National Identity and Foreign Policy Ilya Prizel, 1998-08-13 This book is based on the premise that the foreign policy of any country is heavily influenced by a society's evolving notions of itself Applying his analysis to Russia Poland and Ukraine the author argues that national identity is an ever changing concept influenced by internal and external events and by the manipulation of a polity's collective memory The interaction of the narrative of a society and its foreign policy is therefore paramount This is especially the case in East Central Europe where political institutions are weak and social coherence remains subject to the vagaries of the concept of nationhood Ilya Prizel's study will be of interest to students of nationalism as well as of foreign policy and politics in East Central Europe

Understanding Central Europe Marcin Moskalewicz, Wojciech Przybylski, 2017-11-20 Central Europe is a vague and ambiguous term more to do with outlook and a state of mind than with a firmly defined geographical region In the immediate aftermath of the collapse of the Iron Curtain Central Europeans considered themselves to be culturally part of the West which had been politically handicapped by the Eastern Soviet bloc More recently and with European Union membership Central Europeans are increasingly thinking of themselves as politically part of the West but culturally part of the East This book with contributions from a large number of scholars from the region explores the concept of Central Europe and a number of other political concepts from an openly Central European perspective It considers a wide range of issues including politics nationalism democracy and the impact of culture art and history Overall the book casts a great deal of light on the complex nature of Central Europe

Waterbury, 2010-11-14 Based on a qualitative study of Hungary and its changing relationship to the 3 million ethnic Hungarians in neighbouring states this book argues that it is not the ties of ethnicity but the political interests of kin state elites that drives states in Eastern Europe to take action on behalf of ethnic kin in neighboring states

Europe's Nightmare Miron Rezun, 2001-02-28 Recent bombing campaigns and peacekeeping efforts have achieved a fragile and uncertain peace in Kosovo However NATO will need help from both the European Union and the United Nations to create and maintain a lasting peace in the region An expert in the affairs of the troubled region Rezun traveled to the crisis zone to interview Kosovar refugees and foreign statesmen He offers a sharp critique of the conflict taking NATO and the entire Western Alliance to task and emphasizing the villainous behavior of the Milosevic regime One cannot consider what happened in Kosovo to be an isolated affair Rezun contends Based on the widest possible range of sources including documentation in nearly every European language this study will appeal to experts and laymen alike Rezun refuses to take sides In addition to his criticisms of foreign intervention exaggerated statistics and reverse ethnic cleansing he is merciless in his condemnation of the Serbs in particular the corrupt influence of Milosevic and the late Arkan In writing laced with irony wit and satire he reveals the foibles of limited war and the errors committed by all parties Yet his primary focus remains on the sufferings of the men women and children who filled the refugee camps and the devastated villages to which they have returned
