National Liberation:

National Liberation in Postcolonial Southern Africa Christian A. Williams, 2015-10-08 This book traces the South West Africa People's Organization SWAPO across its three decades in exile through rich local histories of the camps where Namibian exiles lived in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Christian A Williams highlights how different Namibians experienced these sites as well as the tensions that developed within SWAPO as Namibians encountered one another and as officials asserted their power and protected their interests within a national community The book then follows Namibians who lived in exile into post colonial Namibia examining the extent to which divisions and hierarchies that emerged in the camps continue to shape how Namibians relate to one another today undermining the more just and humane society that many had imagined In developing these points about SWAPO the book draws attention to Southern African literature more widely suggesting parallels across the region and defining a field of study that examines post colonial Africa through the camp

National Liberation Nigel Harris, 1993 Nationalism dominates modern politics The idea that the world consists primarily of nations and that these are the only proper basis for states has become a rarely questioned assumption Yet nationalism was an invention of nineteenth century Europe and just as it had a beginning so also could it come to an end

National Communism Peter Zwick, 2019-03-04 According to the generally accepted view that nationalism is alien to communism and that internationalism disallows divisions based on nations the existence of national communism is often interpreted as a sign of the breakup of the world communist movement This book reexamines the evidence on the role of nations and national variations beginning with Marx and moving through Leninism and Stalinism to Titoism Maoism Castroism and current national liberation movements e g in Nicaragua Professor Zwick concludes that nationalism has always been an inherent element of communism He demonstrates with numerous concrete cases that rather than signaling the decline of communism national adaptation is the source of its strength The limits of national variation as defined by the Brezhnev Doctrine are precisely defined and examined in the cases of Hungary Czechoslovakia and Poland The book bridges the gap between Marxist theory and communist practice with respect to the central role that nationalism will continue to play in the contemporary world No other study presents this material in a cross national comparative perspective

Revolutionary Violence and the New Left Alberto Martin Alvarez, Eduardo Rey Tristán, 2016-08-05 Leading figures and rising stars in the field present the first contribution explaining the transnational nature of the revolutionary violence of the New Left Focusing on the processes of dissemination of ideologies and mobilization of ideas and repertoires of action among the revolutionary organizations of the New Left in Latin America Europe and the United States this book contributes to our understanding of the dynamics of the New Left wave and at the same time helps explain the why of the emergence of very similar armed leftist groups in vastly different geographical and political contexts

Translations from Kommunist, 1967 The Third World in Soviet Military Thought Mark Katz, 2012-07-26 First published in 1982 this study traces the development of Soviet military thinking on the Third World and assesses its importance for the conduct of Soviet foreign policy Changes in Soviet military thought often reflect changes in Soviet attitudes towards and expectations from involvement in Third World conflicts This work from Dr Katz meditates upon the changing role of the USSR in post war Third World conflicts with particular emphasis upon the Brezhnev era and the way in which US setbacks in the Third World impacted upon Soviet foreign policy and changing attitudes to the Third World

The Kurdish National Movement in Turkey Cengiz Gunes,2013-01-11 This book provides an interpretive and critical analysis of Kurdish identity nationalism and national movement in Turkey since the 1960s By raising issues and questions relating to Kurdish political identity and highlighting the ideological specificity diversity and the transformation of Kurdish nationalism it develops a new empirical dimension to the study of the Kurds in Turkey Cengiz Gunes applies an innovative theoretical approach to the analysis of an impressively large volume of primary sources and data drawn from books and magazines published by Kurdish activists political parties and groups The analysis focuses on the specific demands articulated by the Kurdish national movement and looks at Kurdish nationalism at a specific level by disaggregating the nationalist discourse showing variations over time and across different Kurdish nationalist organisations Situating contemporary Kurdish political identity and its political manifestations within a historical framework the author examines the historical and structural conditions that gave rise to it and influenced its evolution since the 1960s The analysis also encompasses an account of the organisational growth and evolution of the Kurdish national movement including the political parties and groups that were active in the period Bringing the study of the organisational development and growth of the Kurdish National Movement in Turkey up to date this book will be an important reference for students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics social movements nationalism and conflict volumes Terrorism is a term that defies easy definition and its meaning has also changed over the course of history Because this encyclopedia aims at comprehensiveness across time geography and the conceptual landscape it applies the broadest definition of terrorism the use of violence or the threat of violence to effect political change through fear in which the victims of the violence The encyclopedia is divided into six parts      Descriptive and Subject Cataloguing Jaya Raju,Reggie Raju,2006-02-28 A workbook on descriptive and subject cataloguing featuring practical examples and suggested solutions to reinforce theoretical concepts and practical application in descriptive cataloguing using Anglo American Cataloguing Rules 2nd ed 1998 rev bibliographic classification using Dewey Decimal Classification 21st ed and assigning subject headings using Sears List of Subject Headings 17th ed Includes examples for both manual and computerised creation of bibliographic records thus preparing students for both automated and manual library and information service LIS environments While the workbook uses Anglo American Cataloguing Rules Dewey Decimal Classification and Sears List of Subject Headings as tools for information organisation the major objective is to develop skills in information management and organisation While the workbook is likely to be predominately used in the instruction of first level library and or information studies programmes offered by higher education institutions it could very well be used in the LIS work environment      Parameters ,1978

The National Interest on International Law and Order R. James Woolsey,2018-04-17 International law and the nature of the global order is regularly examined and debated among specialists This volume brings together in one place twenty four articles addressing these subjects written by some of America s leading academics lawyers and policymakers and originally published in The National Interest a leading realist journal of international affairs Prominent jurists lawyers and practitioners debate the role that international law should play in the formulation of policy in the first section and whether international law really exists Authors explore such questions as the enforceable norms of global behavior and if American foreign policy should conform to such regulations A second section looks at the viability and utility of international institutions in advancing U S interests Included are debates over the role and purpose of the United Nations and the International Criminal Court A third Section deals with the intersection of law enforcement and foreign policy It explores such questions as whether primary responsibility for combating global terrorism and the international drug trade should be vested with law enforcement agencies or whether it should fall under the purview of foreign policy The final portion of the book is devoted to the question of human rights particularly the tripartite debate between Robin Fox Francis Fukuyama and

William F Schulz over the nature and origins of human rights Among the questions considered are whether human rights are an outgrowth of natural law or are natural imperatives at odds with protecting individual dignities and freedoms Is there a universal standard of rights or are human rights norms derived from majority consensus The list of distinguished contributors to this volume include John Bolton Robert Bork Lee Casey Douglas Feith Owen Harries Senator Jesse Helms Alan Keyes Irving Kristol Joseph Nye Jeremy Rabkin David Rivkin Alfred P Rubin and Abrahama Sofaer This volume will be of interest to legal scholars political scientists and students of diplomacy and international relations

The International Law of Armed Conflict: Personal and Material Fields of Application Edward K. Kwakwa, 2023-11-27 The underlying rationale for the international humanitarian law of war is the protection of individuals and victims of war This book is a contribution to the study of human rights in general and humanitarian law in particular It contains detailed information and analysis of the law and practice relating to international armed conflicts involving irregular combatants The discussion focuses on the most controversial provisions of Additional Protocol I to the Geneva Conventions the classification of wars of national liberation the treatment of guerrillas and mercenaries upon capture reprisals and the question of supervision and implementation in such conflicts The manuscript on which this book was based was awarded the 1991 Paul Reuter Prize by the International Committee of the Red Cross

Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg, Dirk Kruijt, Shrikant Paranjpe, 2020-04-20 The post cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era at another level these phenomena manifested in new forms Whether the issues of economics and trade transfer of technologies challenges of intervention or humanitarian crisis the countries of the South previously pejoratively labelled Third World or developing countries have continued to address these challenges within the framework of their capabilities and concerns The volume explores defence diplomacies national security challenges and strategies dynamics of diplomatic manoeuvres and strategic resource management of Latin American southern African and Asian countries
