The National Capitol George C. Hazelton,2017-10-11 Excerpt from The National Capitol Its Architecture Art and History
IN presenting this book to the public it is deemed just to say that the idea of writing a history of the Capitol was first urged upon the author by Captain Howard F Kennedy and that in the preparation of the work he has collaborated by furnishing facts and data collected by him during his long association with the building and embraced in his lecture familiar to tourists and many others This production is submitted to the public with the hope that it may merit a generous welcome at their hands If it fails to enlarge the scope of information already accumulated by other writers or to awaken in the minds and hearts of the people greater interest and pride in their Capitol the great forum of the law making power of the government such a result cannot be attributed to a want of careful research or long continued faithful labor About the Publisher

Thomas Moran Thurman Wilkins,1998 This extensively revised edition of Thurman Wilkins s masterful and engaging biography well illustrated in color and black and white draws on new information and recent scholarship to place Thomas Moran more securely in the milieu of the Gilded Age It also portrays more fully the controversies that surrounded the art of Moran s time as he became the Dean of American Painters The American West was the subject of Thomas Moran s greatest artistic triumphs Yosemite the Grand Canyon of the Colorado Zion Canyon the Virgin River Colorado s Mountain of the Holy Cross and the Grand Tetons but his travels with Ferdinand V Hayden s geological surveys of the Upper Yellowstone were matched by trips to his native Britain and to Venice Florida the Spanish Southwest and Old Mexico These scenes inspired memorable landscapes and seascapes as did the sojourns of the Moran family in Pennsylvania New Jersey and East Hampton Long Island when they retreated from the demands of the New York art scene In the 1880s Moran and his artist wife Mary Nimmo Moran also threw themselves into the etching craze of the period creating some of the finest prints produced in the United States Moran was an artist happy in his work He wrote I have always held that the grandest most beautiful or wonderful in nature would in capable hands make the grandest most beautiful or wonderful pictures The New York Times said of the first edition of this unique account of his life Moran s mastery comes through clearly and awesomely and often pleasurable Readers will find the new edition equally enjoyable

Burning of Washington Anthony S. Pitch,2000-03-09 With all the immediacy of an eyewitness account Anthony Pitch tells the dramatic story of the British invasion of Washington in the summer of 1814 an episode many call a defining moment in the coming of age of the United States The British torched the Capitol the White House and many other public buildings setting off an inferno that illuminated the countryside for miles and sending President James Madison scurrying out of town while his wife Dolley rescued a life sized portrait of George Washington from the flames The author s gripping narrative hailed by a White House curator a Senate historian and the chairman of the National Geographic Society among others is filled with vivid details of the attack Not confining his story to Washington Pitch also describes the brave resourceful defense of nearby Fort McHenry and tells how Francis Scott Key a British hostage on a ship near the Baltimore harbor during the fort s bombardment wrote a poem that became the national anthem Writings on American History

,1904 The Letters of William Cullen Bryant William Cullen Bryant,Thomas G. Voss,2019-11-05 The second volume of William Cullen Bryant s letters opens in 1836 as he has just returned to New York from an extended visit to Europe to resume charge of the New York Evening Post brought near to failure during his absence by his partner William Leggett s mismanagement At the period s close Bryant has found in John Bigelow an able editorial associate and astute partner with whose help he has brought the paper close to its greatest financial prosperity and to national political and cultural influence Bryant s letters If the years between show the versatility of his concern with the crucial political social artistic and literary movements of his time and the varied friendships he enjoyed despite his preoccupation with a controversial daily paper and with the sustenance of a poetic reputation yet unequaled among Americans As president of the New York Homeopathic Society in letters and editorials urging widespread public parks and in his presidency of the New York Society for the Abolition of the Punishment of Death he gave attention to public health recreation and order He urged the rights of labor foreign and religious minorities and free African Americans his most powerful political effort of the period was in opposition to the spread of slavery through the conquest of Mexico An early commitment to free trade in material goods was maintained in letters and editorials and to that in ideas by his presidency of the American Copyright Club and his support of the efforts of Charles Dickens and Harriet Martineau to secure from the United States Congress and international copyright agreement Bryant s first visit to Great Britain came at the height of his poetic and journalistic fame in 1845 bringing him into cordial intimacy with members of Parliament scientists journalists artists and writers In detailed letters to his wife published here for the first time he describes the pleasures he took in breakfasting with the literary patron Samuel Rogers and the American minister Edward Everett boating on the Thames with artists and with diarist Henry Crabb Robinson spending an evening in the home of Leigh Hunt and calling on the Wordsworths at Rydal Mount as well as in the distinctions paid him at a rally of the Anti Corn Law League in Covent Garden Theatre and at the annual meeting in Cambridge of the British Association for the Advancement of Science Equally fresh are most of the letters to prominent Americans many of them his close friends such as the two Danas Bancroft Cole Cooper Dewey Dix Downing Durand Forrest Greenough Irving Longfellow Simms Tilden Van Buren and Weir His letters to the Evening Post recounting his observations and experiences during travels abroad and in the South West and Northeast of the United States which were copied widely in other newspapers and praised highly by many of their subscribers are here made available to the present day reader Bulletin of New Books Mercantile Library Association of the City of New-York,1899 Rider's Washington Fremont Rider,Frederic Taber Cooper,1922
