PRESS SERVICE, 1929 Daily Digest United States. Department of Agriculture. Press Service, 1929 Military Review, 1930 The Encyclopedia Americana, 1922 Imaging and Mapping Eastern Europe Katarzyna Murawska-Muthesius, 2021-05-10 Imaging and Mapping Eastern Europe puts images centre stage and argues for the agency of the visual in the construction of Europe's east as a socio-political and cultural entity. This book probes into the discontinuous processes of mapping the eastern European space and imaging the eastern European body. Beginning from the Renaissance maps of Sarmatia Europea, it moves onto the images of women in ethnic dress on the pages of travellers' reports from the Balkans to cartoons of children bullied by dictators in the satirical press to Cold War cartography and it ends with photos of protesting crowds on contemporary dust jackets. Studying the eastern European iconosphere leads to the engagement with issues central for image studies and visual culture: word and image relationship, overlaps between the codes of othering and self-fashioning as well as interaction between the diverse modes of production specific to cartography, travel illustrations, caricature and book cover design. This book will be of interest to scholars in art history, visual culture and central Asian, Russian and Eastern European studies.

Focuses on a broad range of issues ranging from social media and new services like Netflix as well as Arab and Asian media. Transnational Television in Europe Jean K. Chalaby, 2009-02-19 Today transnational TV networks count among television's most prestigious brands and rank among Europe's leading TV channels. This is the first dynamically told story of the extraordinary journey of transnational television in Europe from struggling origins to its present-day boom. It is based in extensive research into the international television industry and makes full use of its author's remarkable access to leading industry figures from Sky and Turner to Discovery and BBC World. The tale begins with a few cross-border TV channels who fought hostile governments, faced antagonism from the broadcasting establishment and provoked the contempt of advertisers. But Jean Chalaby argues the planets came into alignment for pan-European television in the late 1990s when a transnational shift in European broadcasting was produced. He shows how transnational television and globalization have transformed one another and how transfrontier TV networks reflect and help sustain a global economic order in which the connection between national territory and patterns of production and distribution have broken down.
