Makers of the Red Revolution Olivia E. Coolidge, 1966 Makers of the Russian Revolution Georges Haupt, Jean-Jacques Marie, 2017-02-17 Until the publication of this book in 1974 the leaders of the October Revolution remained very badly known This book exhumes the autobiographies written by the men whose actions and ideas have moulded events Unique as sources of documentation on the Bolsheviks these autobiographies encompassing personal and political information up to 1917 add an important historical dimension They allow the reader to appreciate more accurately the role played by each of the protagonists in preparing and carrying out the Revolution and beyond this they put the Bolsheviks of 1917 in the context of their social milieu and of the circumstances that shaped their minds Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan, 2009-01-01 In Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan tells her personal story and the story of her generation of urban middle school graduates sent to the countryside during China's Rustication Movement Based on interviews reminiscences diaries letters and newspaper accounts the work examines the varied and often perplexing experiences of the seventeen million Chinese students sent to work in the countryside between 1953 and 1980 Rich in human drama Pan's book illustrates how life in the countryside transformed the children of Mao from innocent ignorant yet often passionate believers in the Communist Party into independent adults Those same adults would go on to lead the nationwide protests in the winter of 1978-1979 that forced the government to abandon its policy of rustication Richly textured this work successfully blends biography with a wealth of historical insight to bring to life the trials of a generation and to offer Chinese studies scholars a fascinating window into Mao Zedong's China Book jacket USSR: Strategic Survey United States.
