Restoring the Balance Gail Guthrie Valaskakis,Eric Guimond,Madeleine Dion Stout,2011-07-15 First Nations peoples believe the eagle flies with a female wing and a male wing showing the importance of balance between the feminine and the masculine in all aspects of individual and community experiences Centuries of colonization however have devalued the traditional roles of First Nations women causing a great gender imbalance that limits the abilities of men women and their communities in achieving self actualization Restoring the Balance brings to light the work First Nations women have performed and continue to perform in cultural continuity and community development It illustrates the challenges and successes they have had in the areas of law politics education community healing language and art while suggesting significant options for sustained improvement of individual family and community well being Written by fifteen Aboriginal scholars activists and community leaders Restoring the Balance combines life histories and biographical accounts with historical and critical analyses grounded in traditional thought and approaches It is a powerful and important book

Female Pioneers from Ancient Egypt and the Middle East Ahmed A. Karim,Radwa Khalil,Ahmed Moustafa,2021-07-27 This book explores the contributions of Eastern female pioneers in science politics and arts from Ancient Egypt to modern times and discusses the possible psychological and social impact of this knowledge on today's gender role in Eastern and Western Societies Based on psychological studies on social learning the book argues that profound knowledge of the historical contributions of Eastern female pioneers in science politics and arts can improve today's gender roles in Middle Eastern countries and inspire young women living in Western Societies with Eastern migration background Spanning disciplines such as Natural sciences Neuroscience Psychology Sociology Islamic Theology History and Arts and including contributions from diverse geographical regions across the world this book provides an elaborate review of the gender role of women in Ancient Egypt and the Middle East outlining their prominence and influence and discusses the possible psychological and social impact of this knowledge on today's gender roles Ibss: Sociology: 1999 ,2000-12-07 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge on the social sciences Thailand in the Cold War Matthew Phillips,2015-09-16 Thailand's position during the Cold War was ambiguous the country's political leadership was very keen to maintain the country's independence on the world stage yet at the same time was anxious to establish the country's credentials as staunchly anti communist However as this book argues Thailand though never formally a client state of the United States was very closely embedded in the Western camp through the commitment of Thailand's cosmopolitan urban communities to developing a modern consumerist lifestyle Considering popular culture including film literature fashion tourism and attitudes towards Buddhism the book shows how an ideology of consumerism and integration into a free world culture centred in the United States gradually took hold and became firmly established and how this popular culture and ideology was fundamental in determining Thailand's international political alignment Research Methods for Memory Studies Emily Keightley,2013-05-31 The first practical guide to research methods in memory studies This book provides expert appraisals of a range of techniques and approaches in memory studies and focuses on methods and methodology as a way to help bring unity and coherence to this new Confronting Evil James Waller,2016-05-27 While it is true that genocide prevention is not what tends to land on the front pages of national newspapers today it is what prevents the worst headlines from ever being made Despite the post Holocaust consensus that Never Again would the world allow civilians to be victims of genocide the reality is closer to Again and Again As many as 170 million civilians across the world were victims of genocide and mass atrocity in the 20th century Now that we have entered the 21st century little light has been brought to that darkness as civilians still find themselves under brutal attack in South Sudan Burma Syria the Central African Republic Burundi Iraq and a score of other countries in the world beset by state fragility and extremist identity politics Drawing on over two decades of primary research and scholarship from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Confronting Evil Engaging Our Responsibility to Prevent Genocide is grounded in the belief that preventing mass atrocity is an achievable goal but only if we have the collective will to do so This groundbreaking book from one of the foremost leaders in the field

presents a fascinating continuum of research informed strategies to prevent genocide from ever taking place to prevent further atrocities once genocide is occurring and to prevent future atrocities once a society has begun to rebuild after genocide With remarkable insight Dr James Waller challenges each of us to accept our responsibilities as global citizens in whichever role and place we find ourselves and to think critically about one of the world s most pressing human rights issues in which there are no sidelines only sides

Poetry and Terror Peter Dale Scott, 2018-08-15 A study at many levels of Scott s long poem Coming to Jakarta a book length response to a midlife crisis triggered in part by the author s initial inability to share his knowledge and horror about American involvement in the great Indonesian massacre of 1965 Interviews with Ng supply fuller information about the poem s discussions of a how this psychological trauma led to an explorations of violence in American society and then after a key recognition in the poet himself b the poem s look at east west relations through the lens of the yin yang spiritual secular doubleness of the human condition c how the process of writing the poem led to the recovery of memories too threatening at first to be retained by his normal presentational self and d the mystery of right action guided by the Bhagavad Gita and the maxim in the Gospel of Thomas that If you bring forth what is within you what you bring forth will save you Led by the interviews to greater self awareness Scott then analyses his poem as also an elegy not just for the dead in Indonesia but for the passing of the Sixties era when so many of us imagined that a Movement might achieve major changes for a better America Subsequent chapters develop how human doubleness can lead to an inner tension between the needs of politics and the needs of poetry and how some poetry can serve as a non violent higher politics contributing to the evolution of human culture and thus our second nature The book also reproduces a Scott prose essay inspired by the poem on the U S involvement in and support for the 1965 massacre It then discusses how this essay was translated into Indonesian and officially banned by the Indonesian dictatorship and how ultimately it and the poem helped inspire the ground breaking films of Josh Oppenheimer that have led to the first official discussions in Indonesia of what happened in 1965

Staging Solidarity Tanya Goodman, Ronald Eyerman, Jeffrey C. Alexander, 2015-11-17 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC is a modern social drama that enabled the nation's apartheid past to be constructed as a cultural trauma and by doing so created a new collective narrative of diversity and inclusion The TRC relied primarily on testimonies from victims and perpetrators of apartheid violence who came forward to tell their stories in a public forum Rather than simply serving as data for setting the historical record straight this book shows that it was not only the content of these testimonies but also how these stories were told and what values were attached to them that became significant Goodman argues that the performative nature of the TRC process effectively designated the past as profane and simultaneously imagined a sacred future community based on democratic idealism and universal solidarity

The Politics of Literature in a Divided 21st Century Katharina Donn, 2020-04-23 How does literature matter politically in the 21st century This book offers an ecocritical framework for exploring the significance of literature today Featuring a diverse body of texts and authors it develops a future oriented politics embedded in those transgressive realities which our political system finds impossible to tame This book re imagines political agency voices bodies and borders as transformative processes rather than rigid realities articulating a dia topian literary politics Taking a contextual approach it addresses such urgent global issues as biopolitics migration and borders populism climate change and terrorism These readings revitalize fictional worlds for political enquiry demonstrating how imaginative literature seeds change in a world of closed off horizons Prior to the pragmatics of power play literary language breathes new energy into the frames of our thought and the shapes of our affects This book shows how relation metamorphosis and enmeshment can become salient in a politics beyond the conflict line

Europe - Space for Transcultural Existence? Martin Tamcke, Janny de Jong, Lars Klein, Margriet van der Waal, 2013 Europe Space for Transcultural Existence is the first volume of the new series Studies in Euroculture published by G ttingen University Press The series derives its name from the Erasmus Mundus Master of Excellence Euroculture Europe in the Wider World a two year programme offered by a consortium of eight European universities in collaboration with four partner universities outside Europe This master highlights regional national and supranational dimensions of the European democratic development mobility migration and inter multi and transculturality The impact of culture is understood as an element of political and social development within Europe The articles published here explore the field of Euroculture in its different elements it includes topics such as cosmopolitanism cultural memory and traumatic past s colonial heritage democratization and Europeanization as well as the concept of European identity in various disciplinary contexts such as law and the social sciences In which way have Europeanization and Globalization influenced life in Europe more specifically To what extent have people in Europe turned transcultural The trans is understood as indicator of an overlapping mix of cultures that does not allow for the construction of sharp differentiations It is explored in topics such as im migration and integration as well as cultural products and lifestyle The present economic crisis and debt crisis have led as side result to a public attack on the open cosmopolitan outlook of Europe The values of the multicultural and civil society and the idea of a people s Europe have become debatable This volume offers food for thought and critical reflection
