Making Rights Claims Karen Zivi, 2012-01-19 Is the act of rights claiming a form of political contestation that advances democracy Rather than simply taking a side for or against rights claiming Making Rights Claims argues that understanding and assessing the relationship between rights and democracy requires a new approach to the study of rights Zivi combines insights from speech act theory with recent developments in democratic and feminist thought to develop a theory of the performativity of rights claiming

You Can't Go Wrong Doing Right Robert J. Brown, 2019-01-15 An unforgettable account of a quietly remarkable life Robert Brown's memoir takes readers behind the scenes of pivotal moments from the 20th century where the lessons he learned at his grandmother's knee helped him shape America as we know it today Called a world-class power broker by the Washington Post Robert Brown has been a sought-after counselor for an impressive array of the famous and powerful including every American president since John F. Kennedy But as a child born into poverty in the 1930s Robert was raised by his grandmother to think differently about success For example The best way to influence others is to be helpful she told him And You can't go wrong by doing right Fueled by these lessons on humble principled service Brown went on to play a pivotal mostly unseen role alongside the great and the powerful of our time trailing the mob in 1950s Harlem with a young Robert F. Kennedy helping the white corporate leadership at Woolworth integrate their lunch counters channeling money from American businesses to the Civil Rights movement accompanying Coretta Scott King at her request to Memphis the day after her husband had been shot advising Richard Nixon on how to support black entrepreneurship becoming the only person allowed to visit Nelson Mandela in Pollsmoor prison in Cape Town Full of unbelievable moments and reminders that the path to influence runs through a life of generosity YOU CAN T GO WRONG DOING RIGHT blends a heartwarming historically fascinating account with memorable lessons that will speak to the dreamer in all of us Participation in EU Rule-making Joana Mendes,2011-04-07 The limited scope of participation in the making of EU law remains a continued source of controversy featuring prominently in recent institutional and political developments that have been shaping the EU s constitutional framework most intensely in the follow up of the Commission s White Paper on Governance Yet little attention has been paid to participation rights as a means of ensuring the procedural protection of persons affected by EU regulation in its diverse forms This is a dimension of the rule of law that has been largely ignored by EU legislative and judicial bodies Not only the legislator but also the Court of Justice and the Court of First Instance tend to adhere to excessively formal conceptions of participation rights that are premised on the right to be heard in individual procedures as well as to a restrictive view regarding the relationships between the citizens and the administration This book shows why in the face of new regulatory developments these conceptions are currently inadequate to ensure the legal protection of rights and interests affected by EU regulation Combining a conceptual analysis with thorough empirical scrutiny this book assesses the scope of participation rights in EU law against their rationales and underlying legal values It makes a case for the extension of participation rights to new situations and new types of procedures in particular those that would generally fall within the category of rulemaking It brings distinct normative insights into a crucial theme of EU administrative law and makes a topical and timely contribution to the increasingly notable theme of public participation in EU regulation Joanna Mendes 2009 thesis upon which Participation in EU Rule Making is based was awarded the the European University Institute Florence Mauro Cappelletti Prize for the best doctoral thesis using a methodology of comparative law A Young Man's Guide to Making Right Choices Jim George,2011-08-01 Guiding a boy toward making right choices will equip him to think carefully about his decisions assuring a more fulfilling and successful life In this book Jim George focuses on all the high points of a young man s life the things that matter most Teen guys will learn why prayer and Bible reading are so essential what makes for the best kinds of friendships how school and social skills contribute to a strong future how to stand strong against temptation and peer pressure what contributes to healthy and biblical perspectives on dating and purity Young men will enjoy Jim s balance of biblical insight personal anecdotes and candid forthrightness And they ll gain the skills they need for making right choices in response to all the challenges that come their way George D.
