United States Government Organization Manual ,1969 The National Gallery of Art, Washington Ross Watson,1979 1,000 Places to See Before You Die Patricia Schultz,2003-01-01 Describes essential places to see from around the world offering information on what to find at each spot and the best time to visit National Galleries Simon Knell,2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1983 The Rare Art Traditions Joseph Alsop,2023-08-15 A cultural and social history of art collecting art history and the art market In The Rare Art Traditions Joseph Alsop offers a wide ranging cultural and social history of art collecting art history and the art market He argues that art collecting is the basic element in a remarkably complex and historically rare behavioral system which includes the historical study of art the market for buying and selling art museums forgery and the astonishing prices commanded by some works of art The Rare Art Traditions tells the story of three important traditions of art collecting the classical tradition that began in Greece the Chinese tradition and the Western tradition The result is a major original contribution to art history Landscape with

Figures Malcolm Goldstein, 2000-11-30 How did the United States become not only the leading contemporary art scene in the world but also the leading market for art The answer has to do not only with the talents of American artists or even the size of the American economy but also and especially the skills and entrepreneurship of American art dealers Their story has not been told until now Landscape with Figures is the first history of art dealing in the United States following the profession from eighteenth century portrait and picture salesmen in the colonies to the high profile jet set gallery owners of today Providing anecdotal and carefully researched biographies of the prominent dealers from more than two centuries of trade author Malcolm Goldstein shows how magnanimous personalities and social networking helped to shape the way Americans have bought and valued art These dealers range from Michael Paff whose enthusiasm often overshadowed his expertise but nonetheless helped him sell faux Old Master paintings to major collectors in the early nineteenth century to the imperious Joseph Duveen dealer to magnates like Henry Clay Frick to visionary Leo Castelli who helped to usher in a revolution in modern art during the 1960s by showing such avant garde artists as Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg and Andy Warhol Goldstein also shows that the American art trade while male dominated has been galvanized by female dealers including the inimitable Edith Gregor Halpert Peggy Guggenheim and Mary Boone Their fascinating stories unfold in the context of world art history the rise of major art institutions like the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum and the growing zeal of art collectors who would eventually pay millions for individual works of art Unprecedented and critical to understanding today's art world Landscape with Figures is a must for artists art history students and art lovers
