Contemporary Caribbean Writing and Deleuze Lorna Burns, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Caribbean Writing and Deleuze maps a new intellectual and literary history of postcolonial Caribbean writing and thought spanning from the 1930s surrealist movement to the present crossing the region s language blocs and focused on the interconnected principles of creativity and commemoration Exploring the work of Ren M nil douard Glissant Wilson Harris Derek Walcott Antonio Ben tez Rojo Pauline Melville Robert Antoni and Nalo Hopkinson this study reveals the explicit and implicit engagement with Deleuzian thought at work in contemporary Caribbean writing Uniting for the first time two major schools of contemporary thought postcolonialism and post continental philosophy this study establishes a new and innovative critical discourse for Caribbean studies and postcolonial theory beyond the oppositional dialectic of colonizer and colonized Drawing from Deleuze s writings on Bergson Nietzsche and Spinoza this study interrogates the postcolonial tropes of newness becoming relationality and a philosophical concept of immanence that lie at the heart of a little observed dialogue between contemporary Caribbean writers and Deleuze Cultural Practices, Political Possibilities Rohee Dasgupta, 2009-03-26 Culture has long been regarded as one of the most complicated concepts in the social sciences possibly over theorized Its ubiquity tangled senses of particularity and the almost universal recognition of that assumed particularity require an extended vocabulary for framing the politics embedded in it Cultural Practices Political Possibilities attempts to explain the political significance and overlaps of cultural constructions as witnessed in global local clashes convergences of texts and contexts within the state and community identity and the self Through various case studies concepts and interdisciplinary perspectives the multinational group of authors from diverse academic backgrounds interprets cultural constructions of politics as factionalizing identitarian situational and particularistic in their links affirmations and consequential divides Each contribution in its unique way explores the performative asymmetries and contradictions witnessed in diverse cultural interactions that shape new areas of political investigation The book will be welcomed by students of international relations environmental politics sociology anthropology and cultural studies Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Sara Upstone, 2016-04-01 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational and comparative approach that challenges the tendency to engage with authors in isolation or in relation to other writers from a single geographical setting Suggesting that isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of

examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone's study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic Deleuze and the Postcolonial Simone Bignall, 2010-04-15 This is the first collection of essays bringing together Deleuzian philosophy and postcolonial theory Bignall and Patton assemble some of the world's leading figures in these fields including Reda Bensmaia Timothy Bewes Rey Chow Philip Leonard Nick Nesbitt John K Noyes Patricia Pisters Marcelo Svirsky and Simon Tormey to explore rich linkages between two previously unrelated areas of study They deal with colonial and postcolonial social cultural and political issues in Asia Africa the Americas Australia and Palestine Topics include colonial government nation building and ethics in the contemporary context of globalisation and decolonisation issues relating to resistance transformation and agency and questions of representation and discursive power as practiced through postcolonial art cinema and literature This book constitutes a timely intervention to debates in poststructuralist postcolonial and postmodern studies It will be of interest to students in cultural studies cinema and film studies languages and literature political and postcolonial studies critical theory social and political philosophy Performing Wisdom Dominica Dipio, Stuart Sillars, 2014-03-10 This is the third collection produced by members of a six year research project funded by the NUFU Norwegian Programme for Development Research and Education whose concern was to find preserve and analyse orature spoken forms of all kinds both their unique qualities and their equivalence in importance to literature A major focus was the ways in which forms of orature can be made relevant to the demands of rapidly developing nations faced with insistent problems HIV AIDS administrative needs shifts in social and familial structure the changing roles of women Both innovative and archival the essays explore older legends and modern performances to outline their positive and dynamic contribution to a protean society Some contributors address the ways in which traditional forms may be adapted e g via new media to combat the HIV AIDS pandemic and to educate children in social and individual responsibility Traditional narratives and children's songs can function to counter cannibalism and child sacrifice Less dark aspects of contemporary society also receive attention Traditional patterns of leadership are adapted to today s conditions especially by offering women models in the form of earlier figures and their actions Two essays analyse the use of proverbs in the speeches of political candidates and discussing traditional music festivals as celebrations of traditional kingship and rule Others examine the nature and operation of specific forms of orature riddles and their subtle alteration according to performer and audience concepts of heroism stories of origin and variants of Little Red Riding Hood These sensitive analyses are framed by pieces from members of the research project in Norway and Uganda Dominica Dipio is Associate Professor in the Department of Literature Makerere University and coordinator in the south of the NUFU research project Stuart Sillars is Professor of English Literature in the Department of Foreign Languages University of Bergen and coordinator in the north of the research project Local Cosmopolitanism Kristof Van Assche, Petruta Teampău, 2015-05-15 This book offers a unique perspective on cosmopolitanism examining the ways it is constructed and reconstructed on the small scale in an ongoing process of matching the local with the global a process entailing mutual transformation Based on a wide range of literatures and a series of case studies it analyzes the different versions and functions of cosmopolitanism and points to the need to critically re examine current conceptions of globalization The book first illustrates the interplay between networks and narratives in the construction of cosmopolitan communities in three specific cities Trieste Odessa and Tbilisi Each has a past more cosmopolitan than the present and each uses that cosmopolitan past to guide them towards the future Next the book focuses on narrative dynamics by isolating several discourses on the cosmopolitan place and figure in European cultural history It then goes on to detail the internal representations and local functions of larger wholes in smaller communities shedding a new light on issues of inter disciplinary interest self governance participation local knowledge social memory scale planning and development Of interest to political scientists anthropologists economists geographers and philosophers this book offers an insightful contribution to theories of globalization and global local interaction bringing the local discursive mechanics into sharper focus and also emphasizing the semi autonomous character of narrative constructions of self and community in a Understanding Postcolonialism Jane Hiddleston, 2014-12-05 Postcolonialism offers challenging and provocative ways of thinking about colonial and neocolonial power about self and other and about the discourses that perpetuate postcolonial inequality and violence Much of the seminal work in postcolonialism has been shaped by currents in philosophy notably Marxism and ethics Understanding Postcolonialism examines the philosophy of postcolonialism in order to reveal the often conflicting systems of thought which underpin it In so doing the book presents a reappraisal of the major postcolonial thinkers of the twentieth century Ranging beyond the narrow selection of theorists to which the field is often restricted the book explores the work of Fanon and Sartre Gandhi Nandy and the Subaltern Studies Group Foucault and Said Derrida and Bhabha Khatibi and Glissant and Spivak Mbembe and Mudimbe A clear and accessible introduction to the subject Understanding Postcolonialism reveals how almost half a century after decolonisation the complex relation between politics and ethics continues to shape postcolonial thought William James, Sciences of Mind, and Anti-Imperial Discourse Bernadette M. Baker, 2013-09-30 In the past few decades the humanities and social sciences have developed new methods of reorienting their conceptual frameworks in a world without frontiers In this book Bernadette M Baker offers an innovative approach to rethinking sciences of mind as they formed at the turn of the twentieth century via the concerns that have emerged at the turn of the twenty first The less visited texts of Harvard philosopher and psychologist William James provide a window into contemporary debates over principles of toleration anti imperial discourse and the nature of ethics Baker revisits Jamesian approaches to the formation of scientific objects including the child mind exceptional mental states and the
