Nation Building Eric Bjornlund, National Democratic Institute for International Affairs, 1990-01-01 The UN's Role in Nation-Building: From the Congo to Iraq James Dobbins, Seth G. Jones, Keith Crane, Andrew Rathmell, Brett Steele, 2001-03-29 Reviews UN efforts to transform eight unstable countries into democratic peaceful and prosperous partners and compares those missions with U S nation building operations The UN provides the most suitable institutional framework for nation building missions that require fewer than 20 000 men one with a comparatively low cost structure a comparatively high success rate and the greatest degree of international legitimacy The UN's Role in Nation-building James Dobbins, 2005 Reviews UN efforts to transform eight unstable countries into democratic peaceful and prosperous partners and compares those missions with U S nation building operations The UN provides the most suitable institutional framework for nation building missions that require fewer than 20 000 men one with a comparatively low cost structure a comparatively high success rate and the greatest degree of international legitimacy Nation-Building , The United Nations in Namibia , 2003 This publication presents a briefing on the programme of activities that the UN as technical co operation partner with the Government of Namibia will implement for the period 2002 2005 The first part of the publication highlights the UN common objectives and activities and the instruments and mechanisms in place through which the UN System as a whole in partnership with the government civil society donors and the private sector strives towards the achievement of the two strategic objectives poverty and inequality reduction and HIV AIDS containment The second part in loose leaf format project profiles is a synopsis of the projects of most of the UN programme and or funding agencies present in the countries Foreword Leveraging for Success in United Nations Peace Operations Jean Krasno, Bradd C. Hayes, Donald C. Daniel, 2003-09-30 Peacekeeping has become one of the most important tasks of the United Nations with more than 55 missions created since 1948 Peacekeeping is one of the only multilateral tools that the member states have to address conflicts in all parts of the world Over 44 000 troops from 90 countries are deployed today Drawing on first hand accounts of participants in past peacekeeping successes and failures this study focuses on how better to ensure success through the use of leverage as a central tool While the threat of military force can be used to compel compliance other sources of leverage such as the threat of sanctions or the withdrawal of loans can also be effective Economic incentives also provide vital leverage Moral suasion and leadership skills are critical as well The choice of key personnel particularly in the role of the Special Representatives of the Secretary General as in the utilization of Jacques Kline in Eastern Slavonia has also proved be key These case studies carefully examine how a confluence of tools have been brought to bear in circumstances ranging from East Timor and Namibia Women and Nation Building Cheryl Benard, 2008 Using a case study of Afghanistan this study examines gender specific impacts of conflict and post conflict and the ways they may affect women differently than they affect men It analyzes the role of women in the nation building process and considers outcomes that might occur if current practices were modified Recommendations are made for improving data collection in conflict zones and for enhancing the outcomes of nation building programs United Nations Peace Operations in Africa Saleem Ahmad Khan,2023-03-22 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the United Nations peace operations in Africa with a focus on civil military coordination and state building With case studies from Sudan South Sudan and Congo it examines themes like the colonization of Africa and long term conflicts United Nations peace operations in Africa from 1956 1964 and United Nations return to Africa in the 1990s and 2000s The author investigates how modern civil military coordination gradually becomes an effective tool to assist in national level state building in conflict ridden countries The volume also discusses the organizational culture of civilian and military entities as well as civil military cooperation in health agriculture energy sports and education to showcase the strategic direction for long term peace in the region Rich in ethnographic analysis this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of African Studies UN studies peace and conflict studies defence and strategic studies international relations and military studies Namibia's Independence Struggle Cleophas Johannes Tsokodayi,2011-01-01 Understanding Namibia Henning Melber,2015-01-04 Since independence in 1990 Namibia has witnessed only one generation with no memory of colonialism the born frees who voted in the 2009 elections The anti colonial liberation movement SWAPO dominates the political scene effectively making Namibia a de facto one party state dominated by the first struggle generation While those in power declare their support for a free fair and just society the limits to liberation are such that emancipation from foreign rule has only been partially achieved Despite its natural resources Namibia is among the world s most unequal societies and indicators of wellbeing have not markedly improved for many among the former colonized majority despite a constitution enshrining human rights social equality and individual liberty This book analyses the transformation of Namibian society since Independence Melber explores the achievements and failures and contrasts the narrative of a post colonial patriotic history with the socio economic and political realities of the nation building project He also investigates whether notwithstanding the relative stability prevailing to date the negotiation of controlled change during Namibia s decolonization could have achieved more than simply a change of those in control

The New United Nations John Allphin Moore, Jr.,Jerry Pubantz,2015-09-21 A comprehensive guide to the world body s institutions procedures policies specialized agencies historic personalities initiatives and involvement in world affairs The New United Nations is organized thematically blending both topical and chronological explanations making reference to current scholarly terms and theories The first textbook of its kind on the market it presents the UN in its evolving role in this new era since the Cold War and shows its responsibilities for meeting challenges to the global community United Nations as Peacekeeper and Nation-BUILDER Nassrine Azimi,Li Lin Chang,2005-11-01 In the wake of the Iraq War what lies ahead for the United Nations as peacekeeper and nation builder What lessons were learnt in Afghanistan and Iraq what reforms could they entail how do UN efforts fare as compared with those of the United States and what will be in the next decade the most pressing challenges confronting the Organization Will the United Nations in its current form and within the new global power structure be able to remain relevant retain its ideals and still respond meaningfully to mounting international tensions These were some of the questions tackled by a group of eminent scholars and practitioners many directly and personally involved with multilateral or unilateral peace operations In addition to the larger issues of peacekeeping and peace building and the recommendations for historical reform suggested by the UN High level Panel on Threats Challenges and Change in December 2004 the group debated some of the most complex recent interventions including Afghanistan East Timor and Iraq This volume which contains all the presentations and discussions of the UNITAR IPS Conference on United Nations as a Peacekeeper and Nation Builder Continuity and Change What Lies Ahead will be a valuable addition to the collections of experts or laypersons interested in the future role of the United Nations in general and in peacekeeping and post conflict state building in particular

Anti-racism and Multiculturalism Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08 All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature often the published scholarly work of one established discipline This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations even though not of relevance only to that field The professed goal of international relations is international peace The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti racism Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo scientific racism Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism colonialism the holocaust and apartheid Race has been debunked as a myth Because of this racism the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains The contributors to this volume consider five questions How does the literature on antiracism improve our understanding of conflict resolution How does the analysis of the media s role in racist and anti racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda How can research on anti racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity How and why should the literature on anti racism expand research in international relations This is a unique worthwhile framework for cross disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict

Self-Determination and Secession in Africa Redie Bereketeab, 2014-08-07 This book provides a unique comparative study of the major secessionist and self determination movements in post colonial Africa examining theory international law charters of the United Nations and the Organisation of African Unity OAU African Union s AU stance on the issue The book explores whether self determination and secessionism lead to peace stability development and democratisation in conflict ridden societies particularly looking at the outcomes in Eritrea and South Sudan The book covers all the major attempts at self determination and secession on the continent extensively analysing the geo political economic security and ideological factors that determine the outcome of the quest for self determination and secession It reveals the lack of inherent clarity in international law social science theories OAU AU Charter UN Charters and international conventions concerning the topic This is a major contribution to the field and highly relevant for researchers and postgraduate students in African Studies Development Studies African Politics and History and Anthropology

The United Nations and Human Security Edward Newman,2001-10-25 The United Nations and Human Security highlights and analyzes the changing peace and security challenges faced by the United Nations in an evolving international environment that is no longer solely characterized by states and inter state security The authors who comprise both scholars and UN practitioners cover a wide range of pressing current issues including refugees international tribunals the promotion of democracy ethics regional organizations humanitarian intervention conflict prevention and peacekeeping that form a cutting edge and controversial security agenda

The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale,2014-11-19 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process

Beyond UN Subcontracting Thomas G. Weiss,2016-07-27 Beyond UN Subcontracting sheds light through a series of post Cold War case studies on whether one United Nations efforts both to devolve responsibility for security to regional institutions and the delivery of some of their services to international nongovernmental organisations are a step toward or away from better global governance The cases are designed to explore patterns of interaction and to provide lessons for the future

Europe's Role in Nation-building James Dobbins,2008 The European Union and its member nations have proven adept at mounting small scale nation building operations and should be ready to handle more substantial missions Building on prior RAND work this volume presents six case studies of recent European led nation building missions in Albania Sierra Leone Macedonia Cote d'Ivoire the Congo and Bosnia as well as a review of the Australian mission to the Solomon Islands

Perspectives on Western Sahara Anouar Boukhars,Jacques Roussellier,2013-12-18 The ongoing conflict in Western Sahara is one of the more intractable legacies of European colonization in North Africa Following the withdrawal of Spain this territorial dispute escalated in 1975 into a war of independence between the Sahrawi people of the Polisario Front who were backed by Algeria and the states of Mauritania and Morocco In 1976 the Polisario Front established the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic which was not admitted in the UN but won recognition by a few states After multiple peace efforts the conflict reemerged in 2005 as the independence Intifada Today the Polisario Front controls about 20% of Western Sahara At the heart of the conflict lie geopolitical interests and incompatible claims aggravated by the use of military force and decades of mostly unproductive diplomatic maneuvers by international bodies and regional or foreign powers This thorough impartial survey brings together some of the best experts on the Sahara question to provide a broad based analysis of the problem from a range of perspectives Featuring new research the chapters examine the roots of the conflict its dynamics and potential solutions This groundbreaking text also addresses questions of law human rights natural resources from an analytical point of view Contributed by scholars from North Africa Europe and the U S it is an essential contribution to the literature of Middle East and African studies International Monitoring of Plebiscites, Referenda and National Elections Yves Beigbeder,1994-01-01 INDEX
