Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth-Century Canada Alice Higgs, 2023-11-09 Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth Century Canada fulfils a vital contribution to the conversation surrounding animal representation as a point of continuity in national narratives and supports the idea that focusing on narratives of responsibility and care influences better relations with both non human animals and across settler Indigenous boundaries Alice Higgs engages with on going debates regarding reconciliation by demonstrating that it is imperative to critique settler colonial environmental frameworks and place autonomy back into Indigenous communities by bringing Indigenous practices of custodianship and relationality to bear more generally This book also develops a number of conversations in animal studies in relation to the politics of representation

Higgs studies a range of canonical Canadian authors demonstrating a progress across the period in which it is possible to identify the emergence of a literary pro animal turn The National Geographic Magazine ,1912 Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000 Virtual Voyages Jeffrey Ruoff,2006-01-24 The different forms that travelogues have taken documentaries IMAX home movies ethnographic films from the 1800s to the present Robert Ballard Lisa Yount,2009 Expedition into Empire Martin Thomas,2014-09-04 Expeditionary journeys have shaped our world but the expedition as a cultural form is rarely scrutinized This book is the first major investigation of the conventions and social practices embedded in team based exploration In probing the politics of expedition making this volume is itself a pioneering journey through the cultures of empire With contributions from established and emerging scholars Expedition into Empire plots the rise and transformation of expeditionary journeys from the eighteenth century until the present Conceived as a series of spotlights on imperial travel and colonial expansion it roves widely from the metropolitan centers to the ends of the earth This collection is both rigorous and accessible containing lively case studies from writers long immersed in exploration travel literature and the dynamics of cross cultural encounter Down with the Old Canoe Steven Biel,2012-03-14 Brimming over with wit and insight Fresh and fascinating Dan Rather Everyone from suffragists to their opponents radicals reformers and capitalists critics of technology and modern life racists and xenophobes and champions of racial and ethnic equality editorial writers and folk singers preachers and poets found moral and cultural lessons in the sinking of the Titanic In a new edition that both commemorates the one hundredth anniversary of the disaster and elaborates in a revised afterword on the ship s continued impact on the public imagination evidenced by the Titanic mania evoked by James Cameron s 1997 film Steven Biel explores the Titanic in all its complexity and contradictions Traders and Explorers in Wooden Ships: Muslims in the Age of Exploration Susan Douglass,1995-01-01 This unit is offered to upper elementary students as an introductory chapter to their first comprehensive study of American history It may also be used as an adjunct to study of the European Age of Exploration in world history courses for upper elementary and middle school grades It can be used as a supplement to or substitute for the textbook chapter which discusses America s origins in the Old World It provides background for the period in which Europe reached out across the globe for the first time This treatment attempts to go beyond the heroism and adventure stories about the Age of Exploration Most textbook treatments of the period utterly fail to place Europe in the context of its cultural and technological development relative to other civilizations This unit shows how the Islamic lands formed a hinge between East and West It investigates the major motivations and development of the technological means for exploration It goes beyond the stereotyped image of conflict between Christians and Muslims to explain the fruitful cultural exchange which occurred over the centuries It demonstrates how the cosmopolitan character of the Islamic civilization united the Old World in interdependence contributing to Europe s later technological scientific cultural and economic achievements Finally the unit shows how all technological and historic advances in human civilization are
