The Daughter's Way Tanis MacDonald,2012-09-01 The Daughter s Way investigates negotiations of female subjectivity in twentieth century Canadian women s elegies with a special emphasis on the father s death as a literary and political watershed The book examines the work of Dorothy Livesay P K Page Jay Macpherson Margaret Atwood Kristjana Gunnars Lola Lemire Tostevin Anne Carson and Erin Mour as elegiac daughteronomies literary artifacts of mourning that grow from the poets investigation into the function and limitations of elegiac convention Some poets treat the father as a metaphor for socio political power while others explore more personal iterations of loss but all the poets in The Daughter s Way seek to redefine daughterly duty in a contemporary context by challenging elegiac tradition through questions of genre and gender Beginning with psychoanalytical theories of filiation inheritance and mourning as they are complicated by feminist challenges to theories of kinship and citizenship The Daughter s Way debates the efficacy of the literary work of mourning in twentieth century Canadian poetry By investigating the way a daughter s filial piety performs and sometimes reconfigures such work and situating melancholia as a creative force in women s elegies the book considers how elegies inquire into the rhetoric of mourning as it is complicated by father daughter kinship

Daughter(S) with Absent Fathers Derwin Wince,2010-01-12 Daughter s with Absent Fathers is a short book of letters a man on a train is regularly sending to his daughter he rediscovered They reintroduced themselves after she became an adult They met by accident He was simply trying to stop a young man from yelling and pulling on his girlfriend out in public The man had finished yanking her and her child out the car by the time he approached them Papers fell out Her purse fell out Now the couple was looking at an interferer That is until they saw his eyes It was then and there they came to realize it wasthat womans father Suddenly this young man had the door opened for her and her child to get back in Her eyes never left her fathers Her body was helped back into the car Next he had thrown her purse into her laps Then he got in and they were gone Embarrassment in the public caused this father to look down Eighteen years had flashed by with repeats of horrors screeches and pain since he last saw this sight Except then it

Schaeffer,2015-11-17 Red Inc takes issue with the view that economic development will eventually promote democracy It outlines in detail the enormous social costs of the rapid rise of China s economy Although many observers argue that Deng Xiaoping introduced capitalism to China in the late 1970s Schaeffer believes that capitalist development really began during the 1950s under Mao Zedong But although Mao made relentless efforts to generate the capital needed to finance economic development his regime failed to promote any real growth Schaeffer shows that the remarkable rise of its economy in recent years has provided China with new and often corrupt sources of wealth and power that have enabled it to resist democracy He brings into sharp focus the consequence of the regime s uncompromising approach to capital accumulation Understanding Globalization Robert K. Schaeffer,2009-01-16 This book examines the globalization of production and its impact on work and gender relations the impact of technology on workers around the world the economic problems associated with debt crisis the political opportunities associated with democratization the impact of global warming the reasons behind China s rise as an economic superpower and the problems in countries across the Middle East that culminated in the attacks of 9 11 The Italian Daughter Soraya Lane,2025-03-11 AN ABSOLUTELY STUNNING MUST READ I loved every page A true page turning perfect romance that will sweep you off your feet Bookworm86 Italy 1946 Estee I bought this ring years ago and have kept it safe ever since You re the only woman I ve ever loved She reached for Felix s hand and gently closed it over the box No she whispered I want you to propose only when you re truly free London present day Lily clutches a faded piece of paper in her hands knowing that her life will never be the same again Whilst grieving for her late father she is told that her grandmother was born at Hope s House a home for unmarried mothers the only clues to her past contained on a handwritten Italian recipe and an old theatre programme Desperate for answers Lily accepts a job on an Italian vineyard in the heart of picturesque Como a dream her father once shared Arriving at the palatial home of the Martinelli family Lily is captivated by the acres of vines that surround her and instantly feels at home She is also struck by their charming son Antonio and as they chat long into the night over a candlelit dinner he offers to help Lily discover her family s heritage As Lily unravels the truth of her own legacy she begins to fall more in love with Italy and with Antonio And tracing the recipe back to a bakery in a hilltop village she soon unearths a tragic love story that changes everything But when Lily discovers who her grandmother really was can she too have the courage to follow her heart and leave her old life behind Or will her family s heart wrenching story force her home An utterly enchanting and heartbreaking novel about lost loves family secrets and enduring hope Perfect for fans of Santa Montefiore Lucinda Riley

Global Crusoe Ann Marie Fallon, 2016-04-22 Global Crusoe travels across the twentieth century globe from a Native American reservation to a Botswanan village to explore the huge variety of contemporary incarnations of Daniel Defoe's intrepid character In her study of the novels poems short stories and films that adapt the Crusoe myth Ann Marie Fallon argues that the twentieth century Crusoe is not a lone struggling survivor but a cosmopolitan figure who serves as a warning against the dangers of individual isolation and colonial oppression Fallon uses feminist and postcolonial theory to reexamine Defoe's original novel and several contemporary texts showing how writers take up the traumatic narratives of Crusoe in response to the intensifying transnational and postcolonial experiences of the second half of the twentieth century Reading texts by authors such as Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Derek Walcott Elizabeth Bishop and J M Coetzee within their social historical and political contexts Fallon shows how contemporary revisions of the novel reveal the tensions inherent in the transnational project as people and ideas move across borders with frequency if not necessarily with ease In the novel Robinson Crusoe Crusoe's discovery of Friday's footprint fills him with such anxiety that he feels the print like an animal and burrows into his shelter Likewise modern readers and writers continue to experience a deep anxiety when confronting the narrative issues at the center of Crusoe's story
