F. Leong, 2022-08-11 Ecclesiastes is a persuasive speech with a rhetoric so unique that it can be easily misunderstood It speaks powerfully to believers as well as nonbelievers because it addresses the question of the meaning of life in the most satisfying way The heart of this book is an expository commentary that interprets Ecclesiastes as authoritative Scripture It seeks to recover the rhetoric of the speech in terms of its comprehensive message on the meaning of life as well as its compelling force to get the message across. Preceding the expositional commentary is an introduction to Ecclesiastes that presents a new approach to outlining and reading Ecclesiastes as a coherent speech. It also presents an overview of the forest, the overall rhetorical flow of the speech from beginning to end. This is to prevent one from getting lost when immersed in the trees of the expositional commentary. Following the expositional commentary are two topical studies to give Ecclesiastes the breadth and depth of coverage it deserves. The first is an interdisciplinary exposition on the meaning of life. The second is an interpretive essay to defend exegetically the interpretation of Ecclesiastes as a coherent speech.

Living Wisely and Well in the Evening of Life Duncan S. Ferguson, 2024-03-29 Living Wisely and Well in the Evening of Life addresses the increasing difficulty of those in our culture who are in the evening of life who must manage a rapidly changing society and a new world being born almost daily. There are several dimensions of life which have become especially difficult for those in this position including loneliness, the sense of being set aside in a changing culture, the cost of medical care, the deep conflicts in our political life, and the increasing sense of not being able to cope. Deep universal values articulated by the apostle Paul in his letter to the Corinthian church must be claimed and internalized. Paul artfully guides those from this church in a complex setting by suggesting a more excellent way in which to live with complexity and challenge. Then and now we need to cultivate a thoughtful and credible faith in our mature years. Second, we must sustain the well-founded hope rooted in our faith in a loving God, especially necessary in the evening of life. In keeping with the teaching of Jesus, we should make unconditional love the central value in life. It is possible to flourish in the evening of life, undergirded by faith, hope, and love.
