Nationalism And Communism In Eastern Europe And The Soviet Union A Basic Contradiction:

Nationalism and Communism in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union W. Kemp, 1999-02-08 Nationalism and Communism in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union looks at communism's attempts to come to terms with nationalism between Marx and Yeltsin how the inability of communist theorists and practitioners to achieve an effective synthesis between nationalism and communism contributed to communism's collapse and what lessons that holds for contemporary Europe Nationalism and communism in eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Walter Adams Kemp, 1997 University Theses in Russian, Soviet and East European Studies, 1907-2006 Gregory Piers Mountford Walker, John Simon Gabriel Simmons, 2008 The bibliography records doctoral and selected masters theses over 3 300 in all from British and Irish universities in the field of Russian Soviet and East European studies This is broadly interpreted to include all disciplines in the humanities and social sciences as they relate to the area of Russia the former USSR and Eastern Europe Taken as a whole the work probably forms the fullest and longest record of British and Irish postgraduate research in any sector of area studies Besides its primary function as a bibliographic tool it makes it possible to trace the effects of academic developments institutional policies and the changes in direction in this highly diversified field of study over the last hundred years Entries are arranged by subject and area supported by full author and subject indexes to aid searching Dr Gregory Walker is a former Head of Slavonic and East European Collections at the Bodleian Library University of Oxford The late John S G Simmons OBE was Senior Research Fellow and Librarian All Souls College Oxford Branding Post-Communist Nations Nadia Kaneva, 2011-08-26 Nation branding a set of ideas rooted in Western marketing gained popularity in the post communist world by promising a quick fix for the identity malaise of transitional societies Since 1989 almost every country in Central and Eastern Europe has engaged in nation branding initiatives of varying scope and sophistication For the first time this volume collects in one place studies that examine the practices and discourses of the nation branding undertaken in these countries In addition to documenting various rebranding initiatives these studies raise important questions about their political and cultural implications

Migration, Post-Socialism, and Diasporic Experiences. Fragmented Lives, Entangled Worlds / Migration, Postsozialismus und Diaspora-Erfahrungen. Fragmentierte Leben, verflochtene Welten Alina Jašina-Schäfer, Nino Aivazishvili-Gehne, 2024-11-18 Stalin's Legacy in Romania Stefano Bottoni, 2018-05-29 This study explores the little known history of the Hungarian Autonomous Region HAR a Soviet style territorial autonomy that was granted in Romania on Stalin's personal advice to the Hungarian Székely community in the summer of 1952 Since 1945 a complex mechanism of ethnic balance and power sharing helped the Romanian Communist Party RCP to strengthen with Soviet assistance its political legitimacy among different national and social groups The communist national policy followed an integrative approach toward most minority communities with the relevant exception of Germans who were declared collectively responsible for the German occupation and were denied political and even civil rights until 1948 The Hungarians of

Transylvania were provided with full civil political cultural and linguistic rights to encourage political integration The ideological premises of the Hungarian Autonomous Region followed the Bolshevik pattern of territorial autonomy elaborated by Lenin and Stalin in the early 1920s The Hungarians of Székely Land would become a titular nationality provided with extensive cultural rights Yet on the other hand the Romanian central power used the region as an instrument of political and social integration for the Hungarian minority into the communist state The management of ethnic conflicts increased the ability of the PCR to control the territory and at the same time provided the ruling party with a useful precedent for the far larger nationalization of the Romanian communist regime which starting from the late 1950s resulted in ethnicized communism an aim achieved without making use of pre war nationalist discourse After the Hungarian revolution of 1956 repression affected a great number of Hungarian individuals accused of nationalism and irredentism In 1960 the HAR also suffered territorial reshaping its Hungarian born political leadership being replaced by ethnic Romanian cadres The decisive shift from a class dictatorship toward an ethnicized totalitarian regime was the product of the Gheorghiu Dej era and as such it represented the logical outcome of a long standing ideological fouling of Romanian communism and more traditional state building ideologies

The Final Act Michael Cotey Morgan, 2020-08-11 The definitive account of the historic diplomatic agreement that provided a blueprint for ending the Cold War The Helsinki Final Act was a watershed of the Cold War Signed by thirty five European and North American leaders at a summit in Finland in the summer of 1975 the document presented a vision for peace based on common principles and cooperation across the Iron Curtain The Final Act is the first in depth history of the diplomatic saga that produced this important agreement This gripping book explains the Final Act's emergence from the parallel crises of the Soviet bloc and the West during the 1960s and the conflicting strategies that animated the negotiations Drawing on research in eight countries and multiple languages The Final Act shows how Helsinki provided a blueprint for ending the Cold War and building a new international order

Europa im Ostblock José M. Faraldo, Paulina Gulińska-Jurgiel, Christian Domnitz, 2008

Self-Determination and Collective Responsibility in the Secessionist Struggle Costas Laoutides, 2016-03-03 The often violent emergence of new independent states following the end of the Cold War generated discussion about the normative grounds of territorial separatism A number of opposing approaches surfaced debating whether and under which circumstances there is a right for a community to secede from its host country Overwhelmingly these studies placed emphasis on the right to secession and neglected the moral stance of secessionist movements as agents in international relations In this book Costas Laoutides explores the collective moral agency involved in secessionist struggles offering a theoretical model for the collective responsibility of secessionist groups Case studies on the Kurds and the people of Moldova Transdniestria illustrate the author's theoretical arguments as he seeks to establish how although the principle of self determination was envisaged as a means of gradually bestowing political power upon the people it never managed to realize its full potential because it was interpreted strictly within a framework of exclusionary politics of identity Ethnic Diversity and the Nation State David James Smith, John Hiden, 2012 This book explores a largely forgotten legacy of multicultural political thought and practice from within Eastern Europe and examines its relevance to post Cold War debates on state and nationhood Featuring a Preface by former UK Home Secretary Charles Clarke it weaves theory and practice to challenge established understandings of the nation state Eastern Europe is still too often viewed through the prism of ethnic conflict which overlooks the region's positive contribution to modern debates on the political management of ethno cultural diversity and towards the construction of a united Europe beyond the nation state Based on extensive archival research in Estonia Latvia Germany Russia as well as the League of Nations Archive in Geneva this book explores this neglected multicultural legacy and assesses its significance in the post Cold War era which has seen the reappearance of national cultural autonomy laws in several states of Eastern Europe Ethnic Diversity and the Nation State is invaluable reading for students and scholars of political science history sociology and European studies and also for policy makers and others interested in minority rights and ethnic conflict regulation Central and South-Eastern Europe 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 An in depth survey of the region presenting the latest economic and political developments It includes expert comment on issues of regional importance up to date statistics a directory of institutes and companies and political profiles The Communist Quest for National Legitimacy in Europe, 1918-1989 Martin Mevius, 2013-09-13 There are two popular myths concerning the relationship between communism and nationalism The first is that nationalism and communism are wholly antagonistic and mutually exclusive The second is the assertion that in communist Eastern Europe nationalism was oppressed before 1989 to emerge triumphant after the Berlin Wall came down Reality was different Certainly from 1945 onwards communist parties presented themselves as heirs to national traditions and guardians of national interests The communist states of Central and Eastern Europe constructed socialist patriotism a form of loyalty to their own state of workers and peasants Up to 1989 communists in Eastern Europe sang the national anthem and waved the national flag next to the red banner The use of national images was not the exception but the rule From Cuba to Korea all communist parties attempted to gain national legitimacy This was not incidental or a deviation from Marxist orthodoxy but ingrained in the theory and practice of the communist movement since its inception The study of communist national legitimacy is an exciting new field This book presents examples of communist attempts to co opt nationalism from both sides of the iron curtain and lays bare the striking similarities between such diverse cases as the socialist patriotism of the Bulgarian Communist Party and the national line of the Portuguese communists between Romanian communist nation building and the national ideology of the Spanish Communist Party This book was published as a special issue of Nationalities Papers Encyclopedia of Government and Politics Mary Hawkesworth, Maurice Kogan, 2013-11-07 This is a brand new edition of the critically acclaimed Encyclopedia of Government and Politics which has been fully revised and updated to provide a systematic account of politics and political studies at the beginning of the new millennium Providing a penetrating analysis of government and politics at a global regional and nation state level the Encyclopedia assesses both traditional and contemporary approaches and projects the paths of future research The articles provide a degree of critical analysis far beyond a simple descriptive outline of the subject Internationally respected contributors have been carefully selected to present contending approaches to related topics both to clarify the political implications of the various methodologies and to enrich the portrayal of political life With its expanded revised and updated coverage Encyclopedia of Government and Politics is more than ever an indispensable tool for students teachers professional analysts and policy makers

The Marshall Plan Benn Steil, 2018 Traces the history of the Marshall Plan and the efforts to reconstruct western Europe as a bulwark against communist authoritarianism during a two year period that saw the collapse of postwar U S Soviet relations and the beginning of the Cold War

Creating a Socialist Yugoslavia Hilde Katrine Haug, 2012-03-30 When the Yugoslav communists came into power in 1945 they claimed to have introduced a socialist solution to the Yugoslav national question But what did this claim imply Creating a Socialist Yugoslavia Tito Communist Leadership and the National Question charts the approach pursued by Yugoslav communist leaders from their endorsement in 1935 of a strategy committing to the search for a socialist solution to the national question within a multinational Yugoslav context until the party disintegrated in 1990 Hilde Katrine Haug examines the impact of the communist leadership's aspirations to create a socialist Yugoslavia on their management of national conflict in the highly heterogeneous Yugoslav state entity

Nation-Building and Minority Politics in Post-Socialist States David Galbreath, 2005-03-05 Despite socialism's best efforts ethnic identity remained a salient feature in Central and Eastern Europe Not only did ethno nationalism help to bring about the fall of the socialist regimes in this region but it also characterized much of the post socialist politics Nation Building and Minority Politics examines the issue of minority politics in post socialist states within this dual structure In particular it offers an in depth analysis of post restoration politics in Estonia and Latvia covering four issues First it looks at the historical context of the current group relations Second the study explores the domestic nature of minority politics in Estonia and Latvia by looking at domestic politics and policies Third it examines the role of the Russian Federation as an external national homeland through illustrating developments within Russian foreign policy Finally the book analyses the role of three significant European organizations namely the OSCE EU and the Council of Europe as agents of conditionality Overall this study combines old and new theoretical approaches to nation building and minority politics to exhibit the changing nature of the relationship between majority minority external national homeland and international organizations in today's Europe

Communist Propaganda at School Joanna Wojdon, 2021-05-10 Communist Propaganda at School is based on an analysis of reading primers from the Soviet bloc and recreates the world as presented to the youngest schoolchildren who started their education between 1949 and 1989 across the nine Eastern European countries The author argues that those first textbooks from their first to last pages were heavily laden with communist propaganda and that they share similar concepts techniques and even contents even if some national specificities can be observed This volume reconstructs the image of the world presented to schoolchildren in the first books they were required to read in their school life and argues that the image was charged with communist propaganda The book is based on the analysis of over sixty reading primers from nine countries of the Soviet bloc Albania Bulgaria Czechoslovakia the German Democratic Republic Hungary Poland Romania the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia from the period Written with simplicity and straightforwardness this book will be a valuable resource not only to international academics dealing with the issues of propaganda censorship education childhood and everyday life under communism in Eastern and Central Europe but can also academics dealing with education under communism or with the content of primary education It also brings educational experiences of the Soviet bloc to international researchers in particular to researchers of education under totalitarian and authoritarian regimes

Security through Cooperation

Walter A. Kemp, 2021-12-30 This book makes the case for why cooperation is the key to security within and between states and for dealing with complex threats and challenges to international peace and security It argues that cooperation is not altruism or liberal internationalism rather it is in the self interest of states Drawing on both theory and practice it looks at how cooperation can be promoted within and between states as well as in the global community It explains the concept of cooperative security and its potential contribution to promoting integration against the current of fragmentation

Furthermore the book explores the potential impact of technology on cooperation It makes an urgent call for new ideas and approaches to encourage people and states to work together to deal with complex threats and challenges This book will be of particular interest to students of diplomacy studies foreign policy and international relations and to practitioners dealing with security issues

Minority Rights and Minority Protection in Europe

Timofey Agarin, Karl Cordell, 2016-03-24 In order to gain access to the EU nations must be seen to implement formal instruments that protect the rights of minorities This book examines the ways in which these tools have worked in a number of post communist states and explores the interaction of domestic and international structures that determine the application of these policies Using empirical examples and comparative cases the text explores three levels of policy making within sub state and national politics and within international agreements laws and policy blueprints This enables the authors to establish how domestic policymakers negotiate various structural factors in order to interpret rights norms and implement them long enough to gain EU accession Showing that it is necessary to focus upon the states of post communist Europe as autonomous actors and not as mere recipients of directives and initiatives from the West the book shows how underlying structural conditions allow domestic policy actors to talk the talk of rights protection without walking the walk of implementing minority rights legislation on their territories
