New Hampshire From Farm To Kitchen:

New Hampshire Helen Brody, 2004 With a foreword by Stephen H Taylor Commissioner of Agriculture Markets and Food for New Hampshire Brody pulls together a comprehensive look at New Hampshire's rich store of gastronomic treasures by profiling some of the Granite State's most important working farms. They include multigenerational farms and their methods for preserving land and heritage farms using progressive pest and soil management techniques whether it be integrated Pest Management or organic farming. Community Supported Agriculture farms where community members pre-buy a crop to guarantee income for the small farmer and farms where those searching for a more fulfilling life have found a second career. Quick and easy recipes using each farm's raw ingredients make the direct and often overlooked connection between the farmer who grows the food and cook who prepares it. New Hampshire Women Farmers Helen Brody, Leslie Tuttle, 2015-09-08 New Hampshire ranks third nationally in the percentage of principal farm operators who are women and these women are transforming what it means both to be a farmer and to run a successful farm. Through informative prose and striking photographs Helen Brody and Leslie Tuttle show how women in the Granite State are revitalizing farming by creating value added products and developing new and vital markets for their locally grown food. Such innovations keep farms profitable and relevant even as they work to protect the open land we all value. Expanding their roles to include accountant, sales expert and educator the state's women farmers occupy the forefront of national farm to community outreach increasing public awareness of healthy foods and attracting travelers to New Hampshire's bounty. New Hampshire Women Farmers makes an excellent gift for anyone interested in the new directions that will sustain family farms in the twenty-first century. Tastes from a Tuscan Kitchen Madeline Armillotta, Diane Nocentini, 2007 Over the years the authors have collected many wonderful recipes from relatives and friends living in Tuscany and other regions of Italy. When deciding to write this book they considered which of these recipes we used the most and why. Both authors enjoy the distinct flavours in Italian cooking which are enhanced by the use of fresh herbs and extra virgin olive oil and also eating a healthy well-balanced diet of fresh fruits, vegetables, fish, meat, beans and dairy products. They also appreciate that in today's world everyone has a busy schedule. Therefore it became a priority that the recipes offered were not only delicious but also quick and easy to prepare. The final selection includes a wide variety of mouth-watering favourites presented with concise easy-to-follow instructions and many tasty variations. These variations allow for flexibility in the kitchen and are an enticing invitation to cook creatively. The result is a cookbook that will simplify your life and gratify the tastebuds of your family and friends. This book will become your inspiration for quick wholesome everyday meals, a well-thumbed friend supplying a constant source of ideas for delicious day-to-day Italian cooking. Food Lovers' Guide to Vermont & New Hampshire Patricia Harris, David Lyon, 2012-07-03 Vermont and New Hampshire are two sides of the same northern New England climate, the high landscapes of the Green Mountains and the White Mountains glued together by the Connecticut River Valley.
