Lost Lands Forgotten Stories:

Lost Lands, Forgotten Realms Bob Curran, 2007-11-15 A comprehensive encyclopedia of fantastic places straddling the nebulous borderlands between fact and fantasy Frank Joseph author of Opening the Ark of the Covenant There are places that turn up in literature or in film mystical and legendary places whose names may be familiar but about which we know little We nod knowingly at the reference but are often left wondering about places such as Atlantis the lost land overwhelmed by the sea or El Dorado the fabulous city that vanished somewhere in the South American jungles Other names are more evocative Mount Olympus the Garden of Eden the mystic Isle of Avalon and Davy Jones Locker But did such places actually exist and if so where were they and what really happened What are the traditions and legends associated with them In the fascinating book Lost Lands Forgotten Realms historian Dr Bob Curran sets out to find the answers by journeying to the far flung corners of the world and to the outer reaches of human imagination In this fascinating encyclopedia of places that time forgot Irish psychologist and historian Dr Bob Curran brings the legends alive Nexus magazine Learned and erudite yet written in an accessible and exceptionally readable style this book is invaluable for those interested in the mysteries of vanished civilizations Brian Haughton author of Hidden History Lost Lands, Forgotten Realms (EasyRead Super Large

18pt Edition) , Lost Lands, Forgotten Realms (Volume 1 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) , Frigid Women Sue Riches, Victoria Riches, Dawn French, 2010-12-01 Men like to conquer fight or subdue the Arctic while we had a different attitude We felt that we had to go along with what we were faced with We tried to have the Arctic on our side instead of confronting it In 1997 a group of 20 women set out to become the world's first all female expedition to the North Pole hoping to raise awareness and support for sufferers of cancer and other illnesses Sue Riches recently recovering from a mastectomy and her daughter Victoria were among them and this is their inspirational story of personal accomplishment

Every Grain of Sand J.A. Wainwright, 2009-08-01 Universal in scope yet focusing on recognizable Canadian places this collection of essays connects individuals love of nature to larger social issues to cultural activities and to sustainable technology Subjects include activism in Cape Breton eco feminism Native perspectives on the history of humans relationship with the natural world the inconsistency of humankind's affinity with nature alongside its capacity to destroy and scientific and traditional accounts of evolution and how they can come together for the welfare of Earth's ecology These essays encourage us to break down the power based divisions of centre versus marginal politics to talk with our perceived enemies in environmental wars to consider activism as a personal commitment and to resist the construction of a post natural world Using a combination of personal memoirs and formal essays Every Grain of Sand seeks to involve readers in the extraordinary places they inhabit and usually take for granted and will appeal to both the general reader and to students in humanities social sciences and environmental studies It is unique for its presentation of entirely Canadian perspectives on ecology and environmental issues Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador María

Jesús Hernáez Lerena, 2015-09-18 The Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador is a mythologized place that resonates with tragic adventure polar expeditions and Grand Banks fishing a real and imagined geography with an incredible artistic output that calls for critical discussion This book examines the diversity of this province's literature and culture taking into consideration the expertise of scholars and writers who have first hand knowledge of its unique context Chapters on history travel fiction autobiography poetry theatre storytelling filmmaking and the visual arts provide an up to date survey across a broad range of artistic endeavours as well as close readings of selected texts The questions that fill the pages of Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador arise from the awareness its contributors have of historically shared experiences but also of shared delusions and their essays provoke contemplation beyond the labels local global Newfoundlander Come From Away Aboriginal histories and writing come to the foreground in this panoramic view that balances descriptions of mainstream vernacular and Indigenous cultural productions The final chapter is organized as a multi voiced interview which serves as a supplement to the academic essays Here themes are revisited and personalized as several writers express their feelings about what it means to be a Newfoundlander and an artist As such this book will encourage dialogue about Newfoundland and Labrador's literary and artistic achievements within the international community of readers and researchers
