journey through Britain and Ireland's trees Discover the majesty and minutiae of the arboreal world in this joyous month by month guide including woodland folklore and traditions expert insight on the tree of the month scientific marvels curiosities to spot recipes crafts and things to do Along with positive environmental actions and fascinating new ways to understand the trees that surround us this book is an indispensable companion for connecting more deeply with silvan culture Praise for The Tree Almanac 2024 I love this book Lauren Laverne as featured on BBC Radio 6 Music A seductive mix of science history and culture Tracy Chevalier Local Places, Global Processes Peter Coates, David Moon, Paul Warde, 2016-02-29 We live in an age of unprecedented environmental change global interconnected and universal Yet though our lives are inextricably connected to global processes and increasingly mobile we still live in particular places Our perceptions of change and what kind of change might be for good or ill are shaped by the interaction of localised experience and the wider forces of transformation Local Places Global Processes examines how these relationships have been shaped in Britain over time in three ways First through essays addressing influential ways of understanding and debating questions of the state of nature These are complemented by case studies on conservation landscape change and management and how perceptions of environmental change have emerged or been discarded over time Chapters also draw on a series of site based workshops that brought together historians landscape managers and artists to discuss and reflect on particular sites Wicken Fen in Cambridgeshire owned by the National Trust and the first British nature reserve the Quantock Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in Somerset England's first AONB and a landscape enriched by Romantic association and the landscape of Kielder Water and Forest a land of superlatives in Northumberland in north eastern England the largest planted forest and artificial lake in northern Europe The multi disciplinary approach draws together the exchanges artworks and writing assembled at these workshops and afterwards This opens up how being in a place and engaging with ideas attached to it shape perceptions of the environment It provides resources with which landscape managers can think about their tasks and engage various publics in discussion about future environments in light of these histories of place Rather than a history of these three places this is history written from them With Nature in Mind Andy McGeeney, 2016-04-21 Connecting with nature is proven to promote healing growth and positive mental health benefits Ecotherapy harnesses these benefits and this book explains what it is why it works and how to introduce it into clinical practice Be inspired by 100 nature based activities and guidelines for facilitating outdoor sessions The Shipley Collection of Scientific Papers ,1909 See Before You Die, the second edition Patricia Schultz,2011-11-15 The world's bestselling travel book is back in a more informative more experiential more budget friendly full color edition A 1 New York Times bestseller 1 000 Places reinvented the idea of travel book as both wish list and practical guide As Newsweek wrote it tells you what s beautiful what s fun and what s just unforgettable everywhere on earth And now the best is better There are 600 full color photographs Over 200 entirely new entries including visits to 28 countries like Lebanon Croatia Estonia and Nicaragua that were not in the original edition There is an emphasis on experiences an entry covers not just Positano or Ravello but the full 30 mile stretch along the Amalfi Coast Every entry from the original edition has been readdressed rewritten and made fuller with more suggestions for places to stay restaurants to visit festivals to check out And throughout the book is more budget conscious starred restaurants and historic hotels such as the Ritz but also moderately priced gems that don't compromise on atmosphere or charm The world is calling Time to answer The Story of White Hall Centre Pete McDonald, 2018-05-01 Whittled Away Padraic Fogarty, 2017-03-01 Ireland's heritage is being steadily whittled away by human exploitation pollution and other aspects of modern development This could represent a serious loss to the nation Irish Government Report June 1969 Nature in Ireland is disappearing at an alarming rate Overfishing industrial scale farming and pollution have decimated wildlife habitats and populations In a single lifetime vast shoals of herring rivers bursting with salmon and bogs alive with flocks of curlew and geese have all become folk memories Coastal and rural communities are struggling to survive the foundations of our tourism and agricultural sectors are being undermined. The lack of political engagement frequently sees the state in the European Court of Justice for environmental issues P draic Fogarty authoritatively charts how this grim failure to manage our natural resources has impoverished our country But all is not lost he also reveals possibilities for the future describing how we can fill our seas with fish farm in tune with nature and create forests that benefit both people and wildlife He makes a persuasive case for the return of long lost species like wild boar cranes and wolves showing how the interests of the country and its nature can be reconciled A provocative call to arms Whittled Away presents an alternative The Rough Guide to Wales Paul Whitfield, Catherine Le Nevez, Mike path that could lead us all to a brighter future Parker, 2012-01-01 Suggests lodging food and sightseeing highlights along with travel tips and cultural information

Landscapes at Risk? Edward Holdaway, Gerald Smart, 2013-07-04 The purpose of this book is to examine the role that Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty AONB have in the protection of the landscape The authors draw upon experience in the UK and abroad
