New Essays On Hemingways Short Fiction:

Beegel, 1992 Some 25 Hemingway scholars critique Hemingway's works from the early apprentice fiction of 1919 stories Hemingway wrote dog New essays on Hemingway's short fiction, 1991 New Critical Approaches to the Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway Jackson J. Benson, 1990-12-12 This companion volume reflects current scholarship and draws together essays that were published during the past decade or written for this collection Back cover Subverting Masculinity, 2021-08-04 Contemporary Western societies are currently witness to a crisis of masculinity but also to an intriguing diversification of images of masculinity Once relatively stable regimes of masculine gender representation appear to have been replaced by a wider spectrum of varieties of masculine lifestyles taken up by the media and the market to produce new and immensely flexible forms consumerised gender hegemony The essays in Subverting Masculinity concentrate on contemporary film literature and diverse forms of popular culture The essays show that the subversion of traditional images of masculinity is both a source of gender contestation but may equally be susceptible to assimilation by new hegemonic configurations of masculinity Subverting Masculinity maps out the ongoing relevance of gender politics in contemporary culture but also raises the question of increasingly unclear distinctions between hegemonic and subversive versions of masculinity in contemporary cultural production Subverting Masculinity will be of interest to students and teachers of gender cultural film and literary studies The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene The Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway Jackson J. Benson, 1975 The short stories of Hemingway not only have come to be considered the finest achievements of this writer's genius but also have taken their place as one of the most important contributions to the evolution of fiction. In this volume Jackson J. Benson has assembled thirty of the best essays on Hemingway's stories, essays that explore his art in all its depth and breadth. The editor has also provided an overview essay and a comprehensive checklist of Hemingway criticism. From publisher's description: The Hemingway Short Story George Monteiro, 2017-04-03 Ernest Hemingway revolutionized the American short story, establishing himself as a master of realist fiction in the tradition of Guy de Maupassant. Yet none of Hemingway's emulators has succeeded in duplicating his understated minimalist style. In his Iceberg Theory of fiction, only the tip of the story is seen on the surface; the rest is submerged out of sight. This study surveys the scope of Hemingway's mastery of the short story form, enabling a fuller understanding of such works as Indian Camp, Big Two-Hearted River, The Killers, The Mother of a Queen, In Another Country, Hills Like White Elephants, The Snows of Kilimanjaro, and The Mercenaries, among many others. All 13 stories from his underrated Winner Take Nothing collection are evaluated in detail. A Cognitive Approach to Ernest Hemingway's Short Fiction Gabriela Tucan, 2021-04-09 How do readers make sense of Hemingway's short stories? How is it possible that the camera-like quality of his narrative can appeal to our senses and arouse our emotions? How does it capture us? With reserved narrators and protagonists engaged in laconic dialogues, his texts do not seem to say much. This book consciously revisits our responses to the Hemingway story, a belated response to his invitation to discover what lies beneath the surface of his iceberg. What this pioneering critical endeavor seeks to understand is the thinking required in reading Hemingway's short fiction. It proposes a cognitively informed model of reading which questions the resources of the reader's imaginative powers. The cognitive demonstrations here are designed to have potentially larger implications for the short story's general mode of knowing. Drawing from both cognitively oriented poetics and narratology in equal measure, this book explains what structures our interaction with literary texts. Art Matters Robert Paul Lamb, 2011-02-18 In Art Matters, Robert Paul Lamb provides the definitive study of Ernest Hemingway's short story aesthetics. Lamb locates Hemingway's art in literary historical contexts and explains what he learned from earlier artists, including Edgar Allan Poe, Paul Cézanne, Henry James, Guy de Maupassant, Anton Chekhov, Stephen Crane, Gertrude Stein, James Joyce, and Ezra Pound. Examining how Hemingway developed this inheritance, Lamb insightfully charts the evolution of the unique style and innovative techniques that would forever change the nature of short fiction. Art Matters opens with an analysis of the authorial effacement Hemingway learned from Maupassant and Chekhov, followed by fresh perspectives on the author's famous use of concision and omission. Redefining literary impressionism and expressionism as alternative modes for depicting modern consciousness, Lamb demonstrates how Hemingway and Willa Cather learned these techniques from Crane and made them the foundation of their respective aesthetics. After examining the development of Hemingway's art of focalization, he clarifies what Hemingway really learned from Stein and delineates their different uses of repetition. Turning from techniques to formal elements, Art Matters

anatomizes Hemingway's story openings and endings analyzes how he created an entirely unprecedented role for fictional dialogue explores his methods of characterization and categorizes his settings in the fifty three stories that comprise his most important work in the genre A major contribution to Hemingway scholarship and to the study of modernist fiction Art Matters shows exactly how Hemingway's craft functions and argues persuasively for the importance of studies of articulated technique to any meaningful understanding of fiction and literary history The book also develops vital new ways of understanding the short story genre as Lamb constructs a critical apparatus for analyzing the short story introduces to a larger audience ideas taken from practicing storywriters theorists and critics and coins new terms and concepts that enrich our understanding of the field

Hemingway's Geographies Laura Gruber Godfrey, 2016-06-30 This book draws on the tools of literary analysis and cultural geography to investigate Ernest Hemingway's sophisticated construction of physical environments In doing so Laura Gruber Godfrey revises conventional approaches to Hemingway's literary landscapes and provides insight about his fictional characters and his readers alike

The Cambridge Companion to American Novelists Timothy Parrish, 2013 This volume provides newly commissioned essays from leading scholars and critics on the social and cultural history of the novel in America It explores the work of the most influential American novelists of the past 200 years including Melville Twain James Wharton Cather Faulkner Ellison Pynchon and Morrison

Similes, Puns and Counterfactuals in Literary Narrative Jennifer Riddle Harding, 2017-04-21 In this study Jennifer Riddle Harding presents a cognitive analysis of three figures of speech that have readily identifiable forms similes puns and counterfactuals Harding argues that when deployed in literary narrative these forms have narrative functions such as the depiction of conscious experiences allegorical meanings and alternative plots uniquely developed by these more visible figures of speech Metaphors by contrast are often invisible in the formal structure of a text With a solid cognitive grounding Harding's approach emphasizes the relationship between figurative forms and narrative effects Harding demonstrates the literary functions of previously neglected figures of speech and the potential for a unified approach to a topic that crosses cognitive disciplines Her work has implications for the rhetorical approach to figures of speech for cognitive disciplines and for the studies of literature rhetoric and narrative

A Historical Guide to Ernest Hemingway Linda Wagner-Martin, 2000-01-27 The 1999 Hemingway centennial marks the perfect time for the reevaluation of his position as America's premier modernist writer These essays all written specially for this collection

The Realist Short Story of the Powerful Glimpse Kerry McSweeney, 2007. An aesthetic perspective on the short fiction of Chekhov, Joyce, Hemingway, O'Connor, and Carver. Taking a distinctively aesthetic approach to the genre of realist short fiction, Kerry McSweeney clusters the work of five masters: Anton Chekhov, James Joyce, Ernest Hemingway, Flannery O'Connor, and Raymond Carver, to offer a poetics of the form for students and scholars. At the center of this argument is the notion that the realist short story is a glimpse, powerful and tightly focused, into a world that the writer must precisely craft and in which the reader must fully invest. Selecting writers from different generational, national, and cultural backgrounds, McSweeney chooses writers based on their commitment to the realist representation of experience and their shared belief in the importance and efficacy of the short story form. By considering their efforts in tandem, he develops a means to assess the strategies and claims of realist short fiction. McSweeney demonstrates that when the comments these writers have made about their work are assembled and critically scrutinized, the result is an aesthetic critical model, as opposed to more interpretative models that focus attention on the determination or indeterminacy of meanings. He suggests that a fully adequate reading of a realist short story involves the integration of three components: the enjoyment and contemplation of the story in and of itself; affective receptivity, or a response to the story's emotional content; and cognitive activity, or the reflective consideration of the story's conceptual implications. In individual chapters on Chekhov, Joyce, Hemingway, O'Connor, and Carver, this presentational model is applied to widely known and often anthologized readings from each writer. McSweeney brings into sharp focus the distinctive features of each piece, makes qualitative discriminations, and assesses the profitability of other critical models. He concludes with an invitation to test the mettle of his approach in reading other realist short story writers. Artificial Africa Ruth Mayer, 2002. A groundbreaking investigation of Western conceptions of Africa.
