Critical Theory And The Literary Canon E. Dean Kolbas, 2018-03-09 Kolbas stakes out new territory in assessing the war over literary canon formation a subject that contemporary polemicists have devoted much ink to Throughout this succinct manuscript Kolbas ranges through the sociology and politics of culture aesthetic theory and literary theory to develop his point that texts not only must be situated in the historical and material conditions of their production but also evaluated for their very real aesthetic content One reason this is an important issue Kolbas contends is that the canon is not simply enclosed in the ivory tower of academia its effects are apparent in a much wider field of cultural production and use He begins by critiquing the conservative humanist and liberal pluralist positions on the canon which either assiduously avoid any sociological explanation of the canon or treat texts as stand ins for particular ideologies Kolbas is sympathetic to the arguments of Bourdieu et al regarding positioning the canon in a wider field of cultural production than the university but argues that theirs are purely sociological explanations of aesthetics i.e. there is no objective aesthetic content that ignore art's autonomous realm which he argues à la Adorno exists if only problematically Ultimately he argues that critical theory particularly the arguments of Adorno on aesthetics offers the most fruitful path for evaluating the canon despite the approach's clear flaws His vision is a sociological one but one that treats the components of the canon as possessing objective aesthetic content albeit content that shifts in meaning over history Modern Critical Theory and Classical Literature J.P. Sullivan, Irene J.F. de Jong, 2018-07-17 In recent decades the study of literature in Europe and the Americas has been profoundly influenced by modern critical theory in its various forms whether Structuralism or Deconstructionism Hermeneutics Reader Response Theory or Rezeptionsästhetik Semiotics or Narratology Marxist feminist neo historical psychoanalytical or other perspectives Whilst the value and validity of such approaches to literature is still a matter of some dispute not least among classical scholars they have had a substantial impact on the study both of classical literatures and of the mentalité of Greece and Rome In an attempt to clarify issues in the debate the eleven contributors to this volume were asked to produce a representative collection of essays to illustrate the applicability of some of the new approaches to Greek and Latin authors or literary forms and problems The scope of the volume was deliberately limited to literary investigation broadly construed of Greek and Roman authors Broader areas of the history and culture of the ancient world impinge in the essays but are not their central focus The volume also contains a separate bibliography offering for the first time a complete bibliography of classical studies which incorporate modern critical theory African American Literary Theory Winston Napier,2000-07 Fifty one essays by writers such as Langston Hughes W E B Du Bois Ralph Ellison and Zora Neale Hurston as well as critics and academics such as Henry Louis Gates Jr examine the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present Contributions are organized chronologically beginning with the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Black Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism queer theory and cultural studies Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Rhetorics of Feminism Lynne Pearce,2013-04-15 Is it possible that changes in rhetorical practice could alter not just how thought is expressed but also how it is made Through a close stylistic and rhetorical analysis of contemporary feminist writing from the cultural theory of Judith Butler to the popular journalism of Naomi Wolf and Germaine Greer Lynne Pearce demonstrates how feminist thought is created as well as communicated through the frameworks in which it is presented By linking rhetorical innovation with feminist epistemology in such a direct way this is a book that will be of immense methodological as well as theoretical interest to readers providing valuable insight into the often mysterious processes of conception and composition Critical Encounters in Secondary English Deborah Appleman,2023-12-22 Grounded in solid theory with new field tested classroom activities the fourth edition of Critical Encounters in Secondary English continues to help teachers integrate the lenses of contemporary literary theory into practices that have always defined good pedagogy The most significant change for this edition is the addition of Critical Race Theory CRT as an analytical lens CRT offers teachers fresh opportunities for interdisciplinary planning and teaching as it lends itself to lessons that encompass a variety of disciplines such as history sociology psychology and science As with the previous edition each chapter concludes with a list of suggested nonfiction pieces that work well for the particular lens under discussion This popular text provides a comprehensive approach to incorporating nonfiction and informational texts into the literature classroom with new and revised classroom activities appropriate for today s students Book Features Helps both pre and inservice ELA teachers introduce contemporary literary theory into their classrooms Offers lucid and accessible explications of contemporary literary theory Provides dozens of innovative and field tested classroom activities Tackles the thorny issue of Critical Race Theory in helpful and practical ways Praise for the Third Edition What a smart and useful book It provides teachers with a wealth of knowledge and material to help their students develop critical perspective and suppleness of thought Mike Rose University of California Los Angeles This Third Edition proves that Appleman still has her hand on the pulse of the rapidly changing landscape of education Ernest Morrell Teachers College Columbia University This new edition of Deborah Appleman s now classic book demonstrates even more dramatically than previously how the critical theories she so skillfully teaches serve not only as lenses for the reading of literature but as tools for discovering interrogating and challenging injustice hypocrisy and the hidden power relations that students are likely to encounter Sheridan Blau Teachers College Columbia University
