Making of Pakistan Noor ul Haq, 1997 The Dynamics of States Klaus Schlichte, 2016-12-05 State domination in the non Western world is hallmarked by its constantly shifting character This stimulating book develops a new approach to the study of state formation and state erosion to explain dynamics that neither follow the pathways of development nor the rule of stagnation that dependency theory once suggested Carefully edited by Klaus Schlichte this book provides a fresh angle to the study of states with an attempt to overcome Weber with Weber The approach focuses on the historical authenticity of states and their institutional frameworks describing the trajectories taken as they react to the effects of changes in their international and local social environments The emphasis laid on the specific characteristics of individual states does not however lead to the theoretical difficulty of a new contextual relativism The conceptual design employs sociological categories developed by Max Weber Norbert Elias Michel Foucault Pierre Bourdieu and others Asian Strategic and Military Perspective Ravi Shekhar Narain Singh Singh, 2005 Nation states are compelled to function within the parameters of their respective geo political and geo strategic environment The behavior of nations and the interplay of their strengths and vulnerabilities particularly their foreign and military posturing is predicated on geographic political and economic factors Besides historical imperatives also coalesce in determining the way States shape their policies Many Asian countries today are threatened by a war that is of a subtle and imperceptible nature There is also a paradigm shift in the perception of national security especially with the blurring of the notion of internal and external security This is reflected in the growing military expenditures of several Asian countries This volume attempts to examine the critical factors that influence the foreign and defense policies of Asian countries It provides comprehensive information and analyses of the strengths needs aspirations and compulsions that shape their strategic and military outlook Military, State and Society in Pakistan H.
