Indebted Development Howard P Lehman, 1993-07-13 The Dreyfus Affair or simply L Affaire was the defining event in French life between the disasters of the Franco Prussian War and the First World War After decades of prosperity and growth following the Prussian invasion the destruction of the Paris Commune and the seemingly successful creation of the Third Republic the Affair cruelly exposed the bitter divisions within French society The French army was torn apart ministers were forced to resign new political groupings were created and ultimately the Affair led to an attempted coup and contributed to the paranoia that almost resulted in a catastrophic Anglo French war in 1898 This short work fills the need for a comprehensible concise book which focuses on the scale and complexity of the Dreyfus Affair

Unholy Trinity Richard Peet, 2009-11-16 Who really runs the global economy Who benefits most from it The answer is a triad of governance institutions The IMF the World Bank and the WTO Globalization massively increased the power of these institutions and they drastically affected the livelihoods of peoples across the world Yet they operate undemocratically and aggressively promote a particular kind of neoliberal capitalism Under the Washington Consensus they proposed poverty was to be ended by increasing inequality This new edition of Unholy

Trinity completely updated and revised argues that neoliberal global capitalism has now entered a period of crisis so severe that governance will become impossible Huge incomes for a small number of super rich people produced an unstable global economy rife with speculation and structurally prone to crises The IMF is in disgrace the WTO can hardly meet anymore and the World Bank survives as a global philanthropist Is this the end for the Unholy Trinity Popular Voices in Latin American Catholicism Daniel H. Levine, 2014-07-14 Throughout Latin America observers and activists have found in religion a promise of deep and long lasting democratization But for religion to change culture and politics religion itself must change Such change is not only a matter of doctrine ritual or institutional arrangements but also arises out of the needs values and ideas of average believers Combining rich interviews and community studies in Venezuela and Colombia with analysis of broad ideological and institutional transformations Daniel Levine examines how religious and cultural change begins and what gives it substance and lasting impact The author focuses on the creation of self confident popular groups among hitherto isolated and dispirited individuals Once silent voices come to light as peasants and urban barrio dwellers reflect on their upbringing and community on poverty and opportunity on faith prayer and the Bible and on institutions like state school and church Levine also interviews priests sisters and pastoral agents and explains how their efforts shape the links between popular groups and the larger society The result is a clear understanding of how relations among social and cultural levels are maintained and transformed how programs are implemented why they succeed or fail and how change appears both to elites and to ordinary people Originally published in 1992 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Free Markets and Food Riots John K. Walton, David Seddon, 2011-08-10 This book describes and explains the extraordinary wave of popular protest that swept across the so called Third World and the countries of the former socialist bloc during the period from the late 1970s to the early 1990s in response to the mounting debt crisis and the austerity measures widely adopted as part of economic reform and adjustment Explores this general proposition in a cross national study of the austerity protests or the IMF Riots that have affected so many debtor nations since the mid 1970s Argues that modern austerity protests like the classical bread riots in eighteenth century Europe are political acts aimed at injustice but acts that are an integral part of the process of international economic and political restructuring Evaluates how modern food riots are most important for what they reveal about global economic transformation and its social and political consequences Provides a general framework drawing on comparative and historical material and then trace the cycle of uneven development debt neo liberal reform and protest in Latin America Africa Asia the Middle East and Eastern Europe Focusses on the role of women in structural adjustment and protest politics and the features of seemingly anomalous cases which qualify the general argument

Regulating Agriculture Philip Lowe, Terry Marsden, Sarah Whatmore, 2023-06-08 Originally published in 1994 this volume brings together a set of essays reflecting the complex political social and institutional problems encountered by modern states in seeking to manage their agricultural sectors Drawing on different national and international viewpoints the essays present original analyses of agricultural regulation in a comparative context The aspects covered include the roots of the post war food order the roles of corporatism agribusiness and technological change the challenge of de regulation and environmental reforms the introduction of market principles and mechanisms into centrally planned economies and the efforts to forge a new order in international trade Tangled Destinies Don M. Coerver, Linda Biesele Hall, 1999 Historical overview from both perspectives of the often troubled and always uneven relationship between the United States and the nations of Latin America

Dictatorship, Democracy, and Globalization Klaus Friedrich Veigel, 2010-11-01 The collapse of the Argentine economy in 2001 involving the extraordinary default on 150 billion in debt has been blamed variously on the failure of neoliberal policies or on the failure of the Argentine government to pursue those policies vigorously enough during the 1990s But this is too myopic a view Klaus Veigel contends to provide a fully satisfactory explanation of how a country enjoying one of the highest standards of living at the end of the nineteenth century became a virtual economic basket case by the end of the twentieth Veigel asks us to take the long view of Argentina s efforts to re create the conditions for stability and consensus that had brought such great success during the country s first experience with globalization a century ago The experience of war and depression in the late 1930s and early 1940s had discredited the earlier reliance on economic liberalism In its place came a turn toward a corporatist system of interest representation and state led inward oriented economic policies But as major changes in the world economy heralded a new era of globalization in the late 1960s and early 1970s the corporatist system broke down and no social class or economic interest group was strong enough to create a new social consensus with respect to Argentina s economic order and role in the world economy The result was political paralysis leading to economic stagnation as both civilian and military governments oscillated between protectionism and liberalization in their economic policies which finally brought the country to its nadir in 2001

The Making of Citizens Bryan Roberts, 2020-11-25 Originally published as Cities of Peasants this highly acclaimed account of the expansion of capitalism in the developing world has now been extensively rewritten and updated Focusing on Latin America Bryan Roberts traces the evolution of developing societies and their economies to the present Taking account of the move towards more open economies a shrinking of the state and various transitions towards democracies he shows how urban growth has produced new patterns of social stratification creating opportunities for social mobility but doing little to decrease income inequality or political and social pressures Underlying social changes have broadened the practice of citizenship in developing countries limiting authoritarian rule but within a context of entrenched social inequalities and persisting political instability This book conveys both the flavour of life in the cities of the third world and the immediacy of their problems Harvest Of Want Scott Whiteford, 2019-03-04 Harvest of Want demonstrates how hunger and malnutrition can exist simultaneously with growth in agricultural production It points out a series of factors that have generated food insecurity throughout much of Central America and Mexico Labor Migration to the United States Wayne A. Cornelius, 1990 Crafting Coalitions for Reform Peter R. Kingstone, 2010-11-01 The success of political efforts to create a more open economy in Brazil over the past decade has depended crucially on support from the industrial sector which long enjoyed the benefits of protection by the state from economic competition Why businesses previously so sheltered would back neoliberal reform and why opposition arose at times from sectors least threatened by free trade are the puzzles this book seeks to answer Drawing on more than one hundred interviews with industrialists and business association representatives as well as a wide range of other sources Peter Kingstone argues that the key to understanding the behavior of industrialists lies in the impact of four factors on their preferences for reform the effect of economic crisis on industrialists perception of the viability of the earlier development model the sectoral location of their firms in the economy and the advantages historically accruing therefrom the adjustment options available to them given their position in the market and the credibility of the government s promises about reform and its tactical choices for getting them implemented through the political system The mix of these four factors Kingstone shows left business preferences relatively malleable and thus available for support of reform even in the face of potentially high costs Whether such support was forthcoming depended on industrialists perceptions of the ability of government leaders to deliver on their promises Widespread resistance to reform occurred when leaders lost their credibility Under Fernando Collor s leadership that credibility was never recovered under Fernando Henrique Cardoso s it was recovered through increasing concessions to industrialists on the character of the reform program After Modernism Michael P. Smith, 1992-01-01 Redefining the Third World Nana Poku, Lloyd Pettiford, 1999-01-12 Given the end of the cold war economic development of the Asia Pacific region the emergence of Neo Liberal democratisation and the further marginalisation of Africa in the global political economy this book provides a timely theoretical analysis of current trends in the third world global politics International Perspectives on Homelessness Valerie Polakow, Cindy Guillea, 2001-08-30 Homelessness strikes in all types of nations from wealthy western nations to poor undeveloped countries Each government and culture attends to this worldwide problem differently This work collects eleven case studies of selected countries from around the world in order to offer a wide perspective on the dilemma of homelessness Students can use this ready reference to compare and contrast homelessness populations analyze the ways in which various countries approach this issue and to evaluate what is precluding and encouraging this reaching issue The problem of homelessness is clearly defined here from a global perspective In addition the history and resulting conflicts that have risen from homelessness are outlined This ready reference analyzes the metamorphosis of the homelessness what solutions have been suggested and how effective these solutions have been Students will learn to think critically about homelessness and what the future holds for each country as it battles with this seemingly unavoidable occurrence Welfare States in Transition Gøsta Esping-Andersen, 1996-05-21

This wide ranging comparative analysis of contemporary and future changes in welfare states looks at the different trajectories of the welfare states of Europe North America the Antipodes and the emerging scenarios in Latin America East Asia and Central and Eastern Europe Leading experts on each of these regions examine the current structures of social protection consider the causes of the current welfare state crisis and highlight evolving trends for welfare policy Different welfare states are shown to manifest different forms of crisis Among the symptoms of crisis Welfare States in Transition suggests that the effect of population ageing is exaggerated and an at least equally fundamental challenge lies in the revolution of the modern family and the changing economic role of women The contributors are sceptical about the neo liberal formula for reform not only because it increases inequality but also because it does not address the growing need for an active social investment policy to ensure against entrapment in poverty or low paid jobs Unauthorized Migration ,1990

Democracy Within Reason Miguel Angel Centeno, 2010-11-01 Capital, Power, And Inequality In Latin America Sandor Halebsky, 2018-10-08 Over the last two decades economic political and social life in Latin America has been transformed by the region s accelerated integration into the global economy Although this transformation has tended to exacerbate various inequities new forms of popular expression and action challenging the contemporary structures of capital and power have also developed This volume is a comprehensive genuinely comparative text on contemporary Latin America In it an international group of contributors offer multidimensional analyses of the historical context contemporary character and future direction of rural transformation urbanization economic restructuring and the transition to political democracy In addition individual essays address the changing role of women the influence of religion the growth of new social movements the struggles of indigenous peoples and ecological issues Finally the book examines the influence of U S policy and of regionalization and globalization on the Latin American states Sandor Halebsky is professor of sociology at Saint Mary s University in Halifax Nova Scotia He coedited Cuba in Transition Crisis and Transformation Westview 1992 Richard L Harris is chair of the faculty at Golden Gate University in Monterey California He is one of the coordinating editors of the journal Latin American Perspectives and the author of Marxism Socialism and Democracy in Latin America Westview 1992
