Native Stranger A Black Americans Journey Into The Heart Of Africa:

Native Stranger Eddy L. Harris,1992 An African American explores the realities of Africa African Americans and Africa Nemata Amelia Blyden,2019-05-28 An introduction to the complex relationship between African Americans and the African continent What is an African American and how does this identity relate to the African continent Rising immigration levels globalization and the United States first African American president have all sparked new dialogue around the question This book provides an introduction to the relationship between African Americans and Africa from the era of slavery to the present mapping several overlapping diasporas The diversity of African American identities through relationships with region ethnicity slavery and immigration are all examined to investigate questions fundamental to the study of African American history and culture The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing Robert Clarke,2018-01-11 This Companion addresses an exciting emerging field of literary scholarship that charts the intersections of postcolonial studies and travel writing Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Liberal Racism Jim Sleeper,2002 With uncompromising clarity Jim Sleeper discusses what liberals need to do to return their political movement to the vital center He challenges us to transcend race to reject the foolish policies and attitudes that have only reinforced racial divisions and to weave a social fabric sturdy enough to sustain the values upon which this country was founded Ebony ,1992-03 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Myth Performance in the African Diasporas Benita Brown,Dannabang Kuwabong,Christopher Olsen,2013-12-24 Diaspora studies continue to expand in range and scope and remain fertile terrain for investigating multiple techniques of myth creation in dance performance history as performance dramatic narrative and staged rituals in the field Similarly research in postcoloniality gender sexuality intercultural and literary studies among others all engage and feature core components of performance and myth in articulating and understanding their fields This sharing of similar components also demonstrates the interrelatedness of these fields In Myth

Performance in the African Diasporas Ritual Theatre and Dance the authors contend that performance traditions across artistic disciplines reveal a shared if sometimes varied journey among diasporic artists to reconnect with their African ancestors The volume begins with a historical and aesthetic overview of how dramatists choreographers and performance artists have approached the task of interpreting African myth The individual chapters reveal how specific artists dramatists and choreographers have interpreted African myth and what performative approaches and traditions they have used Focusing on theatre practitioners from the nineteenth century through the present the authors examine performative traditions from Canada the United States the Caribbean and Latin America Drawing upon research in theatre dance and literary texts Myth Performance in the African Diasporas will be crucial to academics interested in African performance viewed through the prism of myth making and spiritual ritualistic stagings Besides those interested in diasporic studies this book will also be useful to scholars and students of history drama theatre and dance

The American Adrenaline Narrative Kristin J. Jacobson,2020 1 DESIRING NATURES 2 CONQUERING NATURES 3 SPIRITUAL NATURES 4 EROTIC NATURES 5 RISKY NATURES 6 RESTORATIVE NATURES Appendix List of Contemporary American Adrenaline Narratives

Forgiving the Boundaries Terry Caesar,1995 Caesar attempts to historicize the sustaining interplay between romanticism and travel writing but also emphasizes that his understanding of American travel writing has more to do with narrative form epistemology and cultural inheritance than particular historical shapings Middle Passages James T. Campbell,2007-04-24 Penguin announces a prestigious new series under presiding editor Arthur Schlesinger Jr Many works of history deal with the journeys of blacks in bondage from Africa to the United States along the middle passage but there is also a rich and little examined history of African Americans traveling in the opposite direction In Middle Passages award winning historian James T Campbell vividly recounts more than two centuries of African American journeys to Africa including the experiences of such extraordinary figures as Langston Hughes W E B DuBois Richard Wright Malcolm X and Maya Angelou A truly groundbreaking work Middle Passages offers a unique perspective on African Americans ever evolving relationship with their ancestral homeland as well as their complex often painful relationship with the United States

Black on Black John Cullen Gruesser, 2021-05-11 Black on Black provides the first comprehensive analysis of the modern African American literary response to Africa from W E B Du Bois's The Souls of Black Folk to Alice Walker's The Color Purple Combining cutting edge theory extensive historical and archival research and close readings of individual texts Gruesser reveals the diversity of the African American response to Countee Cullen's question What is Africa to Me John Gruesser uses the concept of Ethiopianism the biblically inspired belief that black Americans would someday lead Africans and people of the diaspora to a bright future to provide a framework for his study Originating in the eighteenth century and inspiring religious and political movements throughout the 1800s Ethiopianism dominated African American depictions of Africa in the first two decades of the twentieth century particularly in the writings of Du Bois Sutton Griggs and Pauline Hopkins Beginning with the Harlem Renaissance and continuing through the Italian invasion and occupation of Ethiopia however its influence on the portrayal of the continent slowly diminished Ethiopianism's decline can first be seen in the work of writers closely associated with the New Negro Movement including Alain Locke and Langston Hughes and continued in the dramatic work of Shirley Graham the novels of George Schuyler and the poetry and prose of Melvin Tolson The final rejection of Ethiopianism came after the dawning of the Cold War and roughly coincided with the advent of postcolonial Africa in works by authors such as Richard Wright Lorraine Hansberry and Alice Walker

Political correctness,

Afrocentrism Stephen Howe, 1999-08-17 For centuries racist colonial and Eurocentric bias has blocked or distorted knowledge of Africans their histories and cultures resulting in a counter mythology claiming the innate superiority of African descended peoples In this provocative study historian Stephen Howe challenges this Afrocentric rewriting of African history
