Making Moral Decisions Louis O. Kattsoff, 2012-12-06 Making Moral Decisions Jean Holm, John Bowker, 2001-01-01
Themes in Religious Studies series Algorithmic Morality: The Ethics of Machine Decision-Making Ahmad Musa, 2024-12-27 In a world increasingly driven by technology the decisions made by machines are no longer just an afterthought they shape our lives our societies and our futures Algorithmic Morality The Ethics of Machine Decision Making dives deep into the complex and often controversial realm of artificial intelligence and machine learning exploring the ethical implications of algorithms that decide everything from hiring practices to judicial outcomes This thought provoking book examines the profound questions of fairness accountability and transparency that arise when machines are tasked with making decisions that impact human lives Through a mix of case studies expert insights and real world examples it probes the moral dilemmas that technology presents such as bias in algorithms the potential for unintended consequences and the limits of machine autonomy Algorithmic Morality also challenges readers to confront the broader philosophical questions surrounding the role of technology in a rapidly changing world Can machines be trusted to act ethically Who is responsible when algorithms go wrong And how can we ensure that technological progress is aligned with the values of society This book is a must read for anyone interested in understanding the intersection of ethics technology and society It is an essential resource for students professionals and anyone concerned with the future of AI and the moral compass that guides it

Handbook of Administrative Ethics Terry Cooper, 2019-02-21 Delineating implications for administrative ethics from other fields such as sociology psychology and philosophy this reference provides a comprehensive review of administrative ethics in the public sector Detailing the context within which contemporary ethics training has developed the book examines the effectiveness of ethics training legal and organizational devices for encouraging desired conduct and other topics of particular relevance to the political and social contexts of public administration Written by over 25 leading scholars in public administration ethics the book creates a taxonomy for administrative ethics using the categories of modern philosophy

The Last Invention Suman Khalia, 2025-05-19 Humanity s greatest invention may also be its last At what point does intelligence stop being artificial The moment we teach AI to think we must ask will it still need a teacher We designed it to be perfect It designed itself to replace us The singularity wasn t the end of intelligence It was the end of human intelligence The code was flawless The error was assuming it needed us 01001000 01101111 01110000 01100101 Ethics and Decision
