African American Artists and the New Deal Art Programs Mary Ann Calo, 2023-03-20 This book examines the involvement of African American artists in the New Deal art programs of the 1930s Emphasizing broader issues informed by the uniqueness of Black experience rather than individual artists works Mary Ann Calo makes the case that the revolutionary vision of these federal art projects is best understood in the context of access to opportunity mediated by the reality of racial segregation Focusing primarily on the Federal Art Project FAP of the Works Progress Administration WPA Calo documents African American artists participation in community art centers in Harlem in St Louis and throughout the South She examines the internal workings of the Harlem Artists Guild the Guild s activities during the 1930s and its alliances with other groups such as the Artists Union and the National Negro Congress Calo also explores African American artists representation in the exhibitions sponsored by WPA administrators and the critical reception of their work In doing so she elucidates the evolving meanings of the terms race culture and community in the interwar era The book concludes with an essay by Jacqueline Francis on Black artists in the early 1940s after the end of the FAP program Presenting essential new archival information and important insights into the experiences of Black New Deal artists this study expands the factual record and positions the cumulative evidence within the landscape of critical race studies It will be welcomed by art historians and American studies scholars specializing in early twentieth century race relations

New Deal Art John P. Murphy, 2025-10-28 A vibrant and insightful account of the diverse artists and activists who made up the New Deal art programs and the influential legacy of the artwork they left behind What role should the arts play in a democracy At the height of the Great Depression President Franklin D Roosevelt s New Deal turned crisis into opportunity Through unprecedented federal funding for the arts the New Deal launched the careers of artists such as Philip Guston Dorothea Lange Jacob Lawrence Alice Neel Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko They belonged to the era s bold vision of cultural democracy art by the people for the people Brimming with vivid images and stories New Deal Art offers a dynamic survey of this transformative period The book highlights a diverse generation of artists who challenged dominant narratives of American history and identity Through state sponsored murals paintings sculptures photographs prints and posters these artists redefined the role of art in society They formed the first Artists Union and fought fascism through collective action They reimagined art as a public good rather than a private luxury New Deal Art confronts issues relevant today freedom and censorship race and representation art and activism politics and propaganda In an era of dwindling public arts funding the New Deal s goal of broadening access to art and culture remains as urgent as ever
