide terrorist attacks with its aggression barbarity burning alive of human beings kidnapping and savagery while imperiling the democracy secularism plurality freedom and security of the civilized world In the last seventy years radical Islamists have won in many places and many times because of the two world wars and the Cold War But the recent years have shown new levels of gruesome and ghastly activity Most Muslims of the world numbering 1.6 billion people total condemn these atrocious deaths and are peaceful They feel their religion is hijacked by a few radicals After September 11 2001 the former president George Bush declared the face of terror is not the true faith of Islam That is not what Islam is all about Islam is peace These terrorists don't represent peace They represent evil and war The leading Muslim country Egypt is fighting terrorism unrelentingly with full force However the rise of Islamic terrorism in the UK Belgium France Somalia the Philippines Afghanistan and other places in Asia the Middle East and Africa is a great threat to the mankind The radical Islamists consider the American invasion of Afghanistan in 2001 and Iraq in 2003 to be a war against Islam These events helped to create a resurgence of radical Islam from Indonesia to Iran to secular Turkey Jihad in the Muslims holy book the Koran refers to inner strife but for centuries radicals have misconstrued it to mean a violent brutal war against nonbelievers The Taliban Al Qaeda ISIS terrorists claim they are true Islamic jihadists
