Making Of The Soviet System The:

The Making of the Soviet System Moshe Lewin, 1985 Moshe Lewin traces the transformation of Russian society and the Russian political system in the period between the two world wars a transformation that was to lead to Stalinism in the 1930s Lewin focuses on the changes stemming from war revolution civil war and industrialization and he discusses such topics as rural society and religion in the twentieth century the background of Soviet collectivization Soviet prewar policies of agricultural procurement the kolkhoz and the muzhik Leninism and Bolshevism industrial relations during the five year plans of 1928 1941 and the social background of Stalinism In his introduction Lewin examines the political ideological and cultural developments that accompanied or in some cases resulted from these changes Through this comprehensive approach to understanding the origins and problems of Stalinism Lewin makes a significant contribution to the study of Russia s social history before the revolution as well as in the Soviet period Jacket Soviet System, The Fischer, George, The Making and Breaking of the Soviet System Christopher Read, 2001 Drawing on a wide range of post Soviet materials Christopher Read examines the reasons for the successes and failures of the Soviet system He argues that the underlying reasons for the system s collapse can be found in the contradictions of the revolution which gave birth to it The consequences are traced from Stalin to Gorbachev s doomed attempt to transform the Soviet system Particular attention is given to the divergence between the aspirations of the leadership and the social evolution of ordinary Russians Debates on Stalinism Mark Edele, 2020-06-11 Debates on Stalinism introduces major debates about Stalinism during and after the Cold War Did Stalinism form a system in its own right or was it a mere stage in the overall development of Soviet society Was it an aberration from Leninism or the logical conclusion of Marxism Was its violence the revenge of the Russian past or the result of a revolutionary mindset Was Stalinism the work of a madman or the product of social forces beyond his control The book shows the complexities of historiographical debates where evidence politics personality and biography are strongly entangled Debates on Stalinism allows readers to better understand not only the history of history writing but also contemporary controversies and conflicts in the successor states of the Soviet Union in particular Russia and Ukraine The Soviet Union and the Construction of the Global Market Oscar Sanchez-Sibony, 2023-09-14 Oscar Sanchez Sibony reveals the origins of our current era in the dissolution of the institutions that governed the architecture of energy and finance during the Bretton Woods era He shows how in the second half of the 1960s the Soviet Union sought to dismantle the compartmentalized nature of Bretton Woods in order to escape its material ostracism and pave a path to global finance and exchange that the United States had vetoed during the 1950s and 1960s Through the construction of a set of pipelines that helped Europe s energy regime change from coal to oil and gas the Soviet Union succeeded in developing market relations and a relationship with Western capital as durable as the pipelines themselves He shows how a history of the development of capitalism needs to integrate the socialist world in bringing about the new form of capitalism that regiments our lives today Politics and the
