Making European Space Mobility Power And Territorial Identity:

Making European Space Ole B. Jensen, Tim Richardson, 2004-08-02 Making European Space crystallises and critically examines the key policy ideas emerging in the new field of European spatial planning and explores the arguments surrounding policy themes such as polycentric development sustainability Making European Space, 2004 Making European Space crystallises and critically examines the key policy ideas emerging in the new field of European spatial planning and explores the arguments surrounding policy themes such as polycentric development sustainability Making European Space Ole Brandt Jensen, 2004 Making European Space crystallises and critically examines the key policy ideas emerging in the new field of European spatial planning and explores the arguments surrounding policy themes such as polycentric development sustainability Territory, Identity and Spatial Planning Mark Tewdwr-Jones, Philip Allmendinger, 2006-09-27 This book provides a multi disciplinary study of territory identity and space in a devolved UK through the lens of spatial planning It draws together leading internationally renowned researchers from a variety of disciplines to address the implications of devolution upon spatial planning and the rescaling of UK politics Each contributor offers a different perspective on the core issues in planning today in the context of New Labour's regional project particularly the government's concern with business competitiveness and key themes are illustrated with important case studies throughout The Digital Transformation of the European Border Regime Paul Trauttmansdorff, 2024-05-30 This book offers an in depth investigation into the digitisation processes of Europe's border regime It shows how sociotechnical imaginations of future borders drive forward the expansion of databases in the European governance of mobility With a focus on the European Union Agency eu LISA one of the most significant and rapidly advancing actors in the digital border regime the book serves as a gateway to understanding the key agents' visions, technologies and practices at work Asking broader questions about exclusion, discrimination, violence and mobility rights this is an original contribution to our understanding of future borders in Europe European Heritage, Dialogue and Digital Practices Areti Galani, Rhiannon Mason, Gabi Arrigoni, 2019-07-09 European Heritage Dialogue and Digital Practices focuses on the intersection of heritage dialogue and digital culture in the context of Europe Responding to the increased emphasis on the potential for heritage and digital technologies to foster dialogue and engender communitarian identities in Europe the book explores what kind of role digital tools, platforms and practices play in supporting and challenging dialogue about heritage in the region Drawing on fieldwork involving several European museums and heritage organisations the chapters in this volume critically engage with the role of digital technology in heritage work and its association with ideas of democratisation, multivocality and possibilities for feedback and dialogic engagement in the emerging digital public sphere The book also provides a framework for understanding dialogue in relation to other commonly used approaches in heritage institutions such as participation, engagement and intercultural exchange The authors map out the complex landscape of digitally mediated heritage practices in Europe both official and unofficial by capturing three distinct areas of practice perceptions and applications of digitally mediated dialogues around heritage within European museums and cultural policy facilitation of dialogue between European museums and communities through participatory design approaches and non official mobilisation of heritage on social media European Heritage Dialogue and Digital Practices will be of interest to both scholars and students in the fields of heritage and museum studies digital heritage media studies and communication the digital humanities sociology and memory studies The book will also appeal to policy makers and professionals working in a variety of different fields

Overcoming Fragmentation in Southeast Europe Panayiotis Getimis, 2017-11-28 With the expansion of the European Union the countries of Southeast Europe have finally been brought together within one socio political entity The restructuring of these economies following globalization and neoliberalization has meant that this region has become much more open to geopolitical shifts and trends While the various countries have all entered into the slow process of European integration the historic fragmentation of this region has led to various conflicts and contradictions in the restructuring and transition of national economies This volume provides a theoretical and comparative overview which examines the prospects for spatial cohesion in this region With the need to handle persisting problems and conflicts from the past while coping with new economic and political structures Southeast Europe proves to be a challenging yet fruitful testing ground for how best to overcome fragmentation and establish a long term process of social and economic integration

Planning Cultures in Europe Frank Othengrafen, 2016-12-05 Bringing together an interdisciplinary team from across the EU this book connects elements of cultural and planning theories to explain differences and peculiarities among EU member states A culturized planning model is introduced to consider the rules of the game how culture affects planning practices not only on an explicit surface but also on a hidden implicit level The model consists of three analytical dimensions planning artifacts planning environment and societal environment This book adopts these dimensions to compare planning cultures of different European countries This sheds light not only on the organizational or institutional structure of planning but also the influence of deeper cultural values and layers on planning and implementation processes

Europe's Changing Geography Nicola Bellini, Ulrich Hilpert, 2013-08-21 European macro regions Euroregions and other forms of inter regional cross border cooperation have helped to shape new scenarios and new relational spaces which may generate opportunities for economic development while redefining the political and economic meaning of national borders This book is based on a number of key case studies which are crucial to understanding the complex web of political economic and cultural factors that shape the heterogeneous picture of Europe's new geography This book provides a fresh view on this phenomenon with a realistic approach shedding light on its complexity as well as on its ambiguities The new macro regions are interpreted with an approach recognizing the importance of institutionalization but also their flexible configuration and blurred borders The book also raises the issue of credibility and legitimacy arguing that inter regional cooperation has to be removed from the foggy realm of the exchanges between local political and bureaucratic elites in order to be clearly and concretely motivated and functional to key strategic objectives of the regions Finally the authors suggest a complementarity between relations based on proximity and wider possibly global networks where some territories and especially metropolises find opportunities based on virtual proximity Europe s Changing Geography provides a substantial re appraisal of a key phenomenon in the process of European integration today It will be of interest both to scholars of the political economy of European regionalism and to practitioners

Mobilising Place Management Claus Lassen, Lea Holst Laursen, 2020-11-12 Mobilising Place Management makes an important contribution to the mobilities field by arguing for the need to rethink place management It takes a point of departure in the mobilities turn and relational place thinking while exploring the relationship between place and mobility In a world of increasing mobility and global competition between nations cities and urban regions the managing of places seems more relevant than ever before By examining various examples of place and mobilities that range from the airport rural village tourist site port city to the city region this book argues that the management of places can be informed and enhanced by installing a greater awareness and understanding of mobility This insight could potentially improve the ability of current place management to translate a relational and mobilities orientated thinking into concrete actions instructions interventions designs plans policies and management control systems The book will be essential reading for researchers practitioners and students in the field of place management and across urban studies planning design geography sociology tourism transport and history
