New Imperialism:

America V. G. Kiernan, 2005-06-17 The invasion and occupation of Iraq have sparked considerable discussion about the nature of American imperialism but most of it is focused on the short term The classical historical approach of this book provides a convincing and compelling analysis of the different phases of American imperialism which have now led to America becoming a global hegemon without any serious rivals Victor Kiernan one of the world's most respected historians has used his nuanced knowledge of history literature and politics to trace the evolution of the American Empire he includes accounts of relations between Indians and white settlers readings of the work of Melville and Whitman and an analysis of the way that money and politics became so closely intertwined Eric Hobsbawm's preface provides an insight into his own thoughts on American imperialism and a valuable introduction to Victor Kiernan's work Together they shed useful light on today's urgent debates about the uses and misuses of seemingly unlimited military power a lack of respect for international agreements and the right to pre-emptive defense

The New Imperialism David Harvey, 2003-10-02 People around the world are confused and concerned Is it a sign of strength or of weakness that the US has suddenly shifted from a politics of consensus to one of coercion on the world stage What was really at stake in the war on Iraq Was it all about oil and if not what else was involved What role has a sagging economy played in pushing the US into foreign adventurism and what difference does it make that neo conservatives rather than neo liberals are now in power What exactly is the relationship between US militarism abroad and domestic politics These are the questions taken up in this compelling and original book Closely argued but clearly written The New Imperialism builds a conceptual framework to expose the underlying forces at work behind these momentous shifts in US policies and politics The compulsions behind the projection of US power on the world as a new imperialism are here for the first time laid bare for all to see This new paperback edition contains an Afterword written to coincide with the result of the 2004 American presidential election

Teaching Against Global Capitalism and the New Imperialism Peter McLaren, Ramin Farahmandpur, 2005 This book will address a number of urgent themes in education today that include multiculturalism the politics of whiteness the globalization of capital neoliberalism postmodernism imperialism and current debates in Marxist social theory The above themes will be linked to critical educational praxis particularly to teaching activities within urban schools Finally the book will develop the basis for a wider political project directed at resisting and transforming economic exploitation cultural homogenization political repression and gender inequality Recent and widespread scholarly attention has been given to the unabated mercilessness of global capitalism Little opposition exists as capital runs amok unhampered and undisturbed by the tectonic upheaval that is occurring in the geopolitical landscape that has recently witnessed the collapse of the Soviet Union and the regimes of the Eastern Bloc As we examine education policies within the context of economic globalization we attempt to address the extent to which the pedagogy and politics of everyday life has fallen under the sway of what we identify as cultural and economic imperialism Finally the book raises a number of urgent questions What are the current limitations to educational reform efforts among the educational left What are some of the problems associated with certain developments within postmodern education How can a return to Marxist theory and revolutionary politics revitalize the educational left at a time when capitalism appears to be unstoppable What actions need to be taken in both local and global arenas to overcome the exploitation that the globalization of capital has wreaked upon the world

Exporting Democracy Sophia Z Kovachevich, 2022-05-05 The world is in ferment The situation of today's world is at its worst There is trouble in every part of the world We were supposed to have peace and prosperity at the end of the Great Wars And for a few decades we did The Cold War kept peace of sorts and no major wars were fought But it all changed with the collapse of the USSR We lost the balance of power and only USA dominated At the moment there are wars all over the world on every continent it is the super powers attacking small nations The excuses are taking democracy to those countries by force through war or war on terror We are terrorising small nations in the name of ending terror by bringing not only terror but also death destruction and annihilation in our wake This book sets out to comprehensively look at the reasons behind the present condition of the world today It looks to uncover if there is any real democracy in the world today and the types of democracy available to us Not everything is suited to everyone We certainly do not want totalitarian rule in the name of democracy But that is the way we are going It is time to stop Take stock and decide do we want a better world or do we want to destroy this world Perhaps we are the final throes of our civilisation and don't even realise it
