Holding Their Ground Alain Durand-Lasserve, Lauren Royston, 2012-05-23 Security of land tenure for the urban poor is now a major problem for developing cities in Africa Asia and Latin America This book presents and analyzes the main conclusions of a comparative research programme on land tenure issues It looks at how solutions can be found and implemented to respond to the demands and needs of the majority of squatters and informal settlements and analyzes how urban stakeholders with different social legal and economic constraints find innovative and flexible solutions The book is intended to fill a gap in the literature on comparative research on tenure policies and should be useful to researchers and professionals involved in defining and instigating tenure upgrading policies and programmes The Hidden Millions

Graham Tipple, Suzanne Speak, 2009-02-26 This book explores the extent causes and characteristics of homelessness in developing countries Bringing together a major review of literature and empirical case studies it is invaluable for those studying researching or working in housing homelessness social policy or urban poverty Drawing on local research in nine countries in the global south this book offers an insight into the lives of homeless people public perceptions of homelessness and the policies and interventions which might variously increase or reduce homelessness Exploring the human context as well as policy and planning it will challenge preconceptions Cities in a Globalizing World Un-Habitat, 2012-06-25 The world has entered the urban millennium Nearly half the world's people are now city dwellers and the rapid increase in urban population is expected to continue mainly in developing countries This historic transition is being further propelled by the powerful forces of globalization The central challenge for the international community is clear to make both urbanization and globalization work for all people instead of leaving billions behind or on the margins Cities in a Globalizing World Global Report on Human Settlements is a comprehensive review of conditions in the world's cities and the prospects for making them better safer places to live in an age of globalization I hope that it will provide all stakeholders foremost among them the urban poor themselves with reliable and timely information with which to set our policies right and get the machinery of urban life moving in a constructive direction From the Foreword by Kofi Annan Secretary General United Nations Cities in a Globalizing World presents a comprehensive review of the world's cities and analyses the positive and negative impacts on human settlements of the global trends towards social and economic integration and the rapid changes in information and communication technologies In this Global Report the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements Habitat draws on specially commissioned and contributed background papers from more than 80 leading international specialists The report focuses on recent trends in human settlements and their implications for poverty inequity and social polarization It develops advance knowledge for urban planning and management policies in support and promotion of inclusive cities and good urban governance This major and influential report is the most authoritative and up to date assessment of human settlements conditions and trends Written in clear non technical language and supported by informative graphics case studies and extensive statistical data it should be an essential tool and reference for academics researchers planners public authorities and civil society organizations around the world Sustainable Urbanisation Adriana Allen,Nicholas You,2002 Urban Informality Ananya Roy,Nezar AlSayyad,2004-01-01 The turn of the century has been a moment of rapid urbanization Much of this urban growth is taking place in the cities of the developing world and much of it in informal settlements This book presents cutting edge research from various world regions to demonstrate these trends The contributions reveal that informal housing is no longer the domain of the urban poor rather it is a significant zone of transactions for the middle class and even transnational elites Indeed the book presents a rich view of urban informality as a system of regulations and norms that governs the use of space and makes possible new forms of social and political power The book is organized as a transnational endeavor It brings together three regional domains of research the Middle East Latin America and South Asia that are rarely in conversation with one another It also unsettles the hierarchy of development and underdevelopment by looking at some First World processes of informality through a Third World research lens
