Making And Remaking Asian America Through Immigration Policy 1850 1990:

Making and Remaking Asian America Through Immigration Policy, 1850-1990 Bill Ong Hing, 1993-01-01 In 1882 Congress enacted immigration legislation excluding idiots lunatics and Chinese laborers Eventually a series of laws restricted the entry of every Asian group though over a period of decades these laws were repealed one by one The most dramatic change in immigration law came in 1965 Though designed to encourage European immigration the unintended result of changes in the selection system was that the Asian immigrant population jumped from one million in 1965 to seven million in 1990 This is the first comprehensive study of how U S immigration policies have shaped demographically economically and socially the six largest Asian American communities Chinese Filipino Japanese Korean Vietnamese and Asian Indian For each group the book offers detailed information much of it previously unknown or too scattered to be useful on gender ratios age distributions foreign versus American born ratios geographic settlement employment profiles income and poverty The author also focuses on the impact immigration policies have had on three important areas of Asian American life experience educational performance political participation and self identity He simply questions the validity of the images of Asian Americans as academic whiz kids their communities as relatively lacking in strong political interests and the presence of a unified Asian American identity Throughout the author counters the frequent lumping together of Asian Americans by demonstrating their tremendous diversity of background history motivation and achievement As their numbers have grown the visibility of Asian Americans has prompted policymakers scholars journalists community organizers activists and of course restrictionists to take Asian Americans more seriously At the same time they have sometimes become the target of racist hostility which is occasionally physical but more often sociopolitical and economic such as the recent concerns over the disproportionate number of Asian Americans admitted to prestigious colleges and universities Serious gaps in fundamental information about Asian America persist leading to serious distortions This pioneering work of research and analysis is intended as a step toward a better understanding of relationships and experiences that few have bothered to study

Making Of Asian America Pei-Te Lien, 2010-06-17 Asian Americans are widely believed to be passive and compliant participants in the U S political process if they participate at all In this ground breaking book Pei te Lien maps the actions and strategies of Asian Americans as they negotiate a space in the American political arena Professor Lien looks at political participation by Asian Americans prior to 1965 and then examines at both organizational and mass politics levels how race ethnicity and transnationalism help to construct a complex American electorate She looks not only at rates of participation among Asian Americans as compared with blacks Latinos American Indians and non Hispanic whites but also among specific groups of Asian Americans Chinese Japanese Filipinos Koreans Asian Indians and Vietnamese She also discusses how gender socioeconomic class and place of birth affect political participation With documentation ranging from historical narrative to opinion survey data Professor Lien creates a picture of a diverse group of politically active people who are intent on carving out a place for themselves in American political life Asian and Pacific Islander Americans in Congress, 1900-2017 Albin Kowalewski, 2017 The Peoples Of Las Vegas Jerry L Simich, Thomas C. Wright, 2005-03-07 Beneath the glitzy surface of the resorts and the seemingly cookie cutter suburban sprawl of Las Vegas lies a vibrant and diverse ethnic life People of varied origins make up the population of nearly two million and yet until now little mention of the city has been made in studies and discussion of ethnicity or immigration The Peoples of Las Vegas One City Many Faces fills this void by presenting the work of seventeen scholars of history political science sociology anthropology law urban studies cultural studies literature social work and ethnic studies to provide profiles of thirteen of the city s many ethnic groups The book s introduction and opening chapters explore the historical and demographic context of these groups as well as analyze the economic and social conditions that make Las Vegas so attractive to recent immigrants Each group is the subject of the subsequent chapters outlining migration motivations and processes economic pursuits cultural institutions and means of transmitting culture involvement in the broader community ties to homelands and recent demographic trends Asian Americans in New England Monica Chiu, 2009 The first interdisciplinary contribution to studies about Asian Americans in New England Race and Politics Leland T. Saito, 2023-08-31 Located a mere fifteen minutes from Los Angeles the San Gabriel Valley is an incubator for California s new ethnic politics Here Latinos and Asian Americans are the dominant groups Politics are Latino dominated while a large infusion of Chinese immigrants and capital has made the San Gabriel Valley the center of the nation s largest Chinese ethnic economy The white population meanwhile has dropped from an overwhelming majority in 1970 to a minority in 1990 Leland T Saito presents an insider s view of the political economic and cultural implications of this ethnic mix He examines how diverse residents of the region have worked to overcome their initial antagonisms and develop new more effective political alliances Tracing grassroots political organization along racial and ethnic lines Race and Politics focuses on the construction of new identities in general and the panethnic affiliation Asian American in particular Indian Diaspora , 2008-01-01 Indian Diaspora Social Gerontology Nursing Multiculturalism Education In historic and ethnographic accounts of Indians living in diaspora the elderly seem to receive much less attention than the new generation and its progress prosperity and success Using critical pedagogy approach this book attempts to close that gap by focusing on the voices of the Punjabi Bengali Sindhi and Gujarati diasporic Indians elderly living in five countries Learning to listen to the voices of these seniors may enable professors teachers students policy makers and parents to work towards building democratic societies Asian American Society Mary Yu Danico, 2014-08-19 Asian Americans are a growing minority population in the United States After a 46 percent population growth between 2000 and 2010 according to the 2010 Census there are 17.3 million Asian Americans today Yet Asian Americans as a category are a diverse set of peoples from over 30 distinctive Asian origin subgroups that defy simplistic descriptions or generalizations They face a wide range of issues and problems within the larger American social universe despite the persistence of common stereotypes that label

Weiner,2006-06 Americans Without Law shows how the racial boundaries of civic life are based on widespread perceptions about the relative capacity of minority groups for legal behavior which Mark S Weiner calls juridical racialism The book follows the history of this civic discourse by examining the legal status of four minority groups in four successive historical periods American Indians in the 1880s Filipinos after the Spanish American War Japanese immigrants in the 1920s and African Americans in the 1940s and 1950s Weiner reveals the significance of juridical racialism for each group and in turn Americans as a whole by examining the work of anthropological social scientists who developed distinctive ways of understanding racial and legal identity and through decisions of the U S Supreme Court that put these ethno legal views into practice Combining history anthropology and legal analysis the book argues that the story of juridical racialism shows how race and citizenship served as a nexus for the professionalization of the social sciences the growth of national state power economic modernization and modern practices of the self
