interconnections between these elements this symposium aims to shed light on the multifaceted nature of cultural landscapes and their significance in shaping societies and human well being Cornelia Hahn Oberlander Susan

Herrington,2014-01-01 Cornelia Hahn Oberlander is one of the most important landscape architects of the twentieth century yet despite her lasting influence few outside the field know her name Her work has been instrumental in the development of the late twentieth century design ethic and her early years working with architectural luminaries such as Louis Kahn and Dan Kiley prepared her to bring a truly modern and audaciously abstract sensibility to the landscape design tradition In Cornelia Hahn Oberlander Making the Modern Landscape Susan Herrington draws upon archival research site analyses and numerous interviews with Oberlander and her collaborators to offer the first biography of this adventurous and influential landscape architect Born in 1921 Oberlander fled Nazi Germany at the age of eighteen with her family going on to become one of the few women to graduate from Harvard University's Graduate School of Design in the late 1940s For six decades she has practiced socially responsible and ecologically sensitive planning for public landscapes including the 1970s design of the Robson Square landscape and its adjoining Provincial Law Courts one of Vancouver's most famous spaces Herrington places Oberlander within a larger social and aesthetic context chronicling both her personal and professional trajectory and her work in New York Philadelphia Vancouver Seattle Berlin Toronto and Montreal Oberlander is a progenitor of some of the most significant currents informing landscape architecture today particularly in the area of ecological focus In her thorough biography Herrington draws much deserved attention to one of the truly important figures in landscape architecture

Rubens Alexander Vergara,Herlinda Cabrero,Museo del Prado,2004 In 1609 Rubens painted a large Adoration of the Magi for the Antwerp Town Hall The painting made its way to the King of Spain and Rubens arriving at the Spanish court in 1628 repainted extended and refashioned the picture to his own satisfaction incorporating a self portrait The painting now in the collection of the Prado incorporates a dialogue by the painter himself The picture has been newly conserved and following the dialogue has been made easier by the existence of a copy in a private collection of the 1609 version of the much altered work It has been the fascinating task of Prado curator Alejandro Vergara and the Prado conservation department to investigate the changes Rubens made and their motivation while Joost vander Auwara provides a new analysis employing new documents and rereading known ones of the intentions and iconography of the original Antwerp commission

Mapping American Culture Wayne Franklin,Michael C. Steiner,1992 Dry Place Patricia L. Price,2004 Landscape is the space of negotiation between human beings and the physical world and rarely are the negotiations more complex and subtle than those conducted through the desert landscape along the Mexico U S border Patricia L Price views the shaping of the landscape on and around the border through various narratives that have sought to establish claims to these dry lands Most prominent are the accounts of Anglo American expansionism and Manifest Destiny juxtaposed with the Chicano nationalist tale of Aztlan in the twentieth century all constituting collective contending claims to the U S Southwest

Demonstrating how stories can become vehicles for reshaping places and identities Price considers characters old and new who inhabit the contemporary borderlands between Mexico and the United States ranging from longstanding manifestations of good and evil in the figures of the Virgin of Guadalupe and the Devil to a collection of lay saints embodying current concerns Dry Place weaves together theoretical insights with field based inquiry autobiography and creative writing to arrive at a textured understanding of the bordered landscape of late modern subjectivity Patricia L Price is associate professor of geography in the Department of International Relations at Florida International University in Miami Forthcoming Books

Rose Arny,2004 The Cambridge Handbook of Material Culture Studies Lu Ann De Cunzo,Catharine Dann
Roeber,2022-06-09 Material culture studies is an interdisciplinary field that examines the relationships between people and their things the production history preservation and interpretation of objects It draws on theory and practice from disciplines in the social sciences and humanities such as anthropology archaeology history and museum studies Written by leading international scholars this Handbook provides a comprehensive view of developments methodologies and theories It is divided into five broad themes embracing both classic and emerging areas of research in the field Chapters outline transformative moments in material culture scholarship and present research from around the world focusing on multiple material and digital media that show the scope and breadth of this exciting field Written in an easy to read style it is essential reading for students researchers and professionals with an interest in material culture The Other Side John Patrick Taylor,2008-07-08 The Other Side is the first major ethnographic and historical study of the Sia Raga people of north Pentecost Island a region that was home to the late Father Walter Lini Vanuatu s first prime minister Exploring Raga social spatial and historical consciousness this richly poetic account provides important theoretical contributions to ongoing debates in Pacific anthropology about the relation between structure and history and place and time It reveals important insights into the convergence of indigenous and exogenous cosmologies and hegemonies historically and shows how these are implicated in contemporary social ritual and material cultural expressions These analyses engage with broader concerns relating to colonial and postcolonial identities political economy and globalization in island Melanesia The Other Side combines original and substantial ethnography with sophisticated theoretical reflection that will appeal broadly across the field of anthropology It will also be of considerable value to scholars of Pacific and Melanesian history politics and society The clear writing and entertaining narrative combine to create a work that is accessible to a wide audience The volume s critical and reflective analysis of anthropological research makes it a valuable teaching aid in courses that focus on ethnographic methods and writing Students in Pacific anthropology will find it especially useful 37
