This record setting price for an artwork sparked a media sensation and controversy both in Australia and the United States. Blue Poles Jackson Pollock Gough Whitlam and the painting that changed a nation details how Jackson Pollock rose to fame the negotiations that led to the artwork's move to the National Gallery of Australia and the many successes and turbulent turns in between. This story covers Pollock's entrance into an art circle which included renowned patron Peggy Guggenheim as well as his relationship with artist Lee Krasner and the larger than life accounts that surrounded his artistic practice including questions around the creation of Blue Poles. It was Gough Whitlam's commitment to the arts and cultural capital that would see the painting move to another continent where the media feasted on stories of its cost and brows were raised over its merit. The value of Blue Poles to the Australian art and museum landscape was yet to be foreseen. Journalist Tom McIlroy tells a compelling account of one of Australia's most prized paintings which stirred up many storms from the time of its creation to its placement in the NGA.

Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08. Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life. In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history. The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic. The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia. The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner. The book's contributors present recent research
