Novack,2014-05-19 On first consideration one might not be inclined to view Adolf Hitler and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in relation to Jehanne d Arc Joan of Arc but Brenda E Novack does just that She demonstrates how these three prominent figures who influenced world history all acted in accordance with what they claimed or perceived to be divine sanction of their participation in violence Taking the reader on a unique exploration of their lives and deaths Novack identifies significant similarities and differences in notions of divine call and human response conveyed by these personalities and determines how they align or fail to align with the biblical prophetic tradition Taking Jehanne d Arc as her foundational study the author engages important theological issues such as the nature of revelation evil and morality The process culminates in the construction of a model of righteous warfare and human agency presented as a tool for evaluating claims to divinely sanctioned violence and as a potentially effective alternative to an outmoded and currently inadequate just war model Case studies of Hitler and Bonhoeffer tentatively establish the model's ability to steer humanity away from unnecessary destruction toward justice compassion and peace

An Inklings Weave Neith Arrow,2012-04 Truth can only be spoken by Truth There is no other way to say It Likewise does This Book speak for Itself with flowing Words warmed up to paint vivid pictures like a Dream giving one the extrasensory experiences of seeing as no seeing and doing as no doing So exposed to the shadowy light of one's own sublime Theme does the novel Kind sprout up as a Visionary show and tell to demonstrate who You are Yes you as the well fed of fantasy fiction and self help yet still hungry and sweating it out for Allegory and Metaphor's rich return And the You standing upon your formative plateau with nothing above and nothing below faced out in the apocalyptic view of I Just Know There Is More Here Than Meets the Eye And are you ready to take the leap to greet It

The Corporation Joel Bakan,2019-09-03 The inspiration for the film that won the 2004 Sundance Film Festival Audience Award for Best Documentary The Corporation contends that the corporation is created by law to function much like a psychopathic personality whose destructive behavior if unchecked leads to scandal and ruin Over the last 150 years the corporation has risen from relative obscurity to become the world's dominant economic institution Eminent Canadian law professor and legal theorist Joel Bakan contends that today's corporation is a pathological institution a dangerous possessor of the great power it wields over people and societies In this revolutionary assessment of the history character and globalization of the modern business corporation Bakan backs his premise with the following observations The corporation's legally defined mandate is to pursue relentlessly and without exception its own economic self interest regardless of the harmful consequences it might cause to others The corporation's unbridled self interest victimizes individuals society and when it goes awry even shareholders and can cause corporations to self destruct as recent Wall Street scandals reveal Governments have freed the corporation despite its flawed character from legal constraints through deregulation and granted it ever greater authority over society through privatization But Bakan believes change is possible and he outlines a far reaching program of achievable reforms through legal regulation and democratic control Featuring in depth interviews with such wide ranging figures as Nobel Prize winner Milton Friedman business guru Peter Drucker and cultural critic Noam Chomsky The Corporation is an extraordinary work that will educate and enlighten students CEOs whistle blowers power brokers pawns pundits and politicians alike
