National Geographics The Filmmakers:

On Assignment James R. Larison, 2021-11-02 An exciting adventure story with personal drama and high stakes as well as a glimpse behind the scenes of the highly regarded National Geographic brand Jim and Elaine Larison spent years studying exploring and living in wild places making more than thirty environmental films most for the National Geographic Society These films won more than forty international awards from leading environmental and broadcast organizations This memoir tells the story behind the adventure and describes the rather substantial personal costs of this career While shooting film in Alaska Jim Larison narrowly survived a devastating airplane crash in the Bering Sea Later while filming on the Great Barrier Reef the Larisons fought off an aggressive twelve foot tiger shark Midway through their careers the Larisons were nearly swept to their deaths by an icefall while filming on Mount Robson A thrilling adventure story full of risk and personal conflict On Assignment is also a touching look at the tender bonds that held the married couple together while they struggled to complete their many film assignments The Larisons were changed by what they saw and what they captured on film the destruction of forests the death of coral reefs and global warming In the beginning the Larisons wanted nothing more than to spend time in the wilderness By the end they were fighting for its very survival Nat Geo Amazing! Melina Bellows, 2010 Bollywood thriller following a woman who begins to have visions of future murders Travelling home one evening pop star Divya Varma Meera comes across the dead body of a woman Following this disturbing encounter she starts to foresee barmaids being brutally killed but is unable to identify the culprit She informs Police Inspector Rohan Sethi Ashmit Patel and his partner Sujata Deshmukh Koel Purie who are investigating a series of murders which may be linked to the ones taking place in Divya's visions The singer realises her own life is at risk when she sees herself becoming the killer's next victim Will the murderer be caught before it is too late for Divya National Geographic, 2005 National Geographic 125 Years Mark Collins Jenkins, 2012 A retrospective of the past 125 years of the National Geographic Society using photographs time lines maps and stories to illustrate its history milestones and accomplishments Succeeding as a Documentary

Filmmaker Alan Rosenthal, 2011-03-01 While many film programs prepare students for the realities of Hollywood comparatively little guidance is provided for the aspiring documentary filmmaker Alan Rosenthal fills this void with Succeeding as a Documentary Filmmaker A Guide to the Professional World Unlike traditional manuals on documentary filmmaking which focus primarily on the creation of films this user friendly volume draws upon real world examples and the advice of experienced filmmakers to provide essential information about the nonfiction movie business From the basics of the current film business environment and how to navigate it to tips on how to maximize distribution and sales for a finished film Rosenthal leads novice filmmakers step by step through the professional arena of documentary moviemaking Included here are recommendations for how to make the most of a film school education the best ways to find financing for a film and the realities of working with a budget how to develop a successful proposal for a project the intricacies of working both as an independent filmmaker and for others and insight into the often complicated arenas of contracts and markets Throughout the volume Rosenthal shares the expertise of actual filmmakers on such subjects as film school and starting a career pitching and funding projects contract negotiation effective marketing and commissioning editors and legal help Not limiting himself to merely the documentary world the author also offers valuable information and advice for filmmakers interested in other genres of nonfiction movies such as industrial public relations travel and educational films to provide a truly comprehensive and one of a kind guide for readers Packed with useful tips for novices film students and practitioners alike Succeeding as a Documentary Filmmaker is an indispensable addition to the library of anyone involved in the world of nonfiction filmmaking

Shooting in the Wild Chris Palmer, 2010-10 Longtime producer Palmer provides an in depth look at wild animals on film covering the history of wildlife documentaries safety issues and the never ending pressure to obtain the money shot Marlin Perkins Jacques Cousteau Steve Irwin Timothy Treadwell and many other familiar names are discussed along with their work accidents and in some cases untimely deaths Palmer is highly critical of Irwin and offers fascinating revelations about game farms used by exploitative filmmakers and photographers looking for easy shots and willing to use caged animals to obtain them He also considers the subliminal messages of many wildlife films considering everything from Shark Week to Happy Feet and how they manipulate audiences toward preset conclusions about animal behavior In all this is an engaging and exceedingly timely look at a form of entertainment the public has long taken for granted and which as Palmer points out really needs a fresh and careful reconsideration

The Documentary Filmmaker's Roadmap Maxine Trump, 2018-07-11 The Documentary Filmmaker's Roadmap is a concise and practical guide to making a feature length documentary film from funding to production to distribution exhibition and marketing Using her award winning film Musicwood a New York Times Critics Pick as a case study director Maxine Trump guides the reader through the complex lifecycle of the documentary Film Her interviews with lawyers funders distributors TV executives and festival programmers provide a behind the scenes look that will assist readers on their own filmmaking journey Written from the perspective of a successful documentary filmmaker the book covers mistakes made and lessons learned a discussion on the documentary genre crowdfunding pre production through post test screenings the festival circuit distribution legal pitfalls fair use and more Perfect for documentary filmmaking students and aspiring filmmakers alike this book emphasizes the skills needed to succeed in a competitive production market An appendix includes useful web links for further study a list of films for recommended viewing and sample release forms This concise guide is ideal for the classroom or as a quick reference out in the field at a budget meeting or in the editing room

From Filmmaker Warriors to Flash Drive Shamans Richard Pace, 2021-04-30 From Filmmaker Warriors to Flash Drive Shamans broadens the base of research on Indigenous media in Latin America through thirteen chapters that explore groups such as the Kayap of Brazil the Mapuche of Chile the Kichwa of Ecuador and the Ayuuk of Mexico among others as they engage video DVDs photography television radio and the internet The authors cover a range of topics such as the prospects of collaborative film production the complications of archiving materials and the contrasting meanings of and even conflict over embedded aesthetics in media production i e how media reflects in some fashion the ownership authorship and or cultural sensibilities of its community of origin Other topics include active audiences engaging television programming in unanticipated ways philosophical ruminations about the voices of the dead captured on digital recorders the innovative uses of digital platforms on the internet to connect across generations and even across cultures and the overall challenges to obtaining media sovereignty in all manner of media production The book opens with contributions from the founders of Indigenous Media Studies with an overview of global Indigenous media by Faye Ginsburg and an interview with Terence Turner that took place shortly before his death

Filmmakers and Financing Louise Levison, 2013-04-26 First published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

How to Become a (Really Good) Documentary Filmmaker Nancy LeBrun, 2012-05-22 A few days after Flight 77 crashed into the Pentagon I got a call at my Washington DC home from a panicked producer in LA begging me to do some short pieces about the 9 11 tragedy She needed something to show on the Emmys to acknowledge the attack and the broadcast was just a few days away I don t know how she found me but I explained that I was not a news producer She persisted Somehow the desperation in her voice and the desperation of the tragedy coalesced making it difficult if not impossible for me to say no So off I went taking a colleague with me for support not at all sure how to proceed My background was in long form documentaries projects that take months or years to complete not quick turnaround packages But I was already on board so I would just have to go for it

The Independent Filmmaker's Guide to the New Hollywood Gabriel Campisi, 2020-09-28 Netflix and its competitors like Disney Amazon Prime and Hulu have brought unprecedented levels of entertainment to consumers everywhere providing the richest most abundant aggregate of motion pictures and cinematic television the world has ever seen Behind the facade however things are not as pleasant A very costly paradigm shift is underway altering not only conventional business and finance models but also threatening long established avenues of entertainment such as movie theaters traditional television and home video and wreaking havoc on independent filmmakers and veteran producers alike This book attempts to make sense of ongoing economic and creative shifts of infrastructure and intellectual property to understand where the industry is headed and to distinguish which business models should be maintained and which ones should be left behind Featuring exclusive interviews with some of the industry s most prolific filmmakers and executives it dives into the trenches of Hollywood to provide readers with the knowledge necessary to rethink the business see past the turmoil recognize the new opportunities and take advantage of exciting new possibilities Change sparks innovation and innovation brings about great opportunity but only for the well informed and prepared
