Making A Living While Making A Difference:

Making a Living While Making a Difference Melissa Everett, 2007-11-01 Making a Living While Making a Difference is a timely and highly informative guide to a working life built on principled choices and an entrepreneurial attitude. It's about greener enterprises and technologies, socially responsible business, innovative nonprofit work, and reinventing government. It's really about putting the pieces together with creativity and hope. Working people everywhere are realizing that personal success is interconnected with healthy communities and the environment. We are all looking for our unique creative edge with work that allows us to make an impact close to home and in the world. The substantially revised third edition of Making a Living While Making a Difference acknowledges that while the path to finding a life's work that is satisfying, sustainable, and financially feasible is not easy, there are simple steps to follow. An empowering ten-step program includes: Paying attention to what you most care about; Stabilizing your life with regard to time, money, and relationships; Assessing your core aptitudes and attitudes; Cultivating the entrepreneurial skills to create the workplace you want, whether or not you are in business for yourself. With dozens of rich personal stories and a thorough look at the options, this is the comprehensive life and work guide for people who care about their communities and the planet. Melissa Everett is a career counselor, group facilitator, and educator in the field of sustainable development and is the executive director of Sustainable Hudson Valley.

Making a Living While Making a Difference Melissa Everett, 2007 Finding a Job Worth Having, 4th Edition Vicki Lind, MS, Cynthia Dettman, JD, MSW, 2012-06-29 This expanded handbook will help people find a meaningful career direction in Portland's bustling job market. If you are wanting to explore a brand new career, this book is for you. Appendices give special attention to creative, health care, education, social justice, and sustainability communities. Second-Act Careers

Nancy Collamer, 2013-01-08 A career guide that rethinks the golden years, this handbook offers 50 income models for creating flexible, fulfilling, and profitable work during the encore stage of one's career. RETHINK YOUR RETIREMENT For many people, retirement is no longer a trifecta of golf, grandkids, and gardening; it's an opportunity for new pursuits that involve both earning income and exploring personal passions. If you're planning for retirement or already at retirement age but want to continue working, whether to supplement your income or to stay mentally and physically active, veteran career coach Nancy Collamer shows how to identify your favorite interests and expertise and repackage them into more than fifty ways to earn income. These second acts range from the traditional part-time employment consulting to newer Internet-based options, teaching online, writing a blog. With a prescriptive approach to securing second-act careers that are flexible, fulfilling, and fun, this book offers a wide variety of income-generating examples as well as exercises to clarify your lifestyle goals and help you plan for your next move. Second Act Careers shows how to create a profitable and meaningful semi-retirement on your own terms and in your own way. Making a Living While Making a Difference Melissa Everett, 1995 In a non-judgmental, supportive style, Everett leads the reader through self-tests and checklists that help examine personal inclinations.

and goals for a career with a conscience assess its feasibility and distinguish realistic idealistic goals from impractical idealistic goals

Commentary on Aristotle's Categories Sebastian Walshe, 2025-03-07 Aristotle's Categories remains one of the foundational works in the history of Philosophy At the foundations of all human thought and argument is the precise understanding of our words and in his Categories Aristotle proves to be a master unsurpassed in providing the tools necessary for defining our words and understanding the things signified by them Nevertheless the Categories is a text which is at times obscure and difficult to understand for a modern student Therefore we have provided this volume to remedy the difficulties a modern student may have in understanding the Categories Written in clear style this line by line explanation of the Categories alternates between a universal overview and division of the text and a detailed question and answer format which raises many of the questions modern students have about difficult passages Liberal use is made also of the ancient Greek and Latin commentators on the Categories

Everyday Equalities Ruth Fincher, Kurt Iveson, Helga Leitner, Valerie Preston, 2019-08-13 A timely new look at coexisting without assimilating in multicultural cities If city life is a being together of strangers what forms of being together should we strive for in cities with ethnic and racial diversity Everyday Equalities seeks evidence of progressive political alternatives to racialized inequality that are emerging from everyday encounters in Los Angeles Melbourne Sydney and Toronto settler colonial cities that established through efforts to dispossess and eliminate indigenous societies have been destinations for waves of immigrants from across the globe ever since Everyday Equalities finds such alternatives being developed as people encounter one another in the process of making a home earning a living moving around the city and forming collective actions or communities Here four leading scholars in critical urban geography come together to deliver a powerful and cohesive message about the meaning of equality in contemporary cities Drawing on both theoretical reflection and urban ethnographic research they offer the formulation being together in difference as equals as a normative frame to reimagine the meaning and pursuit of equality in today's urban multicultures As the examples in Everyday Equalities indicate much emotional labor combined with a willingness to learn from each other negotiate across differences and agitate for change goes into constructing environments that foster being together in difference as equals Importantly the authors argue a commitment to equality is not only a hope for a future city but also a way of being together in the present

Making All the Difference Martha Minow, 1990 Martha Minow here takes a hard look at the way our legal system functions She confronts a variety of dilemmas of difference resulting from contradictory legal strategies strategies that attempt to correct inequalities by sometimes recognizing and sometimes ignoring differences Minow argues in effect for a reconstructed jurisprudence based on the ability to recognize and work with perceptible forms of difference
