Manhood and the Making of the Military Dr Anders Ahlbäck, 2014-10-28 The creation of Finland's national conscription army in the wake of its independence from Russia in 1917 aroused intense but conflicting emotions This book examines the struggles of a new army to find popular acceptance and support and explores the ways that images of manhood were used in the controversies Ahlbäck places the situation of interwar Finland within a broad European context to reveal the conflicts surrounding compulsory military service and the impact of the Great War on masculinities and constructions of gender

Becoming Someone New Enoch Lambert, John Schwenkler, 2020-07-17 Suppose you're offered an opportunity to experience something that is unlike anything you have ever encountered but that's all you know aside from the fact that the experience is physically safe and morally acceptable How do you decide whether to take up the offer Several philosophers have recently argued that we are in similar situations for more of our decisions than we usually recognize Are they right What resources can we draw on to create such situations Are they enough to satisfy our aims of making the best decisions we can especially in high stakes situations This volume brings together philosophers and psychologists to investigate the phenomenon of transformative change and a host of fascinating questions it prompts Taking their departure from seminal work on transformative choice and experience by L A Paul and Edna Ullmann Margalit the authors pursue fundamental questions concerning the nature of rationality the limits of the imagination and the metaphysics of the self They also strike out into new areas including value theory aesthetics moral and political philosophy Several chapters present the results of experimental investigation into the psychology of transformation self concept and moral learning

Speaking the Truth about Oneself Michel Foucault, 2021-10-07 Speaking the Truth about Oneself is composed of lectures that acclaimed French philosopher Michel Foucault delivered in 1982 at the University of Toronto As is characteristic of his later work he is concerned here with the care and cultivation of the self which becomes the central theme of the second and third volumes of his famous History of Sexuality published in French in 1984 the month of his death and which are explored here in a striking and typically illuminating fashion Throughout his career Foucault had always been interested in the question of how constellations of knowledge and power produce and constitute subjects But in the last phase of his life he became especially interested not only in how subjects are constituted by outside forces but in how they constitute themselves In this lecture series and accompanying seminar we find Foucault focused on antiquity starting with classical Greece the early Roman dynasties and concluding with fourth and fifth century Christian monasticism Foucault's claim is that in these periods we see the development of a new kind of act speaking the truth about oneself as the locus of a new form of subjectivity which he deemed important not just for historical reasons but also as something modernity could harness anew or adapt to its own purposes On Man's Power over himself to prevent or control insanity, etc John BARLOW (F.R.S.),1843 On Man's Power Over Himself To Prevent or Control Insanity John Barlow,2024-04-17 Reprint of the original first published in 1843 The Redeemer's Tears Wept Over Lost Souls; and Two Discourses, on Self-dedication and on Yielding Ourselves to God John Howe (of Magdalen College, Oxford.),1837 Modern Hospital ,1925

Judging and Understanding Dr Pedro Alexis Tabensky,2012-10-01 This collection embodies a debate that explores what could be characterised as the tension between judging and understanding It seems that after a particular threshold of understanding of the basic facts leading to a given moral transgression the more we understand the context and motives leading to crime the more likely we are to abstain from harsh retributive judgement Martha Nussbaum's essay Equity and Mercy included in this collection is the philosophical starting point of this debate and Bernhard Schlink's novel The Reader a novel exploring the tension between judging and understanding among other things is used as a case study by most contributors Some contributors situated at one end of the spectrum of views represented in this collection argue for the wholesale elimination of our practices of retribution in the light of the tension between judging and understanding while contributors on the other side of the spectrum argue that the tension does not actually exist A whole array of intermediate positions including Nussbaum's are represented This anthology is comprised of nearly all specially commissioned essays bringing together work dealing with the moral metaphysical epistemological and phenomenological issues required for properly understanding whether in fact there is a tension between judging and understanding and what the moral and legal implications may be of accepting or rejecting this tension The Redeemer's Tears Wept Over Lost Souls; and Two Discourses, on Self-dedication, And, on Yielding Ourselves to God. ...
